METROPOLITAN DISTRICT, 1938.

Total valuation of the 43 cities and towns in the Metropolitan District in 1938 was $3,499,398,193 and the property tax on the same was $130,474,309. The average tax rate was $33.28. Strictly speaking, tax rates cannot be averaged. A rate of $37.28 would be required to raise $130,474,309 on a valuation of $3,499,398,198. Of the total valuation, 44.37 per cent applied to property in Boston.

The total valuation of the 13 cities in the district was $1,126,838,735 with a total property tax of $42,494,084, requiring a tax rate of $37.71.

Boston's tax rate of $41.30 was exceeded by Chelsea ($46.20), Revere ($47.00), Saugus ($46.00) and Somerville ($43.90).

REVENUE BOND ACTS.

The 1936 issue of the "Municipal Index" contains a detailed study of the revenue bond acts in the thirty-three states which have enabling acts, and reports of all forty-eight states, showing what advantage has been taken of these acts by cities to finance the construction, operation and maintenance of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants by service charges.

The table shows the status of revenue bond acts and other enabling acts in the different states, the dates when the acts became effective, and whether or not cities have taken advantage of the opportunity offered for financing bonds by service charges. In the case of states with no enabling acts, the table shows whether cities are charging sewer rentals under some other authority.

According to the findings of the National Safety Council motor traffic deaths in 1935 totaled 36,400, compared with 1934's record of 36,000.

The only decrease was among school children up to fifteen years of age. Motor vehicle accidents to children have increased much less than those of adults since 1922, when safety education began on a national scale. October, November and December were the reddest months. Two-thirds of the accidents were in places under 10,000 population; more than 40 per cent of the victims pedestrians.

Thirteen states decreased traffic deaths 7 per cent or more: Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming and Washington.

BUDGETARY CONTROL.

Prior to installing the present system of budgetary control, effective as of January 1, 1939, the city of Newark had no centralized accounting control over its budget commitments. The city's general ledger contained accounts for the various budget appropriations, and reflected disbursements out of the appropriations. However, commitments for work and material were not recorded in the city's accounts until after bills submitted by the vendors had been approved for payment by the Board of Commissioners. Consequently, financial reports could only show the amount of appropriated moneys that had not been disbursed out of any account. No recognition could be given in these reports to the unpaid purchase commitments, since the amount was not known. The American City.

TAUNTON'S ASPHALT PLANT.

One of the functions of a city public works or street department is to operate as effectively as possible in the construction and maintenance of its streets and sidewalks and to produce the necessary materials for paving at the lowest possible cost. In some cities this is effected by the purchase of all paving materials in either the raw or the mixed stage. Taunton has used a city-owned 100-ton asphalt plant for street paving and maintenance and for sidewalk construction for ten years. Located in the city yard with the equipment repair shop and garage, the plant is housed in a 60 by 90 foot building with a 30 by 100 foot wing, which was formerly used as a foundry. The American City.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

WATER-SUPPLY DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1652 Boston introduced the first American public water supply. The first mechanical pumps were used in 1761 at Bethlehem, Pa., where Hans Christiansen, an American pioneer water-supply engineer, made his pumps work "after severe struggles." In 1850 there were only 100 water plants in the United States, and as late as 1875 only 243. In 1933 there were more than 11,000 public water supplies, some serving more than one community.

TO PROTECT MINORS.

Buffalo is considering an ordinance, similar to the one in effect in New York City, for the protection of minors in theaters. It permits children, unaccompanied by adults, only in theaters licensed as to adequate sanitary and safety provisions, sets aside a certain section for them and requires the presence of a licensed matron.

SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1941. NO. 17

MAYOR TOBIN MAKES REPLY TO FINANCE COMMISSION CHARGES OF VANDALISM AND DESTRUCTION OF CITY PROPERTY — POINTS TO FACT HIS ADMINISTRATION HAS TAKEN EVERY PRECAUTION TO CHECK DEPREDATIONS, BUT THAT DUTY DEVOLVES ON ALL CITIZENS TO AID, SINCE THIEVERY AND VANDALISM ARE HUMAN WEAKNESSES WHERE MORONIC TENDENCIES AND LACK OF MORAL SENSE HAVE BEEN BLUNTED — MANY CASES CITED HAVE ALREADY BEEN CHECKED.

In reply to the report of the Finance Commission to Mayor Tobin relative to vandalism and the malicious destruction of property in the city, the Mayor has issued the following statement:

Although the Finance Commission's latest report is presented as an exposé of vandalism, it deals with two pernicious activities, vandalism and theft, which, however, are often related in that the culprit, or culprits, will steal articles and at the same time damage property. Both of these offences have been encountered by every Boston administration and neither has been effectually stamped out. It will be noted that the Finance Commission offers no concrete suggestion for eliminating the trouble.

However, the combination loss by vandalism and thievery has assumed fairly large proportions. Every effort should and will be made to keep such losses at a minimum and since March, 1940, the Municipal Survey Committee has been studying the matter.

As long as we have children who incline to malicious mischief, and older people with moronic tendencies, we must expect acts of vandalism, especially in a city the size of Boston. Stealing is a common offence, but when the Finance Commission charges that city employees are responsible for thievery, a specific answer is required.

Precautions Taken.

Speaking for my administration, I can say that the department heads take every precaution against theft and any employee who is detected stealing is dealt with summarily.

In the case of the City Hospital, I am assured by the superintendent that careful supervision has resulted in cutting thefts to a point where there is practically no such loss at present. It is a large institution with an extensive staff of employees, some of whom may descend to petty thievery, but no serious thefts have occurred since two microscopes were stolen two years ago. There was suspicion of theft a month ago but investigation cleared the matter. The reference in the report to thefts of material and fittings that occurred when a large outside force was at work there seemingly reflects upon those workers rather than on the members of the hospital personnel.

Many instances in the report occurred years ago, such as the loss of two shoe working machines at the Deer Island House of Correction. These disappeared in 1933 and the theft was not discovered until 1937. Each was of a size that could be carried by one man. It was found that they had been placed with a pile of junk that was carted away by someone who had contracted for it.

It is true that the taking of eggs by inmates of the Deer Island institution resulted in such a loss that special precautions were necessary. These consisted of making over the former turkey run so that nests for laying hens will be in two long rows which can be watched by the officer on duty. Formerly the nests were in aisles, all of which could not be supervised at a time. The remodeled poultry house will soon be in use and the loss of eggs will end. Meanwhile, the industry has not been abandoned. It nets a substantial profit each month through the sale of poultry for meat to other city institutions.

In the matter of property taken over by the city on tax title proceedings, vandalism is accountable for some of the loss and damage, but some of it is also due to the acts of former owners who try to salvage as much as possible from the buildings they have lost. Plumbing and fittings had been stolen before the city could take possession. To stop such losses we now report immediately to the Police Department each piece of property thus taken over, and request that the premises be guarded.

Outside Workers.

With regard to the Bridge and Ferry Division, mention in the report of thefts of property totaling, in value $50,000 is indefinite as to the period of time covered. The North Ferry was abandoned on April 30, 1933, and, subsequently, electrical controls and other articles with an over-all value of about $200 were stolen.

Where the city has provided tools for outside workers, the Public Works Department, through its system of control, has kept thefts of such equipment to a minimum. Following the St. Valentine's Day snowstorm of 1940, when 15,000 men worked on snow removal, many of them not regular city employees, there was a substantial loss of shovels.

It is generally recognized that school children are responsible for a number of acts of vandalism in buildings operated by the School Department. A constant campaign is waged to check the evil. Superintendent Arthur L. Gould holds one meeting a month with the principals, supervisors and others who are in charge of the buildings at which they are instructed to place before the pupils the fact that where property is destroyed or damaged the cost falls upon their parents in the form of taxation. At these meetings the custodian reads the latest record of such damage.

MAYOR TOBIN MAKES REPLY.

Principals also are instructed to regularly take up the matter of vandalism with the various home and school organizations so that it is thoroughly understood by the parents. Any vandalism is immediately reported by school authorities to the Police Department and, in school assembly meetings, principals explain to pupils that it is their responsibility to help protect city property, especially in schools, and that they should immediately report any information they may have as to vandalism in schools.

The Survey Committee has prepared forms upon which department heads report vandalism. One of the worst records is with regard to false fire alarms and the Survey Committee analysis shows that four sections of the city are the worst in that respect. Doubtless, many false alarms and other vandalism may be charged to intoxicated persons.

The suggestion that a large staff of watchmen would be effective entails heavy expense. More serious penalties for offences now treated somewhat lightly, more alert police work in the so-called "weak" districts and no leniency on the part of judges might do much toward checking the evil.

The Survey Committee is investigating the possibility of the city buying property damage protection, especially for window glass, as one method of cutting the cost of vandalism.

When the inventory control system of consumable materials and supplies, which I am installing in the various institutions, is in operation, the possibilities of losses due to normal operation or any other cause will be largely eliminated.

Upon April 22 the Mayor approved a contract with bidders as indicated according to the following communication:

Boston, April 7, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

My dear Mr. Mayor,—The attached bids were received April 4, 1941, for furnishing and delivering to the Department Storehouse, 26 Norman street, Boston, fifty (50) nutrition tables, one hundred (100) benches and ten (10) serving tables for various schools. Jackson Folding Chair Company, 660 Park Square Building, Boston, was the lowest bidder in the sum of $1,378.

I also asked for an alternate price to deliver additional units if needed by this department during the year 1941. You will note by the attached list that five of the concerns who submitted proposals were unable to bid on future quantities that might be needed for this department.

Therefore it is my intention after the original proposal is awarded to increase through an order of addition to the contract thirty (30) nutrition tables, sixty (60) benches and six (6) serving tables at the unit price as submitted in this proposal. Most of the bidders stated in their proposal that on account of general conditions of the lumber market they were unable to guarantee prices for future deliveries, therefore I shall, with your Honor's approval, take advantage of the unit prices and order the extra amounts as stated above.

Awaiting your Honor's approval, I am,

Respectfully yours,

JAMES J. MAHER,

TRANSFER OF LAND ON EAST DEDHAM STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 12, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith an order for a transfer of a certain parcel of land on East Dedham street comprising close to 6,000 square feet of land from the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate, City of Boston, to the Park Department, City of Boston.

This parcel of land was obtained by the city through a foreclosure due to nonpayment of taxes and is adaptable for use for playground purposes. In my opinion transfers of this character should be made whenever possible for play areas in the congested sections of the city.

I respectfully recommend passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Whereas, The City of Boston by a decree of the Land Court, Suffolk Registry District, dated October 5, 1936, foreclosed a right of redemption under a tax deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 5395, page 116, on about five thousand nine hundred and sixty-two (5,962) square feet of land on the southwesterly side of and being numbered seventy-three (73) East Dedham street, Boston; and

Whereas, The said parcel of land is now in the care, custody, control and management of the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate Division of the City of Boston under the provisions of chapter 358 of the Acts of 1938; and

Whereas, The Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Boston has been requested to establish a playground on the said parcel of land; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Custodian, Foreclosed Real Estate Division of the City of Boston, be, and he hereby is, authorized, with the approval of the Mayor of the City of Boston, to transfer to the Board of Park Commissioners of the City of Boston for playground purposes, the care, custody, control and management of the said parcel of land, hereinbefore referred to.

Referred to Executive Committee.

Boston Elevated Railway,
April 11, 1941.

Mr. William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk-Secretary, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir,—Just prior to the receipt of your letter of April 3 with order of the City Council, requesting the establishment of a bus line between Savin Hill Station and the Jeremiah E. Burke High School, we received a letter from Councilor Hutchinson who introduced the order in the Council.

The matter has been discussed with Councilor Hutchinson and it has been explained to him that it would not be practicable for the railway to provide special transportation to the various schools and that transportation facilities now exist for students at the Jeremiah E. Burke School, which are as satisfactory as bus service would be.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

City of Boston,
Building Department, April 10, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Subject: City Council order of March 31, 1941.

Dear Sir,—Concerning your communication of April 3, 1941, requiring my consideration and report on subject,—City Council order requesting the Building Commissioner to conduct an investigation into the causes of recent fatalities which have occurred in elevator shafts in the city, and of conditions of elevator safety devices throughout the city,—please be informed that an investigation of every elevator or escalator accident is made and a report filed in the Building Department records, and a study of said reports indicates that the greatest percentage of accidents is on freight elevators or in freight elevator shafts, with cause of accident invariably attributed to carelessness on the part of the individual injured, and the question of elevator safety devices is seldom a contributory factor.

Elevator construction and operation, excepting the qualifications of the individual operator, are regulated by the statutory provisions of chapter 143 of the General Laws as formed by a Board of Elevator Regulations under the Department of Public Safety, administered within the City of Boston by the Building Department which has no authority to change such regulations regardless of whether or not in a specific instance more rigid requirements would provide greater public safety.

As above stated, the greater percentage of accidents is in connection with freight elevators, and the regulations pertaining to same are such that no licensed operator is required to operate such elevator cars unless said car operates at a speed in excess of one hundred feet per minute, and such cars if operated at such speed always are equipped with devices in a manner similar to that of passenger elevator cars on which accidents have practically been avoided. However, of the total number of freight elevators a large percentage is the type which operate at less than one hundred feet per minute and are not equipped with safety and operating devices, gates, etc., as required for passenger elevators, so it is very apparent that to minimize the number of accidents regulations pertaining to the type of freight elevator described will have to be enacted, and to this extent the Building Department has requested, as recently as the last month, for the privilege of discussing with the Public Safety Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts a revision of the regulations.

Respectfully yours,
JAMES H. MOONEY,
Building Commissioner.

RE-TRAINING OF ELIGIBLE MEN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 14, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the secretary of the Welfare Department relative to your order of March 24, 1941, concerning the re-training of eligible men on the Public Welfare by utilizing existing agencies, such as the schools, so that these men may be prepared to fit into the National Defense Program.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM J. GALVIN, Acting Mayor.

City of Boston,
Overseers of the Public Welfare,
April 9, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston,
Attention of Mr. William T. Doyle.

Dear Sir,—Regarding the orders of the City Council passed on March 24, 1941, copy of which is inclosed, may I report as follows:

In answer to the first order, may I state that the present absorption of men into a training or re-training program is done through the State Department of Education in connection with the School Committee of the City of Boston, and the selection is made from a choice of men who are on the W. P. A. rolls and also those who have made application for employment through the Massachusetts State Employment Service.

Our great gain, I feel, is accomplished by having men on our Welfare rolls replace those on W. P. A. rolls who enter private industry after they receive this training.

In answer to the second order, may I state that we constantly encourage men and women who are aliens to the use of such school programs as are available to enable them to learn to read and write the English language in order that they may eventually become citizens. We also are doing our best to maintain cooperation with the Americanization Division of the Mayor's Office.

Finally, may I state that every person on Public Welfare rolls who is eligible for employment is required to register at the Massachusetts State Employment Office. In addition, they are constantly referred to the City of Boston Employment Bureau at 25 Church street, and also our own Employment Section does what it can in obtaining positions for these persons.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Public Works Commissioner relative to your order of March 31, 1941, concerning the installation of granolithic sidewalks on both sides of Chesbrough road, Ward 20, as a W. P. A. project.

William T. Doyle,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Mr. Doyle,—This is in reference to the above order that was passed in the City Council on March 31, 1941:

"Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install granolithic sidewalks on both side of Chesbrough road, Ward 20, as a W. P. A. project."

A W. P. A. project which provides for the installation of bituminous concrete or so-called black type of sidewalk in the above-referenced street has been approved, and it is the intention of the department to start the work within the next two or three weeks.

It was determined advisable to install the bituminous type of sidewalk in this street as it was felt that it would be satisfactory to the residents, particularly in view of the fact that they would not be assessed any betterment charges. If, on the other hand, a granolithic sidewalk were installed, the abutters would be required to pay one half the cost of the work.

Unless, therefore, I am informed by the residents that they would prefer a granolithic sidewalk instead of bituminous concrete, the department will proceed with the installation of the latter-referenced type of walk.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON BOSTON ELEVATED RAILWAY INVESTIGATION.

The report of the Finance Commission to Governor Saltonstall re study of Boston Elevated Railway made by Messrs. Timothy F. Callahan and James M. Kelleher, under auspices of Mayor Tobin and the Finance Commission, was received, as follows:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, April 9, 1941.

Hon. Leverett Saltonstall,
Governor of Massachusetts.

Your Excellency,—The report of the study of the Boston Elevated Railway Company which has been made by Messrs. Timothy F. Callahan and James W. Kelleher, under the auspices of Mayor Maurice J. Tobin and the Finance Commission of the City of Boston, is submitted to you herewith. It is devoted to a discussion of certain of the accounting procedures pursued by the trustees of the Elevated since June 30, 1918—the date when public control and operation began. These procedures are complicated, and therefore the discussion is not easy to follow. For that reason the Mayor and the Finance Commission believe that it may be of advantage to introduce the study with a résumé of the important phases discussed, and to add some of the facts which were brought out in the meetings with the trustees subsequent to the presentation of the study, and, in addition, some comments of their own.

It must not be lost sight of that for a time Mr. Callahan was unable to examine the books of the trustees, and only after a conference, suggested by you, with the Mayor and the Commission was such examination begun. Even then, as a condition to permitting Mr. Callahan to have complete access to their accounts, the trustees stipulated that before his study be published, they should be given an opportunity to examine Mr. Callahan's findings and to offer such facts and arguments to the Mayor and the Finance Commission as they might see fit, in opposition to or in contradiction of the conclusions reached. As a result, the study was presented to the trustees on March 12, 1941, and subsequently, on March 24 and March 29, the Mayor and the commission met with the trustees and discussed at lengtn substantially all matters involved in the study. These meetings were also attended by Messrs. Callahan and Kelleher, accompanied by Mr. F. E. Welch of F. E. Welch & Co., accountants employed by Mr. Callahan (second meeting only); and by Mr. Moran, the treasurer; Mr. Dana, the general manager; Mr. Dunbar, the accountant; and Mr. Downey, the counsel of the Elevated.

On these two occasions much material was presented by the trustees, including a written answer to Mr. Callahan's conclusions. This material will be referred to from time to time herein.

Mr. Callahan's chief object was to find out whether or not the Elevated deficit assessed annually upon the cities and towns in the district could be reduced. He determined that the most fruitful field of study lay in an analysis of the annual charges to "cost of service" and to the depreciation reserve. As a result, his report is limited to the accounting field, and does not touch many others in which, in his opinion, study would not be in vain. Even in the area chosen time has not permitted the completion of his investigation.

The trustees, when they assumed control of the Elevated, did not set up their own set of books, and also made no attempt to secure an appraisal of the property of which they then took possession. Many of the criticisms now made would have been obviated had these two steps been taken. Instead, the trustees continued the bookkeeping methods of the Elevated Company before its operation under the Public Control Act. Under the old system the cost of each item of property was entered, when acquired, in the property account on the asset side of the balance sheet under the appropriate classification, and remained at that figure until finally written off, subject occasionally, of course, to increase due to betterments and additions, or decrease due to intermediate charge-offs. All annual charges to income on account of depreciation were credited to a depreciation reserve on the liability side of the balance sheet, which was, in turn, charged at any time and from time to time with the full amount of the cost, as it then appeared on the books of the company, of all depreciable assets simultaneously written off. This method of bookkeeping gave wide latitude for the exercise of discretion by the officials of the company. They were thereby enabled to retain on their books as an asset property at its original cost for as long a time as they pleased, simply by refusing to charge it off. No matter how long it had lasted, no matter how obsolete it might have become, it still could stand on the books at its original cost, until finally charged off. On the other hand, property might be charged off at original cost at any time prior to complete obsolescence. The depreciation reserve could thereby be inflated or at the discretion of the officials of the company deflated by charging off an asset whenever they deemed it proper without regard to the time when its useful life had actually expired.

Improper annual charges to income for depreciation could likewise be covered up in this way. Such annual charges were always credited, as previously stated, to the depreciation reserve. If these annual charges inadequately reflected the actual depreciation and obsolescence of the depreciable property, all that was necessary in order to maintain the depreciation reserve was to make inadequate charge-offs of property no longer used or useful. On the other hand, it was equally possible to conceal excessive annual depreciation charges by making excessive charges to the depreciation reserve.

This was the system which the original trustees inherited, adopted and perpetuated.

As an example of what could be and was actually done under it, the following is quoted from Mr. Callahan's study. Between 1890 and 1894 the old West End Street Railway spent $586,139.11 on experimental work connected with converting box cars from horse car type to electric car type, and also with motors and motive power wiring. This expense was entered in this period as a capital asset on the books of the company. It was never charged off during private ownership, and in 1922, when the Elevated acquired the West End, was transferred to the Elevated and entered on its books as an asset. Obviously it had long before ceased to represent anything of value to the Elevated. Nevertheless it was carried thereafter for twelve years as an asset on the books of the Elevated, and was finally charged off by the trustees in 1934 and the amount ($586,139.11) was simultaneously charged to the depreciation reserve — though it was, of course, a non-depreciable item.

This is one instance which Mr. Callahan has found in which the trustees charged to the Elevated's depreciation reserve write-offs of capital assets which under no circumstances should ever have been charged to a depreciation reserve. Another is a series of charges totaling $330,617.33 to the depreciation reserve between 1920 and 1938, representing the difference between the cost on the books of land sold and the sale price of such land. Mr. Callahan observes that land is not subject to depreciation and that the $330,617.33 should under no circumstances have been charged to a depreciation reserve.

The gravamen of Mr. Callahan's findings, however, is not that the trustees improperly charged to the depreciation reserve items of undepreciable property but that the trustees charged to the depreciation reserve depreciable items against which no depreciation reserve had ever properly been accumulated.

According to a statement furnished to the Mayor and the commission by the trustees, the total depreciable property of the Elevated (including the West End) on July 1, 1918, had a book value of $68,408,014.54. The total sum in the depreciation reserve on that date was $616,323.98. All parties are agreed that this reserve was woefully inadequate, and that the actual depreciation of the depreciable assets of the road exceeded this sum by many millions. Their estimates, however, vary. The trustees arrive at a figure of $29,076,317.85 as representing the excess of the actual depreciation over the reserve provided against it. Mr. Callahan's somewhat more conservative figure is $22,128,676.02.

When the trustees took over, they proceeded to set up and charge to the cost of service the sum of $167,000 per month, or $2,004,000 per year. They kept this figure unchanged until the end of 1923, when it had produced the sum of $7,014,000. They then substituted, according to Mr. Moran, vice president and treasurer of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, a figure derived from tables computed on what is known as a straight line depreciation basis, and have followed this procedure to date. Mr. Kelleher advises the Mayor and the commission that usually if not invariably the actual annual charge has been somewhat less than the total built up by Mr. Moran's tables, and both sides agree that the tables have excluded track items entirely and substituted in lieu of any depreciation charge thereon an annual flat figure of $250,000.

Due to the substitution of this new method, the annual depreciation charge to cost of service in 1924 jumped to $2,496,000. Since then it has been as high as $2,878,054.52 in 1929, and has recently been less, being $2,074,456.22 in 1939 and $2,156,909.68 in 1940. The sum total, according to Mr. Callahan, on December 31, 1939, was $51,102,240.65, and according to the trustees was $51,200,329.43. In addition, the depreciation reserve has received minor additional items from other sources totaling $335,637.31.

With a monthly depreciation charge of $167,000, the trustees began immediately to charge off items no longer used or useful in the plant account on the balance sheet and to deduct an equal amount from the depreciation reserve. Items in the plant account were carried on the books at their original undepreciated cost, and, therefore, when they were charged off, were charged off in that amount and reflected in that amount in the deduction from the depreciation reserve. As a result, the depreciation reserve set up after public control was established was charged with all the depreciation accrued before public control on each item charged off — except the $616,323.98 found in the depreciation reserve at the beginning of the period.

The extent of the reduction of the depreciation reserve set up by the trustees, resulting from the inclusion in the total of charged-off items of the depreciation accrued before the commencement of public control, is estimated by Mr. Callahan as at least $17,503,203.83. In arriving at this result, Mr. Callahan employs a straight line depreciation formula like that employed by the trustees in computing their annual depreciation charge, except that whereas the trustees have to estimate the useful future life of an item at the time of acquisition, Mr. Callahan has the useful life of an item on the books established for him by knowing both the date of its acquisition and the date of its charge-off. In other respects both Mr. Callahan and the trustees employ the same method; they divide the cost of an item by its life (estimated or actual, as the case may be) and thus determine its annual rate of depreciation.

By the application of this method to items charged off by the trustees which were on the books prior to the beginning of public control, Mr. Callahan finds that the trustees charged to the Elevated's depreciation reserve write-offs of capital assets totaling $34,582,097.01, on which depreciation of $17,078,893.18 after June 30, 1918, had been provided by the trustees, and depreciation of $17,503,203.83 before June 30, 1918, had been provided by no one—save for the inadequate sum of $616,323.98 on the books at the time when the trustees took control. He adds to the $17,503,203.83 the two items of $586,139.11 for experimental work, and $330,617.33 for losses incurred in the sale of land, both of which have been previously described, subtracts the $616,323.98, and leaving a minimum total of $17,803,636.29, which he maintains was an improper and unwarranted charge to the depreciation reserve.

The trustees did not deny before the Mayor and the commission the accuracy of Mr. Callahan's figures in this regard. They did, however, deny his conclusion. They took the position that if the annual sum charged for depreciation to the cost of service, and credited to the depreciation reserve, was proper, then it made no difference what the trustees charged to the reserve. This they maintained was a mere bookkeeping matter and in no way affected the cost of service. They further stated that the only real question which could be raised as to the propriety of the annual sum charged for depreciation revolved around the life of each depreciable item as estimated by the trustees. They maintained that if the life which they estimated was too short, then the annual depreciation charge in respect of that item was too high, and on the other hand, if the estimated life was too long, the annual depreciation charge was too low.

With this last position the Mayor and the commission agree. But they cannot agree that the matter stops there. The amount in the depreciation reserve, in relation to the total amount of depreciable property, is a factor of prime importance in determining whether the annual amount set aside for depreciation is proper. If in spite of proper charge-offs the reserve keeps annually increasing, it is the most convincing evidence that the officials determining the estimated life of the depreciable property of the company are being too generous in providing depreciation. And the reverse is equally true. Therefore it is important in ascertaining whether or not the annual sum for depreciation charged by the trustees to the cost of service is proper, to ascertain how great is the depreciation reserve; and naturally this leads to the inquiry as to whether or not it has been improperly depleted.

If Mr. Callahan be correct, then there should be added to the depreciation reserve amounting, as of December 31, 1939, to $16,654,629.49, the sum of $17, 803,636.29, making a total of $34,458,265.88. The trustees have placed the book value of the total of their depreciable property on that date at $82,624,675.38, so that a reserve of $34,458,265.88 is 41.70 per cent of the book value of the depreciable property. This is a splendid reserve. Even a representative of the trustees was willing to admit that a reserve of that size, if not improperly built up, would be too high and would indicate that the annual charge for depreciation to the cost of service had been too high It seems, therefore, to the Mayor and the commission that Mr. Callahan's point is well taken.

This view is reinforced by other factors. The depreciation reserve has been constantly increasing in spite of charge-offs. Leaving aside the first ten years when the trustees were retiring much of the over-age equipment which they had inherited, a chart offered by the trustees shows that on December 31, 1928, the reserve mounted to eight figures for the first time. On that date it stood at $10,852,610.22. The next year it jumped nearly $2,000,000. The next year it stood at $13,667,480.08. Twelve months later it rose to $14,017,226.57. In the following year (1932) charges more than double any ever made in any other year to date ($5,049,534.08), due to retirements totaling approximately $4,011,000 of power plant buildings and equipment at the Central Power Station on Albany street and elsewhere, reduced it to $11,283,044.52, and from that time it has climbed in amounts varying from less than $100,000 to over $1,500,000 a year, to the highest figure of all time, $16,821,801.67, on December 31, 1940. This steady climb is indicative of the fact that the credits to the reserve for a very considerable period have been in excess of the need therefor, and that the present figure of nearly $17,000,000 is adequate.

Another factor which indicates that the trustees may have employed a policy of underestimating the probable life of a substantial part of their depreciable assets, is contained in the answer of the trustees filed with the Mayor and the commission. In this answer the trustees state that depreciable property which they carry on their books at $11,250,164.93 has been fully depreciated, so that it is no longer depreciable, since it has exceeded the original estimate of its useful life but is nevertheless still in use. This figure represents between a seventh and an eighth of the total depreciable property of the Elevated. It is an important item. It is to a large extent an equipment item. And the fact that the equipment is still in service though fully depreciated is an indication that the trustees have in the past overcharged the cost of service for the depreciation of these items.

It can properly be said in reply to the foregoing that the past overcharges only result in relief for the future, and that if the trustees had estimated more accurately the life of the equipment, the effect would be that although the charge for past years might have been less, the charge for 1941 and future years would have necessarily been greater. It can also be argued that if the actual life of this property had corresponded with the estimate of its probable life, it would have ere now been charged to the depreciation reserve, thereby reducing it below $5,000,000. Though this result might have followed if the actual life of all the items comprising the $11,250,164.93 had not exceeded the estimated life, nevertheless it did so exceed the estimated life and by such a margin that it will not be charged off in 1941, nor for a good many years to come, and the additions to the depreciation reserve in future years either at the present rate or at any reasonable lesser rate will far exceed any annual charge-offs in respect of this property.

At this point, it might properly be asked what, assuming that Mr. Callahan's criticisms of the accounting procedure are correct, should have been the proper accounting procedure. In answer, Mr. Callahan gives it as his opinion that the trustees, immediately upon assuming control of the Elevated, should have established a reserve of something in excess of $22,000,000, and thereby created a deficit which would have substantially, if not entirely, wiped out the capital stock of the road. Thereafter, when the $616,323.98 standing to the credit of the depreciation reserve on June 30, 1918, had been wiped out, they should have charged the $17,803,636.29, as the retirements involved in it occurred, to this reserve, using exactly the method of apportioning the charge-off which he employed in arriving at that figure. This would have been realistic bookkeeping. It would have shown up the facts. It would have established conclusively the worthlessness of the common stock in 1918.

Furthermore, it would have resulted in an increase of $17,803,636.29 in the depreciation reserve accumulated by the trustees, and would have made obvious to all that the annual depreciation charge to the cost of service was too high.

This is Mr. Callahan's position. In conflict with it is the position of the trustees. They submitted to the Mayor and the commission the following comparative statement of the position of the property on July 1, 1918, and December 31, 1939:

		July 1, 1918.	December 31, 1939.
(A)	Total depreciable property	$68,408,014 54	$82,624,675 38
(B)	Remaining life value	*38,715,372 71	36,600,817 00
(C)	Difference (accrued depreciation)	$29,692,641 83	$46,023,858 38
(D)	Depreciation reserve on that date	616,323 98	16,654,629 19
(E)	Lapsed depreciation unprovided for	$29,076,317 85	$29,369,228 89

*Based at that time on shorter estimates of service lives than now used under present basis for some property.

A few explanations and comments in regard to the above figures are desirable.

Item (A) represents the book value of the depreciable property. As of December 31, 1939, it includes the $11,250,164.93 of property already depreciated in full but still in use which has been mentioned previously, but excludes the Atlantic avenue structure carried at $5,636,195.84, since no charge for depreciation has been made thereon since October 1, 1938. It does, however, include all other elevated structures. It excludes the entire investment of $12,917,312.57 in the track system of the Elevated, which, as previously shown, is not held to be depreciable. The 1918 figure includes all elevated structures (including the Atlantic avenue structure), but excludes the track system at its 1918 value.

Item (B) is arrived at by a process of estimating the remaining available life of each of the items composing the total depreciable property, and finding the remaining value thereof by the application of the straight line depreciation method previously described.

Items (C), (D) and (E) are arrived at by subtraction.

It should be noted that in the twenty-one and one half years which have elapsed since 1918, the book value of the total depreciable property (Item A) has risen $19,852,856.68, the book value of the Atlantic avenue structure being added to the 1939 figure for comparative purposes, since it was included in the 1918 figure. It should be further noted that the 1939 figure includes $11,250,164.93 of fully depreciated property which, since it theoretically has no further useful life, adds nothing to the $36,600,817 carried in Item (B) for 1939. As a matter of fact, it has substantial further useful life and should be reflected in some fashion in Item (B). Furthermore, for comparative purposes the present value of the Atlantic avenue structure should also be added to Item (B) for 1939, since it was included in Item (B) for 1918. This brings Item (B) for 1939 to $39,603,817, and in comparison with Item (B) for 1918, it makes it $888,444.29 greater, and, not as the trustees maintain, $2,114,555.71 less.

With the foregoing corrections and comments, the position of the trustees can now be stated. They claim that their total depreciable property has a book value $14,216,660.84 greater than it was in 1918, and a remaining life value or actual value $2,114,555.71 less than it was in 1918. They maintain that the accrued depreciation today is worse than it was in 1918—$46,023,858.38 against $29,692,641.83; and that the accrued depreciation which is unprovided for is substantially the same: $29,369,228.89 in 1939 against $29,076,317 in 1918. They claim therefore that they are exactly as badly off today as they were in 1918, so far as their books and their schedules of depreciation are concerned, and argumentatively (because they have not carried their reasoning to its logical conclusion) that although it might have been improper bookkeeping to charge against the depreciation reserve built up by them since 1918, the accrued depreciation unprovided for on that date, nevertheless this impropriety was balanced by a failure to charge against their depreciation reserve a substantially equal amount of depreciation accrued since 1918. In other words, they claim that the system is just as badly off as when they took it over, and that the stock which was worthless then isn't worth a penny more today.

Even if the Atlantic avenue structure be added in to all the items in the 1939 table, the result only increases the discrepancy. Instead of a figure of $29,369,228.89 for lapsed depreciation unprovided for, the figure is $32,002,424.73. This shows only that they are worse off then they claim.

Consider the position of the trustees on the figures which they themselves have presented. The trustees claim that the actual value of their depreciable property is only $36,600,817 as of December 31, 1939, and they admit that the actual value of the depreciable property of the Elevated on July 1, 1918, was a little more than $2,000,000 greater. In the interim the trustees have charged to cost of service over $51,000,000 and have obtained about $11,000,000 of new capital, and about $7,000,000 (omitting intervening reductions and corresponding increases of funded debt), derived from the sale of the Cambridge subway, a total of $69,000,000. The new capital was cash. A large part of it, and also a large part of the proceeds of the sale of the Cambridge subway has been invested in depreciable property. The net quick assets of the trustees on December 31, 1939, totaled about $4,440,000, which, assuming these were derived wholly from the depreciation reserve, would reduce this total from $69,000,000 to $64,500,000. There should be a further substantial reduction made for investment in non-depreciable assets. No exact figures have been furnished on this matter to the Mayor and the commission, but apparently there has been no substantial net increase in the book value of non-depreciable assets although the $7,000,000 differential caused by the sale of the Cambridge subway must be considered here. Assuming therefore that $7,000,000 of cash over and above maintenance charges (and it may be much more or much less) has been expended in additions to non-depreciable property items, there is still left about $57,000,000 spent on additions to depreciable property in less than twenty-two years. This is approximately $2,650,000 a year. It seems incredible that, after the investment of all this money on depreciable property, plus maintenance charges thereon which averaged for car maintenance alone in the years 1919 to 1923, inclusive, $2,202,541 a year, according to Mr. Callahan, and for revenue equipment maintenance in 1939 which was over $1,200,000, the actual value of the depreciable property of the Elevated at the close of 1939 was $2,000,000 less than it was in 1918. If the position of the trustees is sustained by their books and records, a serious blunder has been committed.

Furthermore, the claim that the actual value of the depreciable property is less in 1939 than it was in 1918 is totally at variance with the statements of the trustees made over the course of the years. Mr. Callahan quotes the following from their report for the year 1928:

"In these ten years $19,000,000 has been spent for new cars and buses. In the matter of car equipment there is hardly a trace of the 1918 road remaining; and there is no comparison possible between the modern equipment today in use and that with which the public was provided in1918."

In subsequent years the claim has been often repeated, and even at the conferences held with the trustees, they claimed both orally and in writing that they had expanded, improved and rebuilt the road in the last twenty-one and a half years.

This memorandum now passes from consideration of the answer of the trustees to a synopsis of Mr. Callahan's legal argument. In the Control Act of 1918, duties were laid upon, and wide discretions given to, the trustees. The most important language in this regard is contained in section 13, the first sentence of which reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the trustees to maintain the property of the company in good operating condition, and to make such provision for depreciation, obsolescence and rehabilitation, that upon the expiration of the period of public management and operation the property shall be in good operating condition."

Mr. Callahan analyzes at length and with great care the meaning of this language. He contrasts it with the language of section 6 in which is contained the definition of "cost of service", any deficit in which, by the terms of the act, is to be levied upon the public. The language of this definition runs as follows:

"the cost of service, which shall include operating expenses, taxes, rentals, interest on all indebtedness, such allowance as they may deem necessary or advisable, for depreciation of property and for obsolescence and losses in respect to property sold, destroyed, or abandoned, all other expenditures and charges which under the laws of the commonwealth now or hereafter in effect may be properly chargeable against income or surplus".

Mr. Callahan points out that the definition of the "cost of service" though it includes a provision for "such allowances" as the trustees "may deem necessary or advisable for depreciation of property and for obsolescence and losses in respect of property sold, destroyed or abandoned" and "all other expenditures and charges which under the laws of the Commonwealth now or hereafter in effect may be properly chargeable against income or surplus" fails to include any provision for "rehabilitation". He says that in his opinion it is "very doubtful" whether the public may properly be charged under the language of section 6 with "rehabilitation"; that is to say, with "losses existing when public control began". These losses total the minimum figure of $17,803,636.29 heretofore mentioned. He then goes on to analyze section 13 upon the "very doubtful" assumption that the trustees actually do have the authority to charge to the "cost of service" the expenses of "rehabilitation", and points out that the words of section 13 relate solely to the "operating condition" of the property and do not extend to the rehabilitation of the financial condition of the company itself.

In his opinion the end of the year 1924 marked the time as of which the property of the company had been restored to "good operating condition." After that date any charges against the depreciation reserve for depreciation accrued prior to 1918 were in his opinion improper even on the "very doubtful" construction of section 6 most favorable to the trustees. The exact amount of such charges Mr. Callahan states he has been unable to ascertain, but he believes that "it is plain . . . that the $17,803,636.29 charged to the replacement fund by the trustees on account of depreciation existing and unprovided for on June 30, 1918, contains numerous items which could not be justified even on the assumption we have made."

Mr. Callahan then points out that the limitation upon the right of the trustees in section 13 to "make provision" for rehabilitation out of the "cost of service", namely, that it be sufficient only to put the property of the road in "good operating condition" "upon the expiration of public management" (assuming this "very doubtful" construction of section 13) is equally applicable to their right to make provision for "depreciation" and "obsolescence", since all three words are in the same construction. He gives it as his opinion that "under the most favorable construction, therefore, no more may be charged to the cost of service for past and current losses than is necessary to return the road in good operating condition." He believes that since 1924, when the road actually achieved "good operating condition", the trustees have overcharged the true cost of service for past and current losses the minimum amount of $20,512,758.20.

This question is primarily one of statutory construction. Many millions of dollars are involved in the meaning to be given to section 13, and whether, as Mr. Callahan contends, section 13 modifies section 6. Nothing short of a court decision will dispose of the problem. The opinions of the trustees of the Elevated or of their counsel, or of the commission, or of the Mayor, will not settle the matter. For that reason it seems unnecessary to add comment on Mr. Callahan's legal opinion, other than to say that he has raised questions of such importance in regard to the powers, discretion and duties of the trustees that in the opinion of the Mayor and the commission the matter should not be allowed to rest until determined by the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts.

Secondary to the question of the right of the trustees to charge the depreciation reserve with the depreciation accrued prior to June 30, 1918, is another question. It relates to the extent to which the trustees should have charged capital improvements to "Maintenance.' Mr. Callahan goes into this matter very fully and thoroughly in his report.

In section 6 the "cost of service" is defined to include "operating expenses", which includes maintenance, defined by Mr. Callahan as representing "expenditures for upkeep of the physical property of the road." Maintenance is susceptible to being broken down into many subdivisions, the two most important of which are maintenance of track and roadway, and maintenance of cars and equipment. It is to these two subdivisions that Mr. Callahan addresses himself.

In order fully to understand his discussion, the distinction between an expenditure for maintenance chargeable to operating expense and therefore to cost of service and to the public and an expenditure for an addition to the property of the company chargeable to capital, and therefore not to the cost of service, must be borne in mind. Theoretically the distinction is simple; an expense which merely repairs or keeps property in good operating condition is maintenance, as for instance, painting, or replacing a broken window; while an expense which permanently improves the property is a betterment and is therefore a capital charge. In practice, however, the distinction is often difficult, and many years ago the Interstate Commerce Commission promulgated a series of rules for determining whether a particular expense should be charged to maintenance or to betterments. These rules have been adopted by the Department of Public Utilities of Massachusetts and made applicable to street railways like the Elevated. Mr. Callahan and the trustees differ widely as to the application of these rules to particular charges. Mr. Callahan claims that the trustees spent at least $2,997,832.14 upon track and roadway, and $839,721.67 upon equipment, which they charged to maintenance when they should have charged it to capital account. The trustees dispute this claim and say that the entire sum was properly charged to maintenance. At the conferences with the trustees, Mr. Welch and Mr. Dunbar argued vigorously as to which ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission applied to expenses in several specific instances. Neither—except in one minor matter—was able to convince the other of the correctness of his position. All that they were able to establish was that the question was an extremely technical one to be settled by accountants and others expert in the particular field involved.

Two divergent factors in the situation, however, became obvious. Most of the disputed charges were made in the early years of public control. It followed, therefore, in the matter of equipment, that if the trustees had charged the $839,721.67 spent for equipment to capital account, they would have begun to depreciate it forthwith with the result that its cost would in due time have found its way into the cost of service via the annual straight line depreciation charge. The only difference, therefore, between Mr. Callahan and the trustees is whether these items should have been charged to the public, in the year in which they were spent or over a series of subsequent years which by now would have nearly absorbed them in full.

In the matter of track and roadway, however, a different situation arose. The trustees do not consider track depreciable property. As has previously been stated, they add a flat $250,000 annually to their charge to the cost of service on account of track. This sum is intended to provide a reserve against which the cost of abandoned track can be charged in the year of abandonment. It would make no difference, therefore, in this annual charge whether the capital account for track was greater by $2,997,832.14 than it is at present. Therefore, if this sum were improperly charged to maintenance and, therefore, to the cost of service, the error would not be self-correcting through the annual depreciation charges in subsequent years, as in the case of equipment. It still stands an improper charge to the cost of service of the year in which it was spent.

Here again in a matter involving close on $3,000,000 the answer must depend on a court decision.

There is still a further matter in which Mr. Callahan urges that the trustees erred in charging excessive maintenance to the cost of service. In addition to the actual depreciation existing and unprovided for on June 30, 1918, Mr. Callahan finds that maintenance of the road and equipment had been skimped for so many years prior thereto that on that date it would take a very large expenditure of money on repairs and renovation. This would be unquestionably of the character of maintenance items rather than betterments, to bring the track roadway and equipment up to proper operating condition. This under-maintenance or deferred maintenance was estimated by him to total at least $5,000,000, and he pointed out that an expert employed by the trustees estimated that the deferred maintenance on the track alone was some $10,000,000. Mr. Callahan finds that this deferred maintenance was made up by the trustees in the five years ensuing next after June 30, 1918, and charged to current maintenance and thereby to the cost of service, without indicating in any way that it was deferred and not current maintenance. In his opinion the deferred maintenance was as much an impairment of capital as was the accrued depreciation, and the trustees should have segregated the current from the deferred maintenance in their accounts instead of lumping both classes of maintenance into one item and charging it currently to the cost of service.

Mr. Callahan does not take the stand that the expenditure to make good this deferred maintenance should have been charged to a reserve set up to meet it, as previously suggested in respect of depreciation accrued prior to June 30, 1918.

At the close of his study Mr. Callahan turns to remedies. He maintains that the trustees are not officers of the Commonwealth or if they are technically officers of the Commonwealth, they are not officers to the extent that the Commonwealth would be bound by their acts and thus barred from any remedy with respect to any excessive charges made by them to the cost of service. He is of opinion, therefore, that the Commonwealth is entitled to an accounting, and that the Commonwealth is the only party which has any standing to demand an accounting. He believes that the Attorney-General should bring a bill for such an accounting and that if Mr. Callahan's conclusions should be sustained by the Court, it would bring substantial relief to the cities and towns of the Metropolitan District in the amount of their future assessment for the cost of service.

The study of Messrs. Callahan and Kelliher, which for brevity has been referred after the first paragraph hereof as if prepared by Mr. Callahan alone, is a clear and readable exposition of an intricate and difficult subject. What has been said herein is not intended in any way as a substitute for the study. It is intended to be considered in part as a preface to the study and in part as a presentation of additional facts which were offered to the Mayor and the Finance Commission during the discussion with the trustees of the Elevated after the submission to them of the study.

In conclusion, it is here stated that it is the considered hope of the Mayor and the Finance Commission that you bring this study officially to the attention of the Attorney-General, with the request that he initiate as soon as possible such legal action as he shall conclude is best fitted to obtain a definitive ruling upon the questions raised in this report.

Commissioner Maguire's Statement.

Commissioner James E. Maguire approves the report of Messrs. Timothy F. Callahan and James W. Kelleher based upon their investigation of the Boston Elevated and the statistics gathered and submitted by F. E. Welch of the F. E. Welch Company, accountants.

He believes the facts and conclusions warrant action by the Attorney-General of the Commonwealth, and he is of the opinion that payment of any deficits, if and when claimed by the Public Trustees, should be deferred until all questions are adjudicated by the courts.

It is the simple truth to say that the influence of the Governor forced the Public Trustees to open their records and books for the examination by Messrs. Callahan, Kelleher and Welch.

It should also be stated that the interest of the Mayor and the City Council in the investigation and in providing the major part of the funds for it was vital for its success. The Mayor followed its progress and cooperated in every way.

The tale of the management of the Boston Elevated and the muddled accounts as unfolded in the reports of Messrs. Callahan, Kelleher and Welch is one of the most disquieting in the annals of the Commonwealth. Forthright action is required of public officials and without unnecessary delay.

The report was placed on file.

(Annexed to the communication was the report to the Mayor and Finance Commission of Timothy F. Callahan, special counsel in the investigation, which is printed as City Document No. 43.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Coun. SHATTUCK, for the Committee on Finance, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred March 31) for loan of $3,510,000 for Public Welfare, Soldiers' Benefits and Federal Emergency Unemployment Relief Projects—that same ought to pass.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred March 31) that $250,000 be borrowed outside debt limit for installation of Federal Surplus Commodity Stamp Plan—that same ought to pass.

The reports were accepted and the question came on the passage of the orders.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, your Committee on Finance held a hearing on these two loan orders, at which Mr. Fox, the City Auditor, Mr. O'Hare and Mr. Murphy of the Welfare Department were present and explained the orders. Mr. Fox has supplemented that by a letter addressed to me under date of April 4, which I will read:

Henry L. Shattuck, Esq., 50 Federal Street, Boston, Mass.

Dear Councilor Shattuck,—I am inclosing a table indicating the computation of the current year's municipal relief loan as provided under the provisions of chapter 92 of the Acts of 1941. As indicated, budget appropriations (including $217,768.59 voted by the School Committee for W. P. A. projects sponsored by the School Buildings Department) authorized to date for the purposes specified in chapter 92 total $13,863,916.02. Under the formula set out in chapter 92, $10,352,937.30 of the total appropriations must be provided within the tax levy, leaving the balance to be raised through the issuance of bonds. In 1940 the several loans authorized for municipal relief totaled $4,862,000, consequently the order pending before the City Council represents a reduction of $1,352,000 from the borrowings of last year.

Sincerely yours,
CHARLES J. FOX, City Auditor.

That, I think, represents progress towards paying our bills as we go along. The other order before you is for $250,000, to provide for installation and operation of the Federal surplus commodity stamp plan, which up to date has been temporarily provided for through a bank loan. I would like to have this letter that I have read and the accompanying table made a part of my remarks. Your committee has unanimously reported both orders.

President GALVIN—If there is no objection, the letter and the table will be included in the records.

The table referred to is as follows:

REPORT AND INFORMATION FROM ELEVATED TRUSTEES.

Coun. SHATTUCK offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to furnish to each member of the City Council a copy of their latest annual report and itemized statement showing the cost of service per revenue passenger.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, owing to the ideas that were expressed at the last meeting, when we were voting on the subject of a five-cent fare, it seems to me desirable that each member should be given the report of the trustees and also a statement showing the breakdown of the cost of service per revenue passenger. In that connection I want to call attention briefly to a breakdown of the figures in the report for the calendar year 1940. The wages amounted to 4.40 cents on each fare. Materials and other items amounted to .8 cent on each fare. You see, just those two items alone amount to 5.20 cents, which is in excess of the five-cent fare. The "materials, etc.," to which I refer, cover supplies of all kinds, snow removal, pensions, insurance, rents, telephone, electricity and gas bills, stationery and printing, and contractual services. If a five-cent fare were adopted, there would be nothing for the following items,—injuries and damages, .32 cent; fuel, .30 cent; taxes, .56 cent; rental subways and tunnels, .96 cent,—all going to the City of Boston, with the exception of the Cambridge subway, which goes to the Commonwealth; bond interest, 1.34 cents; depreciation,—which appears to be a debatable item, and which was called in question by Mr. Callahan,—.73 cent; dividends, which are required under the statute, .41 cent; miscellaneous, .4 cent. These figures make a total of 9.86 cents for the cost of service. I have referred to bond interest, which is next to wages the largest item. In that connection, somebody at the last meeting talked about coupon cutters, but the principal coupon cutter appears to be the Metropolitan Transit Commission, because of the $76,200,917 total bonds outstanding all are owned by the Transit District except $16,456,000. In other words, the Transit District owns about $60,000,000 of those bonds. The operating loss for the calendar year—which is not exactly the loss which would be shown on March 1—is $2,601,674.71. I would now call attention to the depreciation item which, as I stated, was .73 cent. The total depreciation in dollars and cents was $2,157,709.68—in other words, over $400,000 less than the operating loss. So, if you cut out depreciation altogether—and nobody says you should do that,—there would still be no margin for the reduction of the fare. I hope when these reports are furnished they will be read.

Coun. HUTCHINSON—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. SHATTUCK—Yes.

Coun. HUTCHINSON—For a number of years the overcharge would certainly be much more?

Coun. SHATTUCK—Of course, if you accumulate an overcharge over a period of twenty years, the amount would be twenty times what it would be in one year. But the figure that I gave you was the depreciation for a single year, and it shows that if there were no depreciation charge at all there would still be a loss, because the total amount of depreciation is less than the operating loss by more than $400,000.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RESIDENCE OF CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit an opinion to the City Council as to whether or not city employees are required to live within the city limits.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REDUCTION IN W. P. A. WORKERS.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to contact the Massachusetts Representatives in Congress urging them to intercede with the W. P. A. authorities in an effort to prevent the laying off of persons who will receive less in unemployment compensation benefits than they now receive in wages on W. P. A. work.

The rule was suspended and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, about a week ago I read an article in one of the newspapers to the effect that the W. P. A. were laying off men who were eligible to receive unemployment compensation. Today a married man who has four children came in to see me, a man who had been getting $13.20, under W. P. A. He stated that he had been laid off and had been given unemployment compensation, stating that he went to 9 Beacon street and received compensation for twenty weeks at $6 per week, in the place of the amount that he had been receiving from W. P. A. It is pretty hard for a man who has been on W. P. A., a man with four children, who has been getting $13.20 per week, to receive the measly sum of $6 per week. I have, therefore, introduced this order requesting the Mayor to contact the Massachusetts representatives in Congress urging them to intercede with the W. P. A. authorities in an effort to prevent the laying off of persons who receive less in unemployment compensation benefits than they have received as wages on W. P. A. work. In the mean time, I have asked the man in charge of the Boston district what could be done about it, and he told me that nothing could be done, except to have the situation brought to the attention of the Washington authorities in an attempt to stop the dismissal of men from the W. P. A. roll where they would receive less in unemployment compensation benefits than they receive in W. P. A. wages. That is the reason why I have introduced this order, and I ask that the Mayor take it up and see if something cannot be done.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TEMPORARY EMPLOYMENT FOR STREET CLEANING WORK.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to demand certification from the civil service list when making temporary appointments of men to do street cleaning work.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, it has been called to my attention that tomorrow in every ward of the City of Boston some twenty or thirty men will be put to work cleaning the streets. I have checked with the Public Works Commissioner, and I find that those men will not come from the civil service list. I hope that this is not the start of the old plan of simply taking men for this purpose where they claim that it will do the most good. Last year I introduced an order, which you will recall was accompanied by a fight I made on this floor, to the effect that the snow workers be taken from the Welfare, W. P. A. and unemployment lists, giving them an opportunity to earn a few dollars on snow removal. Tomorrow there will probably be thirty men in my ward who will be employed on this street cleaning work. They are not coming from the civil service list, which means, and I think other members of the Council will agree with me, that they will even be taken from outside places. Here are perhaps 500 men, who might well be taken from the civil service list, a list of long standing, on which there are many thousands. We all know what happened last year when I asked for an investigation of the men who were not taken from the civil service list and who were getting money from the City of Boston, men who in many cases did not belong in this city, men who came from Chelsea, Revere and Winthrop, working in my district on jobs on which civil service men should have been employed, men employed in permanent positions and also taking on this work, in many cases getting money for work they did not do. As we all know, after I had made the fight on the matter, many did not even dare to claim the checks that they were supposed to receive. I know what the situation was in my ward, and I think it was the same in other wards of the city. That is what was done, regardless of the fact that there were men on civil service who could have been placed at work, men who needed the employment badly. I say that the men temporarily appointed for street cleaning work should be certified from the civil service list, and I trust that the Mayor will tomorrow take action seeing to it that the men thus employed will come from the civil service list. There are men who have been on that list for ten, twenty or thirty years and who have not had an opportunity to get a day's work.

President GALVIN—I might say that a constituent was certified this morning from the Public Works Department, and that another was certified from the civil service list.

Coun. COFFEY—I talked with the Civil Service Commissioner about half an hour ago, and he told me that they were not coming from the civil service, but were going to be picked up by the foremen in the yards. Last year the foreman over in East Boston picked men from other sections and put them at work, and I don't see why the Public Works Commissioner should not be forced to take those men from the civil service list.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, while I very firmly believe in taking men from the civil service list, I don't think anything should be done at a time like this, when the streets of Boston are in such a disgraceful condition, to delay action because of a controversy as to whether the men are from civil service or not. I know that in my district there have been many complaints of the condition of the streets, and it is extremely important to have the work done. Therefore, while I am a believer in the civil service list, I also believe, at a time like this, when so many W. P. A. workers and others are getting into defense work, and when it is sometimes difficult to obtain men, that the Public Works Commissioner should, first of all, keep the streets in good condition, something that is properly demanded by the taxpayers of Boston. Of course, if men can be obtained from the civil service list, they should be given the preference, but I don't think we ought to wait unduly for civil service men to show up. I believe that this work should start tomorrow, and that our streets should be cleaned up, no matter who does the work. The previous speaker must realize the condition of the streets of the city. This is an emergency, and we cannot wait for civil service, with its delays at a time like this, when this emergency must be met. We know the condition of our streets, and we know that they should be cleaned at once. It will not be a very long employment of probably several hundred people for four or five days, cleaning the streets. But there is an emergency, and the work should be done as soon as possible, without unnecessary delay.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I still believe that these men should be taken from civil service. There is nothing to prevent going to the civil service list and getting 200 or 500 men off that list to do this work. There are probably 15,000 on the civil service list, and have been for years. I still insist that they should be given preference. We don't know who will be taken unless that is done. We will probably find, as we have found before, that men holding permanent jobs on the pay roll are placed on this work, instead of men who are on the civil service list and who really need the work. We know what happened before, when men were paid by check, many of whom, after I called attention to what was going on, did not dare to call for their checks when told that that was the way they were to be paid, instead of being paid in cash. I still insist that the men on civil service should be given preference; and I don't want to see a repetition of what we have had in the past, when things were left to the sweet singer with the tricky moustache, downstairs.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I feel that the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) is to some extent justified in his complaint here. I believe in living up to the civil service lists, but if certain short-term employment is made available without having to adhere to civil service I believe all the members of the City Council should be given some opportunity to furnish some of the men required.

Many of us did not know these men were being put to work tomorrow until the matter was just brought before us. Others did know about it. Regardless of what some critics might say a City Councilor is expected to be an employment agency. I had in to see me this morning three men who were desperately in need of work, one of them the father of young babies. He could have well used some of this work, even though it might last for only five or six days. It's about time secret practices of this type were done away with. Let's all in on what's going on. Two hundred men is a large number to hire, and there is no just reason why we all should not have been given an opportunity to provide a few of them. I don't know who is directly responsible in this particular matter, but I sincerely hope that in future instances we all will be given equal consideration.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, may I further add that I understand the majority of these men are coming from the employment office at Church street.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

TWO-WAY TRAFFIC ON WASHINGTON STREET.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of opening to two-way traffic Washington street, from Boylston street to Stuart street.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, at a meeting held last week of the business men and property owners of my district, I was informed that unless something was done to relieve the situation on Washington street, from Boylston street to Stuart street, business men will be forced to vacate, and property owners may be put in a position where their taxes cannot be paid. Justice to all demands that something be done. At the present time there is two-way traffic from Broadway to Stuart street, on Washington street, but from Boylston street to Stuart street, entering Washington street, they can only go to the left, which prevents their turning right to go to the business houses. I feel that at this time this is one problem which should be solved. While only a few streets are involved, the stoppage of two-way traffic on Washington street, from Boylston to Stuart, causes a very serious handicap to those business men. In the interest of business, and in the interest of the property owners, this situation should be remedied immediately. I have also been informed that the subway exit is very much needed in that particular area, and I am in hopes, as I proceed in my own investigation of the subject, to see if something cannot be done to that end. I trust that this order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

FIVE-CENT FARE ON HUNTINGTON AVENUE.

Coun. CHASE and CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Elevated Railway Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to restore a five-cent local fare privilege on Huntington avenue, between Francis street and Charles street, by providing bus service.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, since the completion of the job on the Huntington avenue extension, the people of that vicinity have been deprived of the right to travel for a five-cent fare to the vicinity of Park square. There is no reason why the Boston Elevated Trustees cannot provide the people of that section with a local five-cent fare, no reason in the world. I think they owe a duty to the public to provide adequate transportation at a reasonable cost. Certainly, from a business standpoint the Elevated is losing money through not providing a local five-cent fare privilege to the people of that district. Many of the people are walking today from Massachusetts avenue to Park square, in preference to paying the ten-cent fare. I feel that it is about time that the Elevated Railway Trustees should do something in this matter. They have been talking about doing something for some time, but nothing has been done, and the people of the district and I myself am getting sick and tired of their empty promises. I trust that the Council will pass the order.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SUPPLEMENT OF SOCIAL SECURITY UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN and HURLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Overseers of Public Welfare be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate action to supplement the small benefits accrued by 1,000 Boston W. P. A. workers who are to be dropped from such project work as a result of receiving Social Security Unemployment insurances.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

THE NEXT MEETING.

Coun. LANGAN—Mr. President, I move that when we adjourn it be to meet on Monday, April 28, at 2 p. m.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I thought at first that the 19th of April would fall on Sunday, but I am now informed that it is Saturday, and I don't see why the Council, under the circumstances, should adjourn for two weeks.

Coun. Langan's motion that when the Council adjourn it be for two weeks was declared carried. Coun. COFFEY doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.

The motion was carried, yeas 10, nays 6:

Yeas—Coun. Englert, Galvin, Gottlieb, Hurley, Hutchinson, Langan, Lyons, Shattuck, D. F. Sullivan, Taylor—10.

Nays—Coun. Carey, Chase, Coffey, Goode, Linehan, M. H. Sullivan—6.

WIDER PARTICIPATION IN FOOD STAMP PLAN.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with officials of the Surplus Commodities Administration relative to the possibility of permitting participation in the stamp plan of all persons in private employment whose earnings are in the same brackets as those on Dependent Aid and W. P. A.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, we have at different times had various proposals before us, one of them as late as this afternoon in executive session, by which one may be attracted to private employment in order to relieve the welfare and W. P. A. rolls. On the surface this order that I have just introduced might appear to be an attempt to carry the benefits of the Stamp Plan too far. That definitely is not my purpose, however. On the contrary participation in the Stamp Plan for those in the low-income groups in private employment would undoubtedly make such private employment more attractive for those on welfare and W. P. A. There are many heads of families in private employment whose earnings are no greater than is that of those on welfare and W. P. A. Such heads of families should be highly commended and should be encouraged in every way to continue in that private employment. To permit them to participate in the Stamp Plan would certainly lend that encouragement. I am personally aware of cases where the head of the family has private employment, either full or part time. The earnings are meagre and the family has a very difficult time to get along, yet they prefer to avoid going on the welfare. I sincerely hope that something can be done in this matter in order to avoid adding to the welfare and W. P. A., and in like manner possibly attract to private employment many of those now on the above rolls.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RESURFACING OF CODMAN PARK, WARD 11.

Coun. ENGLERT offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving Codman park, Ward 11, as a W. P. A. project.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

FEMALE INSTRUCTOR, FRANKLIN PARK PLAYSTEAD.

Coun. TAYLOR offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to appoint a female instructor at the Franklin Park Playstead.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ADVISABILITY OF INSTALLING VOTING MACHINES.

Coun. TAYLOR offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Election Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to render an opinion as to the advisability of installing voting machines in the City of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

HERBERT J. WOLF SQUARE, ROXBURY.

Coun. TAYLOR offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to repair the tablet and renovate the grounds at the Herbert J. Wolf square in Roxbury.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, the tablet referred to in this order was put up in memory of a great World War hero, and it is in rather dilapidated condition today. It stands greatly in need of repair. It is, in fact, difficult to read the inscription. Also, the grass around it is in poor condition, the grounds needing renovating. I certainly think that the Park Commission should take it upon themselves to repair the tablet and to renovate the grounds.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

HEALTH UNIT, WARD 22.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the White Fund Trustees be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to construct a White Fund Health Unit in the Ward 22 section of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned, on motion of Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN, at 4.35 p. m., to meet on Monday, April 28, 1941, at 2 p. m.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1941. NO. 18

TEACHERS OF COUNTRY UNITE TO RECONSIDER AND PLAN TO REVISE SYSTEM OF TEACHING SCIENCES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO MEET MODERN DEMANDS — MALCOLM D. CAMPBELL, MASTER OF DORCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS, PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF BIOLOGY TEACHERS AND MEMBER OF BOSTON SCHOOL SYSTEM, MAKES REPORT TO SCHOOL COMMITTEE ON RESULTS OF CONFERENCE OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE TEACHING OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION — CHANGES NEEDED TO CONFORM TO FUNDAMENTAL SOCIAL STRUCTURE IN RECENT YEARS — OLD METHODS FOUND TO BE FAILING YOUTH OF TODAY.

The following is the report of Malcolm D. Campbell, Master of the Dorchester High School for Boys, as delegate to conference of the National Committee on Science Teaching of the National Education Association in Atlantic City, New Jersey, February 19 to 22:

Fundamental changes have taken place in our social structure in recent years and it has been necessary for education to reconsider its position in the light of these changes. Curriculum revision and resulting redirection of school programs has occurred in many of our subjects. Progressive science teachers, throughout the country, have felt that the conventional science courses were failing to meet the needs of youth in its adjustment to our democratic society.

Realizing that a worthwhile science program cannot be developed by a few teachers working independently, the Department of Science Instruction of the National Education Association organized a committee to give direction and guidance to the whole science program. In order to have a large number of teachers, representing all parts of the United States, all organizations interested in science education were asked to send consultants and to enroll other interested teachers to work with the general committee under Dr. Ira C. Davis, University High School, Madison, Wisconsin, as chairman. As President of the National Association of Biology Teachers I was asked to serve as a committee member, and have worked with the committee from the beginning.

Cleveland Meeting.

The first meeting was held in Cleveland in February, 1939. Later meetings were held in Cleveland, San Francisco, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, and February 19 to 22, 1941, at Atlantic City. In addition to these special conferences, a very important part of the work has been carried on by small groups of classroom teachers and parents working on a mutually helpful cooperative undertaking by giving constructive criticisms of suggested procedures and also emphasizing additional needs of our girls and boys.

The work had been divided among the following subcommittees:

1. Philosophy or Frame of Reference.
2. Teacher Education.
3. Desirable Functional Outcomes.
4. Evaluation.
5. New Procedures.
6. New Materials.

In order that our courses may be more potentially useful, they must be designed to meet personal and social needs realistically. These desired functional outcomes have been studied at the following educational levels: Kindergarten and Preschool; Primary (Grades I to III); Intermediate (Grades IV to VI); Junior High School (Grades VII to IX); Senior High School (Grades X to XII); Junior College and Adult Education (Grades XIII and XIV). At each of these levels the outcomes have been grouped under Health, Safety, Recreation, Maturing Interpersonal Relationships, Work, Intelligent Consumership, Conservation, Maturing Philosophy of Life, and Responsible Socio-Economic Action.

The list of desirable functional outcomes toward which science can make some contribution demonstrates the fact that subject areas in the curriculum do not have peculiar and separate roles in education. They are essentially goals of general education. It has not been the plan of this committee to blueprint any specific science program, but rather to cooperate with all existing programs by aiding them to recognize the needs of youth, to suggest procedures and materials which will aid in meeting these needs, and then to evaluate the efforts that have been made.

Joint Action Proposed.

Many of the outcomes are matters of personality development. This suggests the desirability of joint action by all the teachers in the school in studying needs and formulating common goals which will be developed through an integrated program.

At Atlantic City, the reports of subcommittees whose work was nearly complete were read and constructively criticized. My work was with the Subcommittee on Social and Personal Needs. Suggested functional outcomes were carefully considered, first, to determine whether each met an individual or social need; second, to determine at which grade level this need is first felt, and, finally to develop the "tendency" or "interest" of the lower grade level into the "habit" or "ability" of the upper grade level. The work of the National Committee for Science Teaching is not as yet completed and I expect that it will be continued in Boston during the meeting of the National Education Association, June thirtieth, July first and second.

Respectfully submitted,

MALCOLM D. CAMPBELL.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hill looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

Upon April 22 the Mayor approved the following request:

BOSTON, April 11, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—This department received bids for furnishing and delivering miscellaneous furniture for various schools in response to an advertisement inserted in the City Record of March 1, 1941, and publicly opened and read by me on March 12, 1941.

Subject to your Honor's approval I am now awarding Item 22, Sewing Tables, which was not awarded pending receipt of samples, to S. M. Levin Company, for the following reasons:

I have examined the sample submitted by the Jackson Folding Chairs and find that same is not up to specifications on their alternate bid of $4.75.

They also neglected to conform with the advertisement by not depositing with the City Auditor a copy of their bid.

Therefore I am awarding to the above concern this Item 22, as their sample is the only one meeting our specifications.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES J. MAHAR,
Superintendent of Construction.

Bid was as follows:

Item 22, Sewing Tables.—McCarthy Brothers, $6.49; Jackson Folding Chairs, $2.90; S. M. Levin, $5.10.

Upon April 22 the Mayor approved the following request from the Department of School Buildings:

BOSTON, April 18, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On February 22, 1941, I advertised through the City Record for the furnishing and delivering of heating and plumbing supplies for W. P. A. use during the year 1941. Subject to your Honor's approval I am awarding the following items to the concerns named.

Conley Supply Company: Items 65–67, 139–141, 149–159, 390–405, 407–446, 467–507.

Sheehan & O'Brien: Items 132–138, 142–144, 447–466, 507, 552–572, 575–579.

Federal Steam and Gas Company: Items 160–322, 347–365.

Robinson Clay Products: Items 127–131.

L. J. Tierney: Items 508–509, 512–521.

The proposal submitted to the bidders contained 1,067 different items. After examining the bids I have rejected all the items except those on attached list. My reason for rejecting the balance of the items was that, in my opinion, the prices submitted were excessive.

I respectfully request your Honor's approval to the awarding of contracts to the concerns as listed at the prices enumerated.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES J. MAHAR,
Superintendent of Construction.

MUSIC WEEK PROCLAMATION.

In connection with the approaching Boston Music Festival, Mayor Tobin, on April 28, issued the following proclamation:

Whereas, Music, the universal language spoken in all hearts, whether savage or civilized, touches a responsive chord in the souls of all; and

Whereas, There is vast need for a connecting link that will surmount all barriers and remove the spirit of intolerance of one people against another; and

Whereas, Such a universal link is found in music, as it interprets the aspirations, the hopes and the emotions of the soul; and

Whereas, In these troubled times, when nations are arrayed against nations and races against races in the clash of arms and interests, only through a mutual link such as music affords can the world be recalled to sane and friendly living; and

Whereas, National Music Week on an inter-American scale will serve to bind together all the nations of this continent in a tie of real friendship; and

Whereas, The music lovers of Boston wish to join in the observance of Music Week as a manifestation of the spirit of good will which permeates all our hearts; therefore,

I, Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor of Boston, do proclaim the week of May 4 to 11 as Boston Music Festival Week and ask all citizens to join in the observance of the event with appropriate exercises that will unite more closely the people of this Western Hemisphere.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 28th day of April, 1941.

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

General Order No. 594.

In accordance with an order passed by me on the twentieth day of February, 1941, I hereby designate the twenty-ninth day of April, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m., as the day and hour on which the Rules and Regulations for the Government of the Police Department of the City of Boston thereby adopted shall take effect, and hereby order that all rules and parts of rules inconsistent therewith be, and the same are hereby, repealed; provided, however, that the provisions of said rules hereby made effective in so far as they are the same as those of Rules and Regulations existing at the time of the passage of this order shall be construed as a continuation of such Rules and Regulations and not as new enactments.

Copies of the rules will be furnished to all members of the force, and as there are many changes and additions, careful study will be necessary on the part of all persons affected.

Commanding officers of divisions and units concerned will make requisition on the Property Clerk for required copies of the revised edition of the Rules and Regulations.

On delivery of one of the new editions of the Rules and Regulations to a member of the force, the old copy should be taken up.

When the latter copies are all assembled they should be done up in bundles, sent to the stock rooms of the Property Clerk's office, 229 Milk street, and should, further, bear a label as to how many copies there are in the shipment and from what station or unit they are sent.

At this time the Police Commissioner expresses his appreciation to the Board: James R. Claflin, Deputy Superintendent; Andrew J. Gorey, Secretary; Thomas S. Gill, Chief Clerk; John J. Mullen, Captain; and James F. Daley, Captain (now Deputy Superintendent), to whom had been delegated the task of preparing a revision of the Rules and Regulations of the department.

The product of their effort speaks for itself. In simplicity, clearness and understanding, their painstaking work presents a set of rules which, with modifications hereafter arising, will serve the department for a long time to come.

The happiness which must be theirs is shared in by the commissioner and the superintendent.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

JOSEPH F. TIMILTY,
Police Commissioner.

General Order No. 595.

REORGANIZATION OF BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT EMERGENCY BATTALION.

The Emergency Battalion of the department has been reorganized and considerably increased in personnel for the purpose of coping with any emergency that might arise as a result of present war conditions, hurricanes, floods, or other catastrophes that may happen at any time.

Officers listed in the attached roster have been selected to comprise the new Emergency Battalion and are assigned as stated in the attached roster.

NOTE.—The Riot Gun Companies are so organized that the First Company is composed entirely of day men, the Second Company is composed of members of the Second Platoon, and the Third Company is composed of members of the Third Platoon of each division. This is done so that no matter what platoon is on the street there will be a full company available immediately in any emergency. This applies to lieutenants and sergeants who change about from month to month, or patrolmen who may be doing duty on the street at that time. In an emergency, the platoon that is doing duty is the platoon from which these men are to be drawn unless orders call for the whole battalion.

Three copies of this order are forwarded to all divisions and units, also three copies of the Emergency Battalion Roster; one copy of each for the files, one copy of each to be retained at the desk for ready reference, and one copy of each to be posted on the bulletin board for the direct notice of all officers.

No changes in the personnel of this battalion are to be made without the approval of the superintendent.

General Order No. 490, dated June 14, 1940, relating to this subject, is hereby rescinded, and copies of that order posted on the bulletin board and retained at the desk shall be immediately destroyed.

The Superintendent of Police will promulgate this order.

Police Commissioner.

DEATHS

Department of Music—James A. Ecker, director, Mar. 27, 1941.

Mr. Lee: On this question of reporting the deaths of those who were at the time in active service, or those who in the past have been connected with the schools, it is always a regret to me as a member of the Committee that I seldom know personally the people referred to. It seems a pity we do not know them, among our more than 4,000 present teachers and those who have retired.

In the case of Mr. Ecker, his is a name that we very well know and a personality so vivid and enthusiastic in his field of music that it is very hard to associate his name with one who has passed on. I do not know how we can remedy the situation as we can seldom individually know those whose deaths are reported. But in a case where a person's service has been distinguished and inspirational in his or her field of work, I think it is suitable to dwell for a moment at a meeting like this on the work which they have done for our school system and for the individual children in it.

The Superintendent reported the death of the following-named teachers:

English High School—Walter I. Chapman, master, head of department, March 5, 1941.

High School of Commerce—John M. Grandfield, master, March 11, 1941.

Martin District—Gertrude F. Sullivan, assistant, Model School, April 1, 1941.

Placed on file.

The Superintendent reported the death of the following-named school physician:

Department of School Hygiene—Ernest L. Booth, M. D., school physician, March 25, 1941.

Placed on file.

The Superintendent reported the deaths of the following-named supervisor, principal, teacher and school nurse, who had been retired on pension under the provisions of the Boston Retirement System:

Primary Supervisor — Catherine G. Foley, Mar. 21, 1941.

Girls' Latin School—M. Alice Kimball, Mar. 26, 1941.

Sherwin District—Edward P. Shute, master emeritus, Dec. 18, 1939.

Department of School Hygiene—Sarah M. Cahoon, Mar. 26, 1941.

The Superintendent reported the deaths of the following-named teachers who had been retired on pension:

Jamaica Plain High School—Mary O'Connell, Feb. 8, 1941.

Higgins, master, Jamaica Plain High School, because of permanent disability.

Placed on file.

A communication was received from the Superintendent, under date of April 7, 1941, reporting the retirement from active service of the following-named member of the Boston Retirement System, to take effect Mar. 31, 1941, as certified by the Boston Retirement Board under date of Mar. 26, 1941:

ELECTION OF ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT

Chairman: Miss Mary C. Mellyn, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, retires August thirty-first of this year. The question now comes on the election of an Assistant Superintendent to fill the vacancy thus caused. Before nominations are made for an Assistant Superintendent, I should like to amplify Mr. Norton's statement that in the case of all appointments that come under the jurisdiction of the Superintendent, action has been taken by this Committee on the basis of information and recommendation of the Superintendent. As in the case of Mr. Tierney, we have approved all appointments as submitted by the Superintendent.

The nomination of an Assistant Superintendent to succeed Miss Mellyn comes within the jurisdiction of the School Committee, and nominations now are in order.

Mr. Norton: Mr. Chairman, at this time I wish to place in nomination for the position of Assistant Superintendent of Schools to succeed Miss Mary C. Mellyn when she retires this year after a lifetime of splendid public service, the name of another outstanding woman teacher in the Boston School System, one who has come up through the ranks and has headed practically every competitive promotional list, namely, Miss Katharine C. McDonnell, who at the present time is the master of the Patrick F. Gavin School in South Boston.

Miss McDonnell is a woman of outstanding character and integrity and she possesses that priceless thing, something that is far more precious than gold, namely the good opinion of the teachers who have worked with her and for her over a span of many years.

In the course of the past few months I have asked many Boston teachers to name for me the women who, in their opinion, are outstanding in the school system, and Miss McDonnell's name appeared on practically every list whether the teacher who was interrogated was one who was assigned to the Hyde Park District or other section of the city, such as East Boston or Charlestown.

As a member of the Committee I was anxious to see to it that the woman who succeeded the outstanding Miss Mellyn would be one who had the confidence of our teachers. By promoting Miss McDonnell we encourage every teacher in the system, because by this action our teachers know that merit and merit alone is the deciding factor with the present School Committee in the filling of high places within the system.

By making such a promotion, we are doing what is best for the thousands of children who are entrusted to our care for educational purposes.

Mr. Sullivan: I quite agree with Mr. Norton that in replacing Miss Mellyn we should appoint a woman, and we have many fine women to pick from in our school system.

I would like to place in nomination the name of another woman who I believe has done an excellent job in developing a rapidly growing field, the field of industrial education. With that thought in mind and being cognizant of the fact that our Trade School for Girls has developed amazingly under her leadership, I would like to place in nomination the name of Miss Esther McNellis.

Chairman: Any further nominations?

The Secretary will call the roll.

Mr. Lee: I want to get my ideas a little surer on the way that duties are assigned by the Superintendent to the Assistant Superintendents. The assignments are wholly under you, Mr. Gould?

Superintendent: Yes; the responsibility for the assignment of duties has generally been the Superintendent's.

Mr. Lee: Miss Mellyn came from which branch of the school system?

Superintendent: Elementary schools, at the start.

Mr. Lee: The elementary branch?

Superintendent: Yes, sir.

Mr. Lee: She was concentrating more on the elementary schools during her term of office?

Superintendent: She rose through the various ranks in the elementary schools, then became an instructor in the Normal School, principal of an elementary school, and finally was made Director of the Department of Practice and Training, which Department she established. From the position of Director, she was elected by the School Committee Assistant Superintendent.

Mr. Lee: From what I know about the two nominations that have been made, it does not seem to me that two better nominations could be made. They are both very good. The work of Miss McNellis on the vocational end comes nearer to the work Mr. Brodhead was doing when he was here. He was assigned to that sphere of work?

Superintendent: That is correct.

Mr. Lee: He still had the responsibility of visiting class rooms?

Superintendent: Yes. He had regular school assignments as well as the industrial.

Mr. Lee: The majority of women teachers are in the elementary schools?

Superintendent: Yes.

Mr. Lee: It is in the high schools and intermediate schools that we get the men?

Superintendent: Yes. Exclusive of the submasters there are no men teachers in the elementary schools.

Mr. Sullivan: May I ask the Superintendent: How many of the present Board of Superintendents came from the elementary schools?

Superintendent: Mr. Muldoon, Mr. Downey and Miss Mellyn came from the elementary schools. Mr. Muldoon was principal of an intermediate school when elected assistant superintendent, and Mr. Downey was elected from the position of Director of Evening Schools.

Mr. Lee. Does Mr. Downey also visit schools?

Superintendent: Yes.

Chairman: The Secretary will call the roll.

(The Secretary called the roll and the members responded as follows):

Mr. Lee: Miss McDonnell.

Mr. McDevitt: Miss McDonnell.

Mr. Norton: Miss McDonnell.

Mr. Sullivan: Miss McNellis.

Mr. White: Miss McDonnell.

The Chair declared Miss Katharine C. McDonnell elected to the office of Assistant Superintendent for the five-year period covering the unexpired term of Miss Mellyn, from Sept. 1, 1941.

Mr. Sullivan: I would like to be the first to offer my congratulations to Miss McDonnell and wish her good luck.

Mr. Norton: I wish to place in nomination for the full six-year term of Assistant Superintendent of Schools, the name of the present Acting Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Dennis C. Haley. Mr. Haley, one of our younger head masters, worked his way up through the Boston School System over the period of a lifetime. He has the respect and confidence of our teachers to a degree that few have had.

Conduct a Gallup poll of your own and ask any group of teachers in the Boston system to name the outstanding masters of the system and the name of Dennis Haley, head master of the Hyde Park High School, will come pretty near appearing on every list. The promotion of such a teacher encourages every other teacher, and what is the right thing to do is always the best politics.

I never met Mr. Haley until he came to Hyde Park as the head master of our High School, but from the hour that he came to us he walked right into the hearts of our people. All Hyde Park rejoices at the promotion of Dennis Haley because he was kind to our people and kind to their children. Dennis Haley never put a child out of school No child was too far gone for Dennis Haley in his sympathetic way, to guide him back to school. His weapons are sympathy and charitable understanding. A year ago my sister said to me, "The teachers all like Dennis Haley. He is good to them." That was enough. From that moment on I was anxious to see Dennis Haley promoted.

A few month ago when Mr. Haley was made Acting Assistant Superintendent and was transferred from the Hyde Park High School to School Committee headquarters on Beacon Street, there was a genuine feeling of regret at losing him among those who worked with him and for him for years.

Mr. Cornelius A. Kenneally, the popular and well liked custodian of the Hyde Park High School, while glad to see Mr. Haley promoted was actually upset for a while at losing him and said, "Dennis Haley was the finest boss a man could possibly have." Representative Paul Feeney came to me and said, "Dennis Haley is outstanding in any group. I'm glad to see merit recognized. Now he will give to every child in the Boston School System the same character of guidance he gave to Hyde Park children."

Mr. Chairman, I am pleased and honored to present the name of Dennis C. Haley for a full six-year term as Assistant Superintendent of the Boston schools.

Chairman: Any other nominations?

The Secretary will call the roll.

[The Secretary called the roll and the members of the School Committee answered as follows]:

Mr. Lee: Mr. Haley.
Mr. McDevitt: Mr. Haley.
Mr. Norton: Mr. Haley.
Mr. Sullivan: Not voting.

I have the conviction that four Assistant Superintendents are sufficient. While I would not have this taken in any way as criticism of Mr. Haley, I do not believe we should add to the Board or fill the vacancy left unfilled at the time of Mr. Gould's promotion.

Mr. White: Not voting.

The Chair declared Dennis C. Haley elected to the office of Assistant Superintendent for a six-year period, beginning September 1, 1941.

Mr. Norton: Might I say at this time that in ordinary times four Assistant Superintendents might well be enough, but these are extraordinary times, times that call for a tremendous amount of supervision. This is a period of turmoil when we have more youngsters than ever walking the streets of Boston in need of direction, educational and otherwise, and no one knows exactly what the answer is.

In other words; from a survey of the leading school systems of this country, from the West Coast to the Atlantic Coast, Chicago, Philadelphia, New York, San Francisco, Los Angeles and St. Louis, considering the number of pupils in the school system, I find we are not overloading our executive positions in placing five Assistant Superintendents on the job.

This statement is made after a considerable survey and after consultation with officials of the National Education Association in Washington and the Office of Education in the Department of the Interior in Washington.

There is a tremendous amount of executive work that must be accomplished here at headquarters. Especially during the past year, we have had to delegate to our Assistant Superintendents work that they were never before called upon to do.

Dr. Gillis at the present time could well spend his time doing nothing but supervising the new hot lunch project that must take weeks upon weeks of his time. Not only that, but there are many other vocational problems that face us. With those facts in mind I am inclined to believe that we need on the Board of Superintendents a man such as Mr. Dennis Haley.

Might I also state at this time that neither Mr. Haley, Miss McDonnell nor Mr. Tierney were called upon to go to one outside source. They have been promoted wholly on their records in the school system. I am very proud that none of these individuals had to resort to outside influence. Their very names are names that arouse respect among the teachers and among the parents of our city. In promoting such people we are doing the right thing and the right thing is always the best politics.

Mr. Sullivan: I would like to say that I agree with Mr. Norton on the capabilities of Mr. Haley. I did not make the survey of other cities that Mr. Norton has made, but my vote on this is an expression of my own experience on the School Board here in Boston over a period of the last eight years.

Mr. Lee: This discussion may serve to bring out some of the problems before the Committee. My experience, which is much briefer than Mr. Sullivan's, leads me to another conclusion—that the work of the Committee should not be held back because the Board of Superintendents is limited in personnel.

Almost exactly a year ago this time, I brought to this Committee a series of suggestions—many of them coming from members of the Board of Superintendents—to be studied and reported on by our Board of Superintendents. They included the establishment of further reading centers, special class centers, and centers for maladjusted children; and we set up a committee composed of people in and out of our system to deal with the question of maladjusted children.

Other questions that I brought forward at this time last year, besides the things that are always with us, like Home and School Associations, were the question of expansion of our Commercial Department and the question of getting new commercial machines. I have felt right along that the studies that would put those things into operation have been held back because there was not enough man power in the Board of Superintendents for these men to make their rounds of the schools in the morning and meet with the Board of Apportionment in the afternoon, and also handle the personal cases that come to them, and still have time to initiate and shape up new proposals for the benefit of the schools. In times like the present, I feel we should afford every opportunity for the leadership we would like to see in shaping the school system. I think it is bad economy to hold back the effectiveness of the School Committee itself and this $16,000,000 department by a lack of adequate personnel on the Board of Superintendents to everlastingly hunt down, follow up and put into a performable scheme these suggestions that are generally admitted to be for the benefit of the schools.

Chairman: The Chair wishes to express very definitely to every member of this Committee his appreciation for the selection of the type of Assistant Superintendents elected this evening.

While we observe a difference of opinion on the matter of whether we should have four or more assistant superintendents, this election of an Assistant Superintendent is a most important thing and, as Mr. Norton said, there was no politics and no lobbying for the position. We discussed every outstanding name in the school system and decided on the two persons who have been elected. I congratulate the School Committee on the straightforward and outstanding manner in which those two Assistant Superintendents have been considered and elected.

Is there anything further?

Mr. McDevitt: Fortifying Mr. Norton's statement; I feel that the selection of these two individuals as Assistant Superintendents tonight is perhaps the most important decision that I have had a part in making as a member of the School Committee. Only after careful study and investigation did I reach the conclusion that the two Assistant Superintendents for whom I voted tonight were outstanding in their field and well qualified for the work which they are to do.

Mr. Lee mentioned the burden of the present Board of Superintendents and the time we have had to wait for reports. I think with Mr. Haley and Miss McDonnell we are bringing to the Board of Superintendents able and capable assistants who will add a great deal to the accomplishments of the Board of Superintendents.

Mr. Norton: The Boston School Committee held a momentous meeting tonight. Daniel D. Tierney, Jr., an Assistant Director of Music, was promoted to the position of Director of Music. Miss Katharine C. McDonnell, Master of the Patrick F. Gavin School in South Boston, was promoted to the position of Assistant Superintendent of Schools to succeed Miss Mellyn when the latter retires, and Acting Assistant Superintendent Dennis C. Haley was elected to a full six-year term and made permanent Assistant Superintendent.

Nothing that we do as a Committee is more important or as important as seeing to it that the proper persons are promoted in our school system. Such appointments influence the Boston School System for the next quarter of a century. In all the years that I have been in the public service, no vote of mine was more important than the votes I cast tonight. The one issue that has worried me was "Are we getting the best people?" I am sure that we are tonight. I am sure that every member of this Committee has been loyal to that sacred trust which has been imposed upon us by the people of Boston, namely, to protect their children and to protect their children's welfare, in so far as our schools are concerned. I feel positive that I can look any child in the Boston School System in the eye tomorrow and state honestly that we have done our best to protect his interests by providing him with the best possible school leadership. That is what this whole matter boils down to.

Now I want to congratulate this Committee. Never have I served with a group that was any fairer and more co-operative. Never was there a School Committee that went through a year with so few harsh words, so few fights. As a matter of fact, we have never even had a cross word at one of our meetings since this Committee came into office in January, 1940. That is some record for a group of young men in political life. When a storm brews, we sit down and settle the problem, amicably, sensibly, as man to man.

Tonight, I and the other members of the Committee voted to promote three individuals to high position. Daniel D. Tierney, Jr. was made Director of Music. Miss McDonnell was given the highest position that a woman can attain in the Boston service. Dennis Haley was made a permanent Assistant Superintendent, and all of this most important work was consummated without even one cross word among members of the Committee.

I would not know Mr. Tierney or Miss McDonnell if these folks stood in front of me. I know Mr. Haley because he was head master of the Hyde Park High School. None of these three individuals had to go to a politician. None of them put on a campaign for the job. They did not have to. Their records spoke for them. The Superintendent recommended the promotion of Mr. Tierney, a career man, and within thirty seconds the Committee unanimously accepted the recommendation.

I congratulate Committeemen Joseph White, Sheriff Sullivan, Daniel McDevitt and Joseph Lee. In the most important duty they will ever have to perform in the public service, the thought uppermost in their minds was. "What is best for the children entrusted to our care?" Never have three high appointments gone through with such a lack of politics and with such a minimum of controversy.

I do not know what School Committee it was that many years ago promoted Miss Mellyn to the position of Assistant Superintendent, but that Committee surely performed a splendid public service for Miss Mellyn is the outstanding woman teacher, in many respects, in our system. Mayor Tobin, who co-operated with the Committee so handsomely said of her, "Miss Mellyn is a genius!" That is the feeling of every member of this Committee and we are sorry indeed to lose the services of Boston's outstanding woman teacher.

The Committee adjourned.

To raise this amount of taxes on the property assessed at a uniform rate throughout the State would have required a tax rate of $35.45+ on $1,000 valuation. Boston's valuation, $1,590,544,700, equal to 25.38 per cent of total valuation in the State.

CITY CEMETERIES.

A number of these cemeteries are no longer available to the public for interments. In 1937 there were 2,075 interments in these cemeteries, or 77 more than in 1936. The interments in Mount Hope Cemetery in 1937 were 71.08 per cent of the total interments as against 74.57 per cent in 1936.

METROPOLITAN DISTRICT, 1938.

Total valuation of the 43 cities and towns in the Metropolitan District in 1938 was $3,499,398,193 and the property tax on the same was $130,474,309. The average tax rate was $33.28. Strictly speaking, tax rates cannot be averaged. A rate of $37.28 would be required to raise $130,474,309 on a valuation of $3,499,398,198. Of the total valuation, 44.37 per cent applied to property in Boston.

The total valuation of the 13 cities in the district was $1,126,838,735 with a total property tax of $42,494,084, requiring a tax rate of $37.71.

Boston's tax rate of $41.30 was exceeded by Chelsea ($46.20), Revere ($47.00), Saugus ($46.00) and Somerville ($43.90).

REVENUE BOND ACTS.

The 1936 issue of the "Municipal Index" contains a detailed study of the revenue bond acts in the thirty-three states which have enabling acts, and reports of all forty-eight states, showing what advantage has been taken of these acts by cities to finance the construction, operation and maintenance of sewerage systems and sewage treatment plants by service charges.

The table shows the status of revenue bond acts and other enabling acts in the different states, the dates when the acts became effective, and whether or not cities have taken advantage of the opportunity offered for financing bonds by service charges. In the case of states with no enabling acts, the table shows whether cities are charging sewer rentals under some other authority.

36,400 MOTOR DEATHS IN 1935.

According to the findings of the National Safety Council motor traffic deaths in 1935 totaled 36,400, compared with 1934's record of 36,000.

The only decrease was among school children up to fifteen years of age. Motor vehicle accidents to children have increased much less than those of adults since 1922, when safety education began on a national scale. October, November and December were the reddest months. Two-thirds of the accidents were in places under 10,000 population; more than 40 per cent of the victims pedestrians.

Thirteen states decreased traffic deaths 7 per cent or more: Delaware, Illinois, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Wyoming and Washington.

BUDGETARY CONTROL.

Prior to installing the present system of budgetary control, effective as of January 1, 1939, the city of Newark had no centralized accounting control over its budget commitments. The city's general ledger contained accounts for the various budget appropriations, and reflected disbursements out of the appropriations. However, commitments for work and material were not recorded in the city's accounts until after bills submitted by the vendors had been approved for payment by the Board of Commissioners. Consequently, financial reports could only show the amount of appropriated moneys that had not been disbursed out of any account. No recognition could be given in these reports to the unpaid purchase commitments, since the amount was not known. The American City.

TAUNTON'S ASPHALT PLANT.

One of the functions of a city public works or street department is to operate as effectively as possible in the construction and maintenance of its streets and sidewalks and to produce the necessary materials for paving at the lowest possible cost. In some cities this is effected by the purchase of all paving materials in either the raw or the mixed stage. Taunton has used a city-owned 100-ton asphalt plant for street paving and maintenance and for sidewalk construction for ten years. Located in the city yard with the equipment repair shop and garage, the plant is housed in a 60 by 90 foot building with a 30 by 100 foot wing, which was formerly used as a foundry. The American City.

BOSTON AS A TOWN.

From its foundation until 1755, or a period of 125 years, Boston was not only the most outstanding but the most populous town in the American colonies. In 1760, Philadelphia's population was ahead, viz., 18,756, Boston's then being 15,631 and New York's about 14,000. In the last year of town government, viz., 1821, Boston's population was about 45,000 and its public debt $100,000, all incurred for new county buildings.

The history of Boston as a town during a period of nearly two centuries surpasses in civic interest that of Boston as a city because of the untiring zeal and successful efforts of its townsmen to realize more of true democracy than had ever been attained before. Their obligations were held as sacred as their liberties.

WATER-SUPPLY DEVELOPMENT IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1652 Boston introduced the first American public water supply. The first mechanical pumps were used in 1761 at Bethlehem, Pa., where Hans Christiansen, an American pioneer water-supply engineer, made his pumps work "after severe struggles." In 1850 there were only 100 water plants in the United States, and as late as 1875 only 243. In 1933 there were more than 11,000 public water supplies, some serving more than one community.

TO PROTECT MINORS.

Buffalo is considering an ordinance, similar to the one in effect in New York City, for the protection of minors in theaters. It permits children, unaccompanied by adults, only in theaters licensed as to adequate sanitary and safety provisions, sets aside a certain section for them and requires the presence of a licensed matron.

SQUARE DEAL IN ASSESSMENTS FOR TAXATION.

Many cities are finding it greatly to their advantage to have their tax valuations periodically overhauled. The first criterion of any assessment is equity. For every citizen who wants through "pull" or however else to get off easy, there are twenty, nay a hundred who want a fair and square deal for all.

The appraisal of city real estate is a highly technical affair.

Few things are more important than the equalization of assessments. Particularly in cities that are cramped by an inflexible debt or tax limit, an honest, full value assessment may be a great boon. Without the slightest raise in the tax rate a substantially greater tax yield may be had.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1941. NO. 19

MAYOR TOBIN LEADS COHORTS OF CITIZENS IN URGING GENERAL COURT TO PASS MEASURE SEEKING TO GIVE BOSTON TRAFFIC RELIEF THAT WILL BENEFIT ALL MOTORISTS AND CITIZENS OF STATE — APPEARS BEFORE COMMITTEE ON CITIES TO PRESENT ARGUMENTS ON NECESSITY OF RELIEF — POINTS TO NEED FOR PASSAGE OF MEASURE AS A DEFENSE PROJECT, WITH PROSPECT OF AID FROM FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN CONSTRUCTION — QUOTES BOTH ADMIRAL TARRANT OF NAVY AND GENERAL WOODRUFF OF ARMY AS SUPPORTERS AND ADVOCATES OF MEASURE'S PASSAGE — OTHER SPEAKERS FROM ALL OVER STATE SUPPORT HIM.

The following, in part, are the remarks of Hon. Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor of Boston, in Gardner Auditorium, before the Committee on Cities, May 5, in speaking on Senate Bill No. 592, as chief proponent for the measure aimed to give Boston traffic relief:

I appear in behalf of Senate No. 592 as amended. This bill is a motorists' bill. Its purpose is to relieve what is agreed by all who have here spoken to be the worst traffic congestion in the State. This relief will be obtained by building through the City of Boston, in order to link up the great traffic arteries previously built with State funds to the edge of the city, an express motor highway, to which there will be limited access and which will overpass and underpass surface highways. Since this relief will be given to motorists from all over the State, the bill provides that it be financed by the fund contributed by motorists all over the State, — the Highway or Motorists' Fund. In this way the motorists who pay gasoline taxes and registration fees will get the best value for their money.

Despite transparent claims last Monday that this bill is not constitutional; despite the impression sought to be created last Monday that insufficient study had been given to the project; despite the assertion last Monday that nothing could stop the decentralization and disintegration of our great urban centers, I think you gentlemen really know that this is an honest bill, a bill vitally needed, and a bill that users of highways from all over the State want to have passed.

For All Citizens.

I do not speak today so much as Mayor of Boston as I do in the interests of all those Massachusetts citizens who feel with me that our great Commonwealth must keep alive and moving forward. My purpose is to show why the people, the people of Massachusetts, demand this legislation and why they are entitled to have the money which they have paid in taxes into the Highway Fund used where it will do them the most good.

I have worked and am here appearing for the passage of this bill. In the winter of 1940 I appointed the Conference on Traffic, out of whose faithful, painstaking studies came the principles of this bill. Of my share in developing this sensible, sound, forward-looking proposal, I am proud. If there is a proposal more certain to relieve traffic congestion in our State, no one has offered it. None can be offered. Even those who have devoted themselves before this committee to trying to pick flaws and difficulties have unanimously admitted the existence of a crucial need to correct the State's greatest traffic bottleneck. This need is self-evident and cannot honestly be denied.

The Present Time is Appropriate for Building the Central Traffic Artery.

Question has been raised before this committee as to whether now is the proper time to initiate a great public work of this kind. This is indeed a serious and tragic time. As the Mayor of a large city I am acutely conscious of this. It has been urged that every last ounce of steel should be used for ships, guns, ammunition, tanks. The gentleman who took this position is, I believe, honest, well-intentioned and patriotic. But so are the sponsors of this bill. Whether this bill partakes of a defense measure or does not, is more a question of expert judgment than of good intention. What do the experts think of it?

The National Congress is considering an appropriation of $50,000,000 for Civilian Defense Projects. The Central Traffic Artery proposal two months ago was outlined to the House Committee, the first proposal in the country so to be outlined. Whether any Federal funds will be available for the project and to what extent, is yet obviously uncertain. But the sponsors of this great project were the first on the ground in Washington and had the advantage of its full presentation to the committee by the Mayor of New York, American Chairman of the International Defense Commission, composed of representatives of Canada and the United States, as a prime example of the kind of civilian defense project to be considered by the Congress.

TRAFFIC RELIEF BILL.

In connection with this presentation to Congress, there was read to the committee a letter from Admiral Tarrant, the fine Commandant of our Charlestown Navy Yard. This letter, written to me in early March of this year, expresses so graphically the concern which the Navy has over the traffic congestion in and around our waterfront (where are located not only the Navy Yard, but also the Navy's greatest graving dock in this hemisphere) that I am going to read the same in full:

March 5, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MAYOR TOBIN,—I have studied with much interest the proposed Central Traffic Artery for the City of Boston with particular reference to its relation to that part of the National Defense consigned to the naval activities under my command, namely, the Navy Yard, Boston; United States Naval Dry Dock at South Boston, the Naval Aviation Base at Squantum and the smaller isolated naval activities, such as District Headquarters near the North Station, the Section Base and Inshore Patrol Bases in East Boston.

Aside from the question of rapid automotive transportation between these various stations which is increasing daily, and which to a very large part must pass through the area to be served by the proposed Central Traffic Artery, the Navy Yard and the Naval Dry Dock at South Boston are termini to which a large amount of automotive traffic come and go, the greater part of which must pass through the region served by the proposed traffic artery.

The area through which this traffic must pass is one of the worst of the congested areas in the city; as centered in this area are the railroad yards and classification tracks of the Boston and Albany Railroad, the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, the harbor piers of both Boston and South Boston, the Meat and Produce Districts, and the Shoe, Wool, Leather, and Storage Warehouse District, with the Boston and Maine classification yards just north of this area. The greater part of the rail or water borne supply for the New England states passes through the area. This congestion of distribution centers, coupled with the narrow winding streets and the lack of through thoroughfares, presents a constant congestion of heavy vehicles, so that it is necessary to allocate as much time to go the five miles through downtown Boston to the city limits as to traverse the approximately forty miles between Boston and Providence, Boston and Worcester, or Boston and Newburyport.

At the present time it is not known of any other means than a traffic artery which will materially better the existing situation, nor the more serious situation due to the increased traffic that will undoubtedly result from National Defense activities in the New England area. I, therefore, consider that some method of expediting traffic through this area is and should be considered as a National Defense matter.

I appreciate that as Boston now has the highest tax rate of any city with a population of five hundred thousand or more, it probably is impracticable to construct this artery from municipal funds without Federal or State aid. I therefore urge, in case municipal funds cannot correct this traffic situation, that the matter be considered for inclusion by the proper authorities as a project under "Federal aid for Municipal Public Works in connection with National Defense," matched or augmented by funds from the State Highway Fund of Massachusetts as may be allocated for the improvement of highways essential to the National Defense.

Very truly yours,

W. T. TARRANT,
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy, Commandant.

That is Admiral Tarrant's view. He ought to know what he writes about. General Woodruff has written a similar letter. And the only answer made to this view is that there's no use in starting the work, because we can't finish it in time. That answer is about as American as that which the Tories gave three centuries ago to the Patriot Fathers who dreamed of throwing off a tyrant's yoke.

Let me tell you about the availability of steel. To hear some people talk you would think the entire project was to be built of steel, that if we built 10,000 feet of overhead highway America can't have a tank or a ship or a gun. As a matter of fact, the estimates call for only 20,000 tons, the cost of which would be around $1,000,000 or 5.2 per cent of the whole project. In view of what the Admiral says, and of what you gentlemen know to be the facts, isn't this project worth the use of that small amount of steel? They are putting steel into pleasure vehicles—millions of them a year. I was told last week that orders for steel for roller-coasters were going through. Is it dishonest, bad-intentioned, unpatriotic to insist on a minimum steel requirement to relieve the worst traffic congestion in the northeast Atlantic seaboard? Why put steel into motor cars, if you can't move them along the road? First put a little steel into the road improvement.

Only last week, in order to check up, I had inquiry made at the office of Production Management in Washington — would 20,000 tons of steel be available for such an undertaking as the Central Traffic Artery? The reply came back from the Senior Consultant for Metals and Minerals in the affirmative. He said that the steel could be had upon no more notice than was required to fabricate the steel for the job.

Times and conditions may change, true. But in the meantime, if there are needed steps to be taken, let's take them in line with what is now possible of being done. It is no counsel of improvidence to urge going ahead. We do not want to go ahead just because others go ahead. We want to go ahead because traffic is the life-stream of twentieth century commerce and the State's heaviest traffic is being strangled right here at the State's population density point.

THE DEFEATIST BOGEY OF DECENTRALIZATION.

Fear has been here voiced that the decentralization of population, from the cities into the suburbs, is beyond man's power to arrest or moderate. The argument that the "flight from the city" is inevitable and that it is not worth spending a dollar to prevent it is strangely reminiscent of the same calamity criers who were asking us two or three decades ago, "How are you going to keep them down on the farm?" Then the cry was that the city lights were luring into our cities all the rural workers and that there would be — mark this — a shortage in American farm-products. These doubting Thomases fail to recognize that decentralization and centralization, which are always going on in the course of civilization, are only phases in social development. History tells us that these great social changes cannot be stopped. It would be undesirable to do so. But they can be controlled by rational planning by government in such a way as to protect best the interests of all the citizens, urban, suburban and rural.

As long as civilization has endured there have been — and there always will be — population centers for trading, for business and for pleasure. Those population centers must be nourished. Freely-moving motor traffic is their nourishing life-stream. Whatever expedites motor traffic, and particularly motor truck traffic, pumps life blood into the heart of population centers.

It was half-heartedly suggested to your committee that the building of a motor traffic express highway through Boston, to complete and link up the traffic arteries already built by the State to the city limits, would not tend to halt decentralization but would expedite it. Looked at more closely, this statement of the modern use of the motor car seems rather ridiculous. The motorist does not travel in only one direction. In order to go, he must first come. Motorists who can come easily, quickly and readily into the State's great trading and business center and there do their business conveniently, will come just as often as they go, and will come a great many more times than they do under the existing abnormally congested traffic conditions.

BOSTON'S EXPENDITURES FROM LOCAL TAX MONEYS FOR TRAFFIC RELIEF.

I have had figures prepared to show in a comparative way the amounts expended by the State and by the City of Boston on highway and traffic improvements within the city limits, during the years 1920–1940, inclusive. During this period the city has expended from local taxes for construction and maintenance of highways within Boston and within the Metropolitan District of which Boston is the center, the staggering sum of $152,556,000. Of this sum $75,000,000 or more has been spent for construction, including the construction of the Sumner Traffic Tunnel and the cost of putting underground in subways surface transit tracks in order directly to free motor vehicle traffic. All of this great sum of $152,000,000 has been raised by Boston by local taxes on real and personal property or by bond issues ($27,000,000) payable, except for Sumner Traffic Tunnel revenues, out of local tax moneys.

During this same twenty-one-year period in which Boston has been spending out of local tax moneys over $152,000,000 in construction and maintenance of highway improvements, the State has spent within the City of Boston only $22,656,000—and this expenditure includes the $17,000,000 which the State has distributed to Boston as its proportionate share of highway fund distributions, made during the last decade to all the cities and towns of the Commonwealth. Even including these highway fund distributions, which have been comparably received by the other communities in the Commonwealth, the State has spent only a little over $1.00 for every $9.00 spent by the City of Boston. No one can fairly say that the City of Boston, which is now spending more than $5,000,000 a year on highway construction and maintenance, is not doing its share to solve the State's greatest traffic problem.

The Cost of the Project.

Some rather erratic comments have been made before this committee upon the estimate of costs of the project which have been prepared to date. As you, of course, realize the total estimate of $19,400,000 includes all amounts required for the projects, including land damages. Almost in the same breath in which it was said last week before this committee that the total estimate was inadequate and that the cost might run away to $40,000,000, there was being pointed out that, in view of the depressed prices at which Boston real estate was selling, it was obviously excessive and extreme to put into the estimates an allowance of assessed values plus 25 per cent. It is very difficult to please people who argue like this. One minute you are too conservative and the next not conservative enough.

The truth of the matter is that the costing of the project has been done in the same way that great projects of this kind have commonly been costed in the preliminary stage. An effort has been made toward conservatism in costing. Despite the provision in the bill that assessed values may not be introduced as evidence of value in land-taking cases, it has seemed conservative to estimate land-takings for the projects at assessed values plus an allowance averaging 25 per cent. As you know, the General Laws now provide in section 14 of chapter 40 that in municipalities other than Boston, land cannot be purchased for a municipal purpose for more than 25 per cent in excess of its average assessed valuation for the three previous years. In our estimates, we have taken this statutory limit as an outside, safe allowance.

Let me explain to you in a little more detail just what the procedure followed by the city departments in estimating these costs has been. In estimating land damages for all the projects we have used as a basis the 1940 assessed valuations. Many of these valuations, as you know, reflect substantial abatements granted in recent years. We have assumed for each project a definite and particular layout, although the bill is sufficiently flexible so that any one of several layouts may be determined by the Authority when the final action is to be taken. We have separately valued each parcel that might be taken or purchased, in whole or in part, on the basis of this assumed layout and we have added to this separate valuation, for safety's sake, a percentage allowance which will average about 25 per cent over the 1940 assessed valuation.

Now coming to the estimates of road construction costs for the projects, we have calculated the quantities of the various elements involved in the road construction. The Public Works Department of the city, whose engineers have had, year in and year out, experience in road construction measured in terms of millions of dollars, has worked out unit prices and has applied them to the quantities so estimated. To the resulting cost estimates, for safety's sake again and to safeguard against unforeseen contingencies, a percentage allowance of 15 per cent has been added.

In regard to the costing of the overhead express highway, a slightly different procedure has been followed. The known costs of other elevated structures have been ascertained and checked. Conferences have been held with engineers of recognized standing. Out of these studies and conferences a unit cost per linear foot without ramps has been developed, $370 per linear foot. The cost of the ramps has been computed separately and added to the total.

As has already been explained, the making of a definitive project, the preparation of the definitive specifications, and the final costing will be in the hands of the "Metropolitan Boston Traffic Artery Authority." The majority of this Authority will be appointed by the Governor, and I think it very proper that in a statewide project of this kind the supervision and charge should be in the hands of State officials and that the planning, costing and construction should be done by the State Department of Public Works. I have, therefore, been very glad to agree with all of those provisions in the bill.

Nothing is to be built until the Authority shall determine the exact figures and the exact plan, so that if any cost starts to run away with part of the projects the Authority will be in a position to modify the eight projects and to omit one or more of them, in order to ensure that the total cost shall not exceed the statutory limitation of $19,400,000. I am unwilling to believe that such an Authority cannot act to protect the people's interest. It will undoubtedly be composed of men of the highest caliber. For my own part, if I, as Mayor, have the right to appoint one member of the Authority, I should like to appoint a man of unquestioned integrity and public spirit, a man like Alvan T. Fuller, Charles D. McGinnis, or Henry L. Shattuck. I at least am willing to believe that such men could be trusted to act with faith and honesty in keeping the cost to where the law limits it. Wouldn't you?

At the hearing last Monday the point was made, with a great show of emphasis and discovery, that the cost of the Central Traffic Artery Project as estimated in this bill was only $10,500,000, whereas the cost for a very similar project estimated in the Whitten Report was $28,000,000. From this fallacious comparison the conclusion was drawn that the costs estimated in the present bill were ridiculously low and that the true cost might be two and one half times the $10,500,000 now estimated. These comments concerning the estimates of cost obviously overlooked three determinative differences between the project considered in the Whitten Report and the project now before you. In the first place, the artery proposed in the Whitten Report traversed for a very considerable length a different course and the most expensive part of the entire length isn't within the course of the present Central Traffic Artery at all. In the second place, there has been over a thirty-three and a third per cent decline in property valuations from the high valuations which obtained in 1929 and 1930 when the Whitten estimate was prepared. And in the third place,—what is already well known to you gentlemen,—a considerable and substantial part of what was proposed to be done in the Whitten Report (I refer to the work done at Haymarket square and the widening of Merrimac street and Cross street) has already been carried through and paid for out of local Boston taxes.

A point was made before you that this project should be given further study; that something should be produced in writing about it. How much study is enough? How many reports must be written to prove what is self-evident? The Intermediate Thoroughfare Report to the Legislature of 1923, the three-year Whitten Report of 1930, the W. P. A. Survey of 1938, the Report to the Legislature of the Special Legislative Commission by Senator Hollis, in 1940, and the study of the Mayor's Conference on Traffic in 1941, should be sufficient to persuade that the need of traffic relief in this congested area had been studied and restudied and written and rewritten about until only those who do not wish to see are unable to see it. After eighteen years of study another report is not needed. Action is needed.

As regards more detailed study of the cost of the project, there seems to be a failure to understand the machinery and procedure provided in the amended bill. The very thing that Mr. Shattuck calls for is expressly provided in the amended bill. I call your attention to the powers of the Authority under the amended bill. Under section 6 (b) the function of the Authority is:

> "Forthwith to prepare and submit to the Governor and the Mayor plans, specifications and estimates of cost for the thoroughfare improvements, and such modifications in or exceptions from or additions to the thoroughfare improvements as it shall determine necessary or reasonably required to carry out the purposes of this act and not exceed the cost specified in section eight (i. e., $19,400,000)."

Could anything be clearer or fairer than that? The Authority (a majority of whom are appointed by the Governor) lays out the project and makes the costing, but not in excess of $19,400,000. If costs begin to mount, then some of the minor projects must be amended or modified. All that will be in the decision of the Authority, worked out by the State Department of Public Works. Isn't that good sense and good economy? I submit that the exact framework of the bill before you covers all the protection that you naturally seek and rightfully want.

Minor Projects Included in the Central Artery Bill.

It will be obvious to you, gentlemen, that the heart of the Central Traffic Artery Bill is comprised of the two interrelated projects — the Central Traffic Artery, with its overhead express highway, and the Blue Hills Radial, the limited access way leading from the suburbs to the urban center where it joins with the Central Traffic Artery as the final link between the north and south State traffic arteries. Beside these two principal projects, the other six projects, although each in its way contributing an important solution to a specific point of traffic congestion, are relatively less in importance and could be modified to some extent. The amended bill specifically authorizes the Authority to modify the projects, which are described generally in the bill.

Let me speak for a moment of one of these minor projects. It was stated at the hearing last Monday with regard to the Rutherford avenue project, which is designed to give relief to one of the heaviest motor freight traffic congestions in the city, that "reasonably adequate relief might be obtained by an expenditure of $40,000" instead of the $1,500,000 estimated in the bill. It must be understood that the person who made this statement did not mean that for $40,000 there could be done what is planned to be done with the expenditure of the larger sum. An expenditure of $40,000 or $100,000 or $400,000 expended in the general situation would make some contribution toward relieving the traffic congestion on Rutherford avenue mainly for the benefit of heavy motor trucks, but I do not agree, and no responsible person in behalf of the city ever said, that the full and adequate program of relief for the Rutherford avenue situation that the engineers deem necessary could be given without the expenditure of a very substantial sum for doubling the street's width.

FINANCING THE CENTRAL TRAFFIC ARTERY OUT OF THE MOTORISTS' FUND.

I want to show you that there will be sufficient money in the Highway Fund to finance the requirements of the bond issue proposed by Senate No. 592 without in any year cutting down the distributions to cities and towns under chapter 90 (for the construction and repair of town and county ways) or under chapter 81 (for the aid of towns with small valuations) or under the general distribution which has recently been made to cities and towns in the amount of $9,600,000 a year.

I am handing to you a short tabulation, which will show to you conclusively that on the basis —

1. That appropriations for existing debt service in all years are placed at amounts necessary to pay interest on and to retire existing debt;

2. That all other appropriations from the Highway Fund, including distributions to cities and towns for highway purposes, are placed at the same amounts as the Governor proposed for 1942,—which amounts are as high as or higher than the years 1937–1940,—plus a 5 per cent allowance after 1943 for future expansion;

3. That Highway Fund receipts for 1943 and thereafter are estimated with an increase of only 4 per cent from actual receipts of 1940, despite an indicated 8 per cent increase in 1941,—and receipts have shown a steady increase in every year but one since 1929;

4. That serial retirements of the Central Traffic Artery bonds will commence in the State's fiscal year December 1, 1943–November 30, 1944, there will be available in the Highway Fund about twice what is needed to pay debt service charges on the Central Traffic Artery bonds.

In carefully preparing these figures we have estimated the Highway Fund receipts at an increase of only 4 per cent over what was received in the year 1940. This is an extremely conservative estimate. The Highway Fund receipts have increased in every year since 1930 with one slight exception. Right through the depression years the amounts received from the gasoline tax have continued to increase. There is every likelihood and anticipation that they will continue so to increase. In point of fact, the increase in Highway Fund receipts during the first two months of the current calendar year showed a gasoline tax collection of 8.5 per cent in excess of the first two months of 1940. Yet in preparing the figures to which I have referred and which you have before you, we have estimated an increase of only 4 per cent for 1941 and have pegged future receipts in each year at that small percentage increase and have not allowed for any increase in receipts in years after 1941, despite the constant rise in gasoline tax receipts right through the depression.

Coming now to the expenditure of the Highway Fund moneys in each year, we have followed in preparing the figures which you have before you an equally conservative and sound course. We have taken the annual expenditures of the Department of Public Works for administration, Registry of Motor Vehicles, etc., the annual expenditures for miscellaneous appropriations such as the State Police, etc., the annual expenditures for State highway construction, State highway maintenance, and Metropolitan Boulevard maintenance, the annual expenditures for chapter 81 in aiding towns with small valuations, and the annual expenditures for construction and repair of town and county ways under chapter 90, and we have placed the annual expenditure for each one of these items at not less than the amount represented by Governor Saltonstall for expenditure in 1942. These amounts total over $15,500,000, and that sum is in excess of the average amount appropriated for these purposes in recent years. In addition to using these high figures, we have also allowed for each of these items a 5 per cent increase over 1940 in each and every year to take care of future expansion. Bear in mind that we have allowed this 5 per cent increase, even though in estimating Highway Fund receipts we have allowed for only a 4 per cent increase despite the historical growth of the Highway Fund in every year but one in the last decade and despite an indicated 8 per cent increase in this year. In addition to the foregoing provisions for annual expenditures, plus a 5 per cent allowance for increase we have allowed for a distribution of $9,600,000 in each and every year to the cities and towns on the same basis upon which that amount has been distributed in recent years. Lastly, we have allowed for annual service charges on the existing debt in the amount required.

Estimated on the foregoing basis, Highway Fund receipts in 1944 will be $29,925,000 and Highway Fund appropriations will be $27,362,000. This would leave in 1944 a balance of $2,563,000 available for debt service on the Central Traffic Artery bonds, the serial retirements of which would commence in the State's fiscal year beginning December 1, 1943. In the year 1945 the available balance in the Highway Fund for this purpose would be over $3,000,000. Under no circumstances will the annual debt service charges of the Central Traffic Artery bonds be more than $1,350,000 and in all likelihood they will be considerably less. Accordingly, there will be more than ample funds to take care of the Central Traffic Artery Bond Issue debt service and leave a balance of something like $1,500,000 for excess distribution to cities and towns or for other highway purposes.

What makes this possible is the fact that hurricane and flood relief bond issues charged, on the ground of emergency, against the Highway Fund in past years will have been substantially retired by the end of 1944. In fact, by 1947 the annual debt service on existing bond issues chargeable against the Highway Fund drops down to a negligible $8,500 a year.

From the figures which I have pointed out and which you have before you and with the absolute knowledge which you gentlemen have of the steady growth of Highway Fund receipts right through depression years — the continuation of which growth has not been allowed for at all in these figures, which are pegged at about the 1940 level — it is absolutely certain that the Central Traffic Artery project can be paid for out of the Motorists' Fund and that at the same time there will be funds remaining with which to increase all the amounts which are now distributed to cities and towns or employed by the State for highway purposes. Comment to the effect that money will be taken from the cities and towns for the benefit of Boston is a plain and obvious fabrication.

THE BOSTON ELEVATED OVERHEAD STRUCTURE ON ATLANTIC AVENUE.

An attempt has been made at this hearing to confuse the issue before this committee by bringing in the Boston Elevated overhead structure on Atlantic avenue and by demanding that there be included in the cost of the project some large allowance for this structure's demolition cost. A more extreme or unfounded suggestion could hardly be imagined.

The Boston Elevated overhead structure on Atlantic avenue, which has not been used for some years and which has absolutely no value except as scrap steel or scrap iron, has nothing whatever to do with the Central Traffic Artery covered by the bill before you. You will remember that the Legislature at its last session, deeming this overhead structure, no longer used or useful, to be a hindrance to traffic and a nuisance, enacted a bill requiring the Elevated to take down this structure without compensation from the city. The Elevated has attacked the validity of this statute and the case is now pending before the Supreme Judicial Court. Entirely irrespective of the building of the Central Traffic Artery, the overhead structure will be taken down. If the statute referred to is sustained by the Court, as the city contends, the Elevated will pay the cost of demolition and will receive no compensation. If not, the City may have to pay compensation to the Elevated, most probably through some agreement between the City and the Elevated in connection with future subway rentals which would not call for an immediate cash outlay. Of course, with the present market for scrap steel and scrap iron there is undoubtedly a large salvage value in the steel and iron comprising the existing structure.

Don't you agree that the demolition of the elevated structure is dragged in merely as a red herring? It has no more to do with the Central Traffic Artery project than the question of whether it is proper to assess an Elevated deficit in this year or another year.

Some of you gentlemen may wish to know why the elevated motor highway of the Central Traffic Artery project might not use the Elevated's overhead structure on Atlantic avenue. There are several reasons why such a use would be impossible or impracticable. In the first place, the Boston Elevated overhead structure is located on Atlantic avenue, which runs all the way along the waterfront while the Central Traffic Artery will follow Atlantic avenue for only about 3,000 feet, from the South Station running northwesterly. In the second place, the Boston Elevated overhead structure has two separated supports, which contribute to rather than relieve traffic congestion. The Central Traffic Artery overhead roadway will be supported on a single pier of accepted engineering design, the footing of which will be spread below the level of the surface highway. These piers will be centered in the middle of Atlantic avenue, thus giving three full free lanes for motor traffic on either side. In the third place, the Boston Elevated overhead structure is twenty-five and a half feet above the street level as compared with the Central Traffic Artery elevated roadway which is eighteen feet above the street level. The additional cost of constructing the ramps from the street level to the elevated road for the additional seven and a half feet in height would add to the project's cost.

What is to be done with the Boston Elevated overhead structure on Atlantic avenue is a problem between the City of Boston and the Boston Elevated. If the City of Boston is compelled by the Supreme Court to make any payment to the Elevated in connection with the overhead structure's demolition, that is a question solely for the City of Boston (which now bears 65 per cent of the Elevated Railway's deficit). The City of Boston does not ask and it would not be fair to ask that any amount payable in this connection be added to the Central Traffic Artery cost and paid for out of the Motorists' Fund.

THE PENALTY PROVISION OF THE BILL.

It has been said at this hearing that one of the provisions contained in the bill to safeguard the public interest and eliminate corruption was "eye-wash." I know from the high character of the gentleman who used this unfortunate innuendo that he did not mean, as it may have appeared to you, to impugn the motives of myself and Mr. Cutler and the public-spirited men who have given so much time to formulating this bill. The provision in question would place a special income tax of 50 per cent upon profits realized by anyone whose land, acquired within three years, is taken by eminent domain for the project. As this committee is well aware, this provision is the same as the existing provision in the General Laws (chapter 62, section 7A), except that the General Laws are limited to a one-year period and this bill covers three years. If this provision is "eye-wash" it is three times stronger than what the Legislature thought appropriate to enact some years back. Calling names isn't going to help. Instead of using a term with a very false connotation, why doesn't this witness tell the Legislature how to improve the existing General Law — and this bill which is based upon the General Law? If a stronger provision with more teeth in it is offered, the petitioners will be glad to put it in the bill. Their purpose is to protect and to build, not to knock down and defeat.

CONCLUSION.

1. Boston has never adopted a provincial attitude in regard to expenditures elsewhere in Massachusetts from the Highway Fund for proper highway purposes, or in time of emergency for hurricane or flood relief.

2. The traffic congestion in Boston, measured in figures, is recognized as the worst in this region of the country and is stifling the State's progress.

3. The motor car is King. If we do not accommodate it, it will destroy us. The State's job is to make it the servant and not let it be the master.

4. Boston is not "done." Neither is the State.

NO COST CONTROL FOR REFUSE DISPOSAL.

American cities on the whole may be clean housekeepers, but they don't know how much it is costing them to be clean or whether they are spending too much. Only a few cities are able to report accurately the unit cost of removing garbage and other refuse and of cleaning streets, according to the Public Administration Service of Chicago, Ill., which further reports that at least 90 per cent of the cities in this country have no cost control over this service.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Permission to award contracts for work, materials and supplies, in accordance with recommendations of department heads, has been approved by the Mayor.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Upon April 21 the Mayor approved a contract with indicated bidder for installation of new generating unit according to the following communication from the Institutions Commissioner:

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

May I refer to my letter of December 20, 1940, regarding bids for installation of above unit in the power house at Long Island, Boston Harbor, including necessary additions and alterations. Referring to bid received from N. L. C. Engineering Equipment Company, 101 Tremont street, Boston, in the sum of $20,555, please find inclosed three copies of communications addressed to me by Engineer Thomas F. McGovern, setting forth reasons why it is felt by this department that the bid is a reasonable one and that the contract should be awarded to this concern.

In view of the delay encountered in having this work started, I would appreciate very much having my request of that date approved by your Honor at your early convenience, in order that I might have the contract signed and forwarded to the Law Department for aproval as to form, after which we may proceed at once with the installation, having in mind particularly the acceptance and opening of the new Men's Dormitory.

HUGH J. CAMPBELL,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

Upon April 30 the Mayor approved a contract with the All Steel Equipment Company, Dennett and Bigelow, Inc., agents, for furnishing metal furniture in the Water Income Division. Proposals were submitted as follows:

Item A.—Thorp Martin Company, $942.60; Art Metal Construction Company, $938; S. M. Levin, $840; All Steel Equipment Company, $781.80; Watson Manufacturing Company, $714.40.

Item B.—Thorp Martin Company, $237; Art Metal Construction Company, $239.40; S. M. Levin, $210; All Steel Equipment Company, $195.90; Watson Manufacturing Company, $214.74.

Total.—Thorp Martin Company, $1,179.60; Art Metal Construction Company, $1,170.40; S. M. Levin, $1,050; All Steel Equipment Company, $977.70; Watson Manufacturing Company, $929.14.

According to the proposals the bidders were asked to submit samples of the equipment to be furnished so that comparisons could be made. From the samples it was found that the lowest bidder did not comply with the specifications under Item A and some parts were not finished as well as those of the next lowest bidder. Under Item B the price of the next bidder is lower.

From the comparisons it was felt that the best interests of the city would be served by awarding the contract to the All Steel Equipment Company in the sum of $977.70.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

The work to be done under this contract is to be completed December 31, 1941. The following bids were received March 28:

Unit Price.—John McCourt Company, $4.75; Warren Brothers Roads Company, $4.82; S. J. Tomasello Corporation, $4.85; Central Construction Company, $4.95; Vulcan Construction Company, $5; Trimount Bituminous Products Company, $5.42.

PARKING REGULATIONS NEAR CITY HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 25, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the Boston Traffic Commissioner relative to your order of April 7, 1941, concerning suspending the parking regulations on the streets adjacent to the Boston City Hospital, during visiting hours.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Traffic Commission, April 21, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I have received the following Council order dated April 7, 1941:

"Ordered, That the Traffic Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to suspend the parking regulations on the streets adjacent to the Boston City Hospital, during visiting hours."

The existing regulations permit one-hour parking in the streets in this area during the day. This general rule prevails throughout the city. It is our understanding that visits to the hospital are, in the main, limited to one hour. There would, therefore, appear to be sufficient time allowed now, having in mind that cars are seldom tagged for parking a few minutes longer than the hour.

The suspension of the rules in one area would establish an awkward precedent because it would result in similar requests from many other districts.

We do not believe the present rules should be changed.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

Mr. James M. Langan,
10 Rockview Street, Jamaica Plain.

Dear Councilor Langan,—I am informed that Superintendent Banks has conferred with you regarding order introduced in the Boston City Council for improvement in the Jamaica Plain service.

We have carefully examined our Sunday schedules and find that by a slight readjustment, better connections can be made with the Masses at St. Thomas' Church, and have arranged to put the change in effect beginning next Sunday.

This in effect will cause trips arriving just after the Mass starts, to arrive about two minutes before.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD DANA,
President and General Manager.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 26, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith communication from the secretary of the Overseers of the Public Welfare relative to your order of March 31, 1941, concerning allowing commodities cards to be issued to persons formerly on W. City of Boston,
Overseers of the Public Welfare,
April 18, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Attention of Mr. William T. Doyle.

Dear Sir,—This department has received your communication of April 3, 1941, with inclosed copy of an order from the City Council, dated March 31, 1941, reading as follows:

"Ordered, That the Surplus Commodities Division be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to allow commodities cards to be issued to persons formerly on W. P. A. whose employment has been discontinued, but who are not receiving in private employment wages equal to the salary and other benefits received while employed under W. P. A.

APPOINTMENT OF CONSTABLE.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the appointment of Walter Moran, of 455 Quincy street, Ward 15, to be Constable of the City of Boston with term ending April 30, 1942, without power to serve civil process and to serve without bond, vice Frank Chaisson.

Laid over a week under the law.

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AT 35 HAWKINS STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 28, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am informed by the Custodian of Foreclosed Real Estate that a certain parcel of land containing 3,940 square feet with buildings thereon located at 35 Hawkins street has come into his possession because of non-payment of taxes. This land and buildings adjoins the Public Welfare Department building and its facilities can be used by that department to very good effect.

I am therefore in favor of the proposal of the Custodian of Foreclosed Real Estate to transfer this land and buildings to the care, custody and control of the Overseers of the Public Welfare and I recommend passage of the attached order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

Real Estate Division, April 25, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—Attached herewith is the order for the City Council which was prepared by the Law Department for transfer of 35 Hawkins street, Boston, from the Foreclosed Real Estate Division to the Public Welfare Department as requested by you and the Public Welfare Department.

This property was foreclosed by decree of the Land Court on February 14, 1941, and consists of 3,940 square feet of land, with buildings thereon.

In view of the fact that the Welfare Department needs larger quarters and this building abuts the present Welfare building, I believe that this would be a very wise move to save either the rental of outside space or the purchase of another building by the City of Boston.

Very truly yours,
DANIEL M. DRISCOLL, Custodian.

Whereas, The City of Boston by a decree of the Land Court, Suffolk Registry District, dated February 14, 1941, foreclosed a right of redemption under a tax deed recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 5669, page 529, on about thirty-nine hundred forty (3,940) square feet of land, with the buildings thereon, on the northeasterly side of and numbered 35 Hawkins street, Boston; and

Whereas, The Overseers of the Public Welfare of the City of Boston are desirous of using the said premises for Public Welfare Department purposes; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Custodian of Foreclosed Real Estate of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized, with the approval of the Mayor of Boston, to transfer the care, custody, control and management of the said premises, hereinbefore described, to the Overseers of the Public Welfare of the City of Boston.

Referred to Executive Committee.

LEASE OF LAND ON BORDER STREET TO NAVY DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 28, 1941.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Commissioner of Public Works in which he informs me that the United States Navy Department is desirous of leasing for a period of five years that part of Border street which was used as an approach to the North Ferry. It is understood that the Federal Government which now owns adjoining land is to use this section of Border street for naval purposes.

In view of the fact that the City of Boston has no present use for this piece of land, I see no objection to the proposal of the Public Works Commissioner that it be leased to the Federal Government for a period of five years for a nominal rental of one dollar per year.

I therefore recommend passage of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Works Department,
April 21, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—At the present time this department has under its jurisdiction the ferry wharves and slips that are located at the foot of Border street, East Boston, southwest of Sumner street, that were formerly used in connection with the operation of the North Ferry. Since the operation of the North Ferry was discontinued, however, the property has not been of any use to the department.

The Federal Government, through its Navy Department, is desirous of obtaining this property, in addition to that section of Border street that extends from Sumner street to the North Ferry, in order that the properties may be utilized during the next five years in connection with the National Defense Program. The Federal Government is now owner of the property called the Lockwood Basin that is located contiguous to and on the easterly side of the city-owned properties referred to above. The Lockwood Basin is used by the Navy Department for the purpose of outfitting small vessels and it is my understanding that the slips of the North Ferry are to be used for the mooring of small boats prior or subsequent to their being outfitted at the Lockwood Basin.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

pating the approval of the inclosed order by the City Council, I have requested the Board of Street Commissioners to discontinue that section of Border street as a public highway, in order that the area of land formerly used as a public street may be leased to the Navy Department. It is my opinion that the North Ferry property and the section of Border street referred to will not be of use to this department or any other city department within the next five years, and, in view of this, I see no objection to leasing it to the Federal Government.

I respectfully recommend, therefore, that the inclosed order, which I am transmitting in quadruplicate, that was prepared by the Law Department, be introduced in the City Council, in order that you may be authorized to effect the above-referenced lease.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner of certain property known as the North Ferry, situated in the East Boston district, containing approximately 58,987 square feet of land and flats, together with the wharves and buildings thereon. This property was acquired in fee by purchase in 1859. The deed of conveyance of said property to the City of Boston is dated February 24, 1859, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 753, page 40; and

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner in fee of that part of Border street, a public highway containing approximately 21,546 square feet of land, lying southwesterly of the southwesterly side line of Sumner street and running from said Sumner street to the said North Ferry. The title of the City of Boston to this part of Border street was acquired by two deeds; the first of said deeds being dated and recorded as aforesaid, and the second of said deeds being dated November 9, 1885, and recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 1701, page 294; and

Whereas, That part of Border street lying southwesterly of Sumner street is to be discontinued as a public highway; and

Whereas, The said North Ferry is no longer needed for public purposes, and the said port of Border street to be discontinued will at the date of said discontinuance be no longer needed for public purposes; and

Whereas, The United States of America, Navy Department, the owner of certain property situated southerly of and abutting on the said North Ferry and the said part of Border street to be discontinued, desires to lease the said property of the City of Boston for a term not exceeding five years; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized to lease, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, by an instrument in writing satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston, the said premises hereinbefore referred to and known as the North Ferry, together with that part of Border street hereinbefore referred to upon its discontinuance as a public highway, to the United States of America, Navy Department, for the purposes of said department, for a term not exceeding five years, at an annual rental of one dollar, subject, however, to the condition that no building or structure shall be erected upon the said premises unless plans thereof have first been approved in writing by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston.

Referred to Executive Committee.

EASEMENT TO MASSACHUSETTS MEMORIAL HOSPITALS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, April 28, 1941.

To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—The City of Boston is the owner of a certain parcel of land, containing approximately 1,104 square feet, situated on the southwesterly side of East Newton street, between lands owned by the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (East Armory). This parcel of land is subject to certain passageway rights in the said Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals.

The Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals are constructing a hospital building on the land owned by it and abutting on the said parcel of land owned by the City of Boston, and, also, are constructing on land owned by it on Albany street a new power house. The Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals plan to service the new hospital building by means of pipes and conduits leading thereto from the Albany street power house and for this purpose request the right and easement from the City of Boston to locate, construct, maintain and operate such pipes and conduits below the surface of the said parcel of land owned by the City of Boston.

The Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals have discussed with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts the possibility of constructing a subway leading from the new hospital building to the East Armory to give access directly from the hospital to the armory for possible use in the event of a great emergency or disaster and for this purpose request the right and easement from the City of Boston to locate, construct, maintain and operate such a subway below the surface of the said parcel of land owned by the City of Boston.

The acquisition by the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals of the requested easement in the city-owned parcel of land for the purposes above enumerated will in large measure help its hospital building program and provide in conjunction with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts greater hospital facilities in the event of a great emergency or disaster.

I therefore recommend passage of the enclosed order.

Respectfully,
MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Law Department, April 25, 1941.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—In accordance with your request an order whereby the City of Boston may grant to the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals an easement for the purpose of locating and constructing pipes, conduits and a subway below the surface of a certain parcel of land owned by the City of Boston and situated on the southwesterly side of East Newton street, between lands of the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (East Armory) has been prepared by this office.

Please find enclosed original and four carbon copies of an order to be introduced in, together with a letter of transmittal to the City Council, if the same meet with your Honor's approval authorizing the granting of an easement in this parcel of city-owned land to the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals for the purpose of locating, constructing, operating and maintaining pipes, conduits and a subway below the surface, and in accordance with plans to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston.

I also inclose herewith a copy of a plan of the said premises.

Very truly yours,
ROBERT CUTLER,
Corporation Counsel.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner of a certain parcel of land containing approximately 1,104 square feet, situated on the southwesterly side of East Newton street, in the South End District of the City of Boston, and bounded and described as follows:

Northeasterly by East Newton street, 12 feet; southeasterly by land of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (East Armory), 92 feet; southwesterly by a common passageway, 12 feet; northwesterly by land of Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals, 92 feet; and

Whereas, The said parcel of land is subject to certain passageway rights in the said Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals; and

Whereas, The said Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals desire to locate, construct, maintain and operate pipes and conduits, and to locate, construct, maintain and operate a subway below the surface of the said parcel of land; and

Whereas, The said parcel of land is no longer needed for public purposes; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, to grant by an instrument in writing satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston, and in consideration of one dollar to be paid to the City of Boston, an easement in the said parcel of land for the purposes of the location, construction, maintenance and operation of pipes, conduits and a subway below the surface of the said parcel of land, subject, however, to the condition that no pipes, conduits and subway shall be located or constructed in the said parcel of land unless plans thereof have first been approved in writing by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston.

Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

Hon. Maurice J. Tobin,

FINAL REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION RE ELEVATED.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, April 16, 1941.

To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

Gentlemen,—The Finance Commission desires to notify you and the members of the City Council that the commission believes it has accomplished the major portion of its purpose as stated when it decided to investigate the Boston Elevated Railway Company. The commission, by the report of its Special Counsel, Timothy F. Callahan, has established and revealed the true facts of the manner in which this railroad system has been financed while being restored to usefulness in the period in which it has been operated by Public Trustees. No important facts as stated by the commission's counsel have been questioned.

This undertaking by the commission has cost approximately $55,000, all of which has been furnished by the City of Boston. Inasmuch as the other thirteen municipalities of the Metropolitan Transit District have, proportionately, the same interest in the matter as the City of Boston, the Finance Commission believes that the other municipalities should be willing, proportionately, to reimburse to the City of Boston the cost of the investigation.

It seems to be the consensus of public opinion that the expenditure was worthwhile. The Public Trustees of the Elevated Company and the Finance Commission agree that there has always been so much "loose talk" about the Elevated's affairs that it is well to have the issues raised by the report of the Finance Commission's counsel decided once and for all by the courts. It is only by a determination favorable to the Elevated that a very large part of the public will ever be reconciled to the annual assessment on the taxpayers to help defray expenses of the company while the owners of the company, the stockholders, are receiving annual dividends.

The commission desires to point out that its purpose from the beginning was to find the facts. It was not to establish and maintain that the company had been mismanaged, or that the agents of the public in this management had been venal in any way in what had been done to rehabilitate the road. The commission expressed the hope that it might be able to find a way by which the taxpayers might be saved the necessity of meeting annual deficit payments. Nevertheless, the commission had in mind always, and stated so from the beginning, that its sole purpose was to make an impartial study and give to the people, through the regular governmental bodies, an impartial story of the finances of the company.

Issues have now been framed upon which the financing of the road can be brought before the courts. The Metropolitan Transit Council has called upon the Attorney-General to seek a bill for an accounting. Governor Saltonstall, acting upon the suggestion of the Finance Commission, has asked the Attorney-General to study the situation and to take the action which seems appropriate to him. Obviously, therefore, the Finance Commission has gone as far in this matter as it deems advisable at this time.

The commission stands ready to aid in any way the public officials in whose custody the matter has now been placed. Apart from giving such aid, if requested, the commission intends to take no further part in the situation for the present.

The commission desires to state that Mayor Tobin has given the Finance Commission complete cooperation. He joined heartily with the commission in the work of establishing the facts. Without the financial assistance provided by the Mayor and the City Council, it would have been impossible for the Finance Commission to have made a satisfactory study. In the opinion of the Finance Commission, the Mayor and the City Council have, therefore, made a substantial contribution to the most difficult task which the Finance Commission has ever undertaken.

Governor Saltonstall also aided the commission materially in the work. At a time when the Public Trustees of the Elevated were disputing the commission's right to examine into their affairs, the Governor prevailed upon the trustees to cooperate to the end that the public might be informed of the true facts rather than be compelled to rely on information and propaganda spread indiscriminately by persons only partly informed in the matter. As a result, for the first time in the history of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the books of the company were carefully scrutinized on behalf of a public body.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLES M. STOREY, Chairman,
JAMES E. MAGUIRE,
DAVID LASKER,
JAMES H. FLANAGAN,
ELIAS F. SHAMON,
The Finance Commission.

APPROVAL OF RENEWAL OF TAX TITLE LOAN.

Notice was received from the Emergency Finance Board of approval of tax title loan of $1,500,000, originally approved April 14, 1939, so much as is outstanding on May 11, 1941, rate of interest on renewal notes to be one per cent, payable at maturity.

APPOINTMENT OF INSPECTORS.

Notices were received of the appointments by the Health Commissioner of Robert E. Crosby, 749 Saratoga street, East Boston, and Frank J. Gormley, 2 Atherton street, Roxbury, to be inspectors of housing and sanitation.

Severally placed on file.

RECESS SUGGESTED.

President GALVIN—If there is no objection, the Council will now take a recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I don't think it is fair to the members of the Council for the Body to immediately go into recess shortly after being called to order every Monday. Any members filing orders to get information from department heads should have an opportunity, if the occasion arises, to invite the heads of the departments concerned to come before us in Executive. I don't think we should go into Executive until we take care of some of the preliminary business of the Council.

The Council voted not to go into Executive Committee at this point.

CONFIRMATION OF CONSTABLE APPOINTMENTS.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I move that we confirm the appointments in No. 1 on the calendar, with the exception of the name of Michael W. Ober.

(No. 1 on the calendar, under unfinished business, was "Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor April 14, 1941, of Constables authorized to serve civil process, as set forth in City Document 44.")

President GALVIN—We will first take up, under unfinished business, No. 2 on the calendar.

(No. 2 on the calendar, under unfinished business, was as follows: "2. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor April 14, 1941, of Constables connected with official positions, as set forth in City Document 45.")

The question came on confirmation of the names set forth in City Document 45, being No. 2 on the calendar. Committee, Coun. Scannell and Lyons. Whole number of ballots 18; yes 17, no 1, and the appointments contained in City Document 45 were confirmed.

By direction of the President, the Council also took up, under unfinished business, No. 3 on the calendar, viz.:

3. Action on appointments submitted by the Mayor April 14, 1941, of weighers of coal and other minor officers, as set forth in City Document 46.

The question came on confirmation of the appointments contained in City Document 46. Committee, Coun. Wickes and Linehan. Whole number of ballots 16; yes 15, no 1, and the appointments were confirmed.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I now move that No. 1 on the calendar, under unfinished business, be taken up and that we vote on confirmation of the names with the exception of Michael W. Ober and Joseph M. Torr.

The motion was declared carried.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, I notice that on this list there are four people named Ober. I wondered whether the whole family was appointed to this job.

President GALVIN—It has been a tradition of the family.

The question came on confirmation of the names contained in Document 44, with the exception of Michael W. Ober and Joseph M. Torr. Committee, Coun. Hutchinson and D. F. Sullivan. Whole number of ballots 18; yes 15, no 3, and the appointments with the exceptions noted were confirmed.

On motion of Coun. GOTTLIEB, the name of Michael W. Ober was referred to the Committee on Constables; and on motion of Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN, the name of Joseph M. Torr was also referred to the Committee on Constables.

Later in the session Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN said: Mr. President, I ask that the name of Michael W. Ober be taken up at this time for confirmation.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I object to this name being acted upon at this time, for the same reason that the councilor from Ward 12 (Coun. Taylor) gave on another occasion, that it was a matter that interested some of the constituents in his district. I have the same argument here, that this concerns some of the constituents in my district. I notice also that there are three other members of this same family who are constables of the City of Boston, so that the family is not being deprived of any business. As this is a matter that concerns some of my constituents, I take the same ground on this matter that the councilor from Ward 12 (Coun. Taylor) took on another occasion.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, when the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) moved to take the name of Michael W. Ober from the list, I became concerned, because I have known Mr. Ober for more than ten years. I believe he has been a constable of the City of Boston for at least twenty years, and has performed the duties of the office at all times, to my knowledge, honestly giving good service as a constable in the discharge of his official duties. If there was any complaint against this man, I think the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) in all fairness should have notified the Committee on Constables before this time, in order that the committee might hold a hearing and determine whether or not the complaint against Mr. Ober as a constable was justified. I think, however, that it is very unfair for the gentleman from Ward 1 to wait until the entire list has been submitted and printed and put over for action at this meeting before proposing dilatory action which will deprive this man of his means of earning a livelihood for probably a month or more. I think the name should be acted upon at this time. The councilor from Ward 1 had plenty of time at the last meeting, when the list was presented, to object to Mr. Ober. The councilor from Ward 1 makes reference to an earlier occasion in which the councilor from Ward 12 (Coun. Taylor) figured. In that case, the name submitted came from the twelfth district, as such being peculiarly within the province of the councilor from Ward 12; and he had a right at that time to ask that action on the name be delayed. This is an entirely different situation, and I ask the Body in all fairness to vote at this time upon the reappointment of Mr. Michael W. Ober.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, the councilor from Ward 14 (Coun. Gottlieb) makes the statement that he has known Mr. Ober for ten years I have known of him pretty nearly all his life, as a graduate of the East Boston High School, and have known something about the performance of the duties of his office for twenty years. He has been an arrogant man in the performance of his duties. I don't care to put him out of business, but I believe there will be no injustice through a brief delay, inasmuch as several other members of his family will in the meantime have the right to serve process. The only reason why I mention the previous action in a similar matter of the gentleman from Ward 12 is that this is something that also concerns some of my constituents. In the previous case the councilor from Ward 12 felt that he had a real complaint, and I also feel that in this case, as representing my constituents, I have a real complaint. I have not even asked that the name be stricken from the list. I am not attempting to deprive this man of a livelihood. I do, however, feel that under the circumstances I am justified in asking that the name be laid on the table for a week, and there will be no injustice done to the Ober family in the meanwhile, because, as I say, there are three other constables who are members of that family.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman why he did not inform the Committee on Constables of his position in this matter?

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I was not asked whether I had any opinion in regard to anybody on the list, and this is the first opportunity I have had.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, this name had been referred to the Committee on Constables?

President GALVIN—Yes. The question now comes on laying on the table for one week.

The motion to lay on the table for one week was declared lost. Coun. COFFEY doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.

The motion was lost, upon roll call, yeas 3 nays 9:

Yeas—Coun. Coffey, Scannell, Shattuck—3.

Nays—Coun. Carey, Englert, Fish, Galvin, Goode, Gottlieb, Hutchinson, Taylor, Wickes—9.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I ask for reconsideration. All I want to say is this. When the councilor makes the statement that he saw fit to go through with the councilor from Ward 12 (Coun. Taylor) because of the fact that he thought the councilor was at least entitled to that consideration, as it was a matter that concerned his district, I feel that he should give me the same consideration in a matter that concerns some of my constituents. And I don't think, either, that I should be considered anti-Ober because of the fact that I simply want action delayed here so that proper consideration may be given to the matter. I don't think it is fair, under the circumstances, for objection to be made to my wish to have this put over for one week, when no objection is made when Councilor Taylor asks for practically the same thing.

Coun. TAYLOR—Mr. President, as long as my name has been brought into the matter, I would like to bring the attention of the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) to the facts in the case. In the first place, when a matter of this kind directly concerns a councilor's own district, when the appointee lives in his ward, it has always been considered a matter of courtesy to defer to the wishes of the councilor from that district when the qualifications of the particular individual who is being voted upon are in question. As I understand, Mr. Ober comes from Ward 14, Councilor Gottlieb's district, and the situation, therefore, is entirely different in his case from what it would be in the case of the gentleman from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey). In the previous case that has been referred to, in which my name has been brought in, the person concerned came from my district. The man in question never was a constable. He had always been in the real estate and insurance business, and had always made a living in that business. Consequently, I felt at that time that the man was not particularly fitted for the job. Mr. Ober, however, has been a constable for over twenty years, and it is his one means of livelihood. I don't know what the complaint against him is. I don't understand that any complaint has been brought against him in the past, and whenever there are grievances against a constable from a member of the Council in his district, it has always been the custom of such a member to present those objections to the Committee on Constables. In this case, that has never been done, and I certainly think in this case it is a gross injustice to this man, who has served process for over twenty years, to deny him an opportunity to continue to do so, in the way that is now being attempted.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I believe that each member of this Body has had his chance since the last meeting to object to any man on the list. If there was any ground for objection, a hearing could be held and the facts could have been considered. Of course, if any member of the Council had reason to object to any constable in his district he could have objected, a hearing could have been given, and the facts could have been presented and considered. But if a member has not taken that course, he should abide by the result.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, there is only one word additional that I wish to say. I am not attempting to deprive this man of a living. There are three other constables in his family, and they have been confirmed. So, as far as the Ober family is concerned, the list of constables has not been cut. All I wish is simply that the action be delayed for a week.

Reconsideration was declared refused. Coun. COFFEY doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.

The motion to reconsider was lost, yeas 7, nays 9:

Yeas—Coun. Carey, Coffey, Linehan, Russo, Scannell, Shattuck, F. D. Sullivan—7.

Nays—Coun. Englert, Fish, Galvin, Goode, Gottlieb, Hutchinson, Lyons, Taylor, Wickes—9.

The question came on confirmation of the appointment of Michael W. Ober. Committee, Coun. Fish and Scannell. Whole number of ballots 16; yeas 10, nays 6, and the appointment was confirmed.

APPROPRIATION FOR PUBLIC WELFARE DEPARTMENT.

President GALVIN called up, under unfinished business, Nos. 5 and 6 on the calendar, viz.:

5. Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 92 of the Acts of 1941 the sum of $3,510,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated for Public Welfare, Soldiers' Benefits and Federal Emergency Unemployment Relief Projects, to be used for meeting appropriations heretofore made, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount, the same to be issued outside the debt limit.

Installation of Federal Surplus Commodity Stamp Plan.....$250,000

The orders were given their second and final reading and passage, yeas 19, nays 0.

ONE DAY OFF IN SEVEN FOR POLICE.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner of the City of Boston, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to consider the advisability of granting the Boston police one day off in seven, provided it means no additional expense to the city for police protection.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, during the last year or so there has been an increase in the number of policemen on the force here in Boston. Feeling that the additional force will warrant the members of the department enjoying the privilege of one day off in seven, I am introducing this order, to do justice to an overworked department. I trust that the order will be referred to the Executive Committee.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

FOOD STAMP PLAN REQUIREMENTS FOR W. P. A. WORKERS.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Director of Public Welfare, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to contact the officials of the Surplus Commodity Stamp Plan with the view that these officials consider the advisability of reducing the present food stamp plan requirement for W. P. A. workers of S rating with six or more in the family, to four in the family.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, my purpose in introducing this order is because of the increased cost of living, particularly in the matter of food. Workers coming under the S rating of the W. P. A. of over $80 a month, must have six or more in the family to take advantage of the stamp plan act. I am, therefore, introducing this order with the idea of having the Director of Public Welfare, through his Honor the Mayor, take this matter up with the officials of the Surplus Commodity Stamp Plan, with a view to considering the advisability of reducing the present food stamp plan requirement for W. P. A. workers of S rating with six or more in the family, to four in the family, so that families of four may derive benefit from the stamp plan act.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

MUNICIPAL BUILDING, DORCHESTER.

Coun. WICKES, GOTTLIEB, HUTCHINSON and FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of constructing a municipal building and health center in some centrally located section of Dorchester, the expense of same to be taken care of either from the income of the George Robert White Fund or through W. P. A. funds.

PROTEST AGAINST REDUCTION OF W. P. A.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN and GOTTLIEB offered the following:

Resolved, That the members of the Boston City Council protest vigorously the proposed reduction of ten thousand Massachusetts W. P. A. workers prior to July 1, 1941, and earnestly request the Massachusetts membership in Congress to use every means at their command to forestall this proposed unwarranted objective.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I think most of the membership of this Body were shocked during the past week to read a statement from Howard Hunter, Federal Administrator of the W. P. A., that ten thousand more W. P. A. workers were to be dropped in Massachusetts prior to July 1 of this year. And even those figures do not tell the full story. On February 1st of this year, it was stated that ten thousand workers would be dropped by the first of June, and already between 5,000 and 7,500 have been dropped in Massachusetts. So, when Federal Administrator Hunter came here and said that ten thousand would be dropped between now and July 1st, obviously it did not mean that only ten thousand in all would be dropped, but it brought the figure of those already dropped and to be dropped to between 15,000 and 18,000. It is a further shock to the members of the Body and to every thinking citizen, to realize that this proposed reduction largely hits the white-collar workers of Boston and of the Bay State. We are told that a great many of these people will be working on defense, but there is very little hope in that line for members of the white-collar group. The fact is that there has been no material reduction in the number of unemployed in Massachusetts, and that, aside from the few of the white-collar class who may have become employed in private industry, most members of that group are still unemployed. So this whole thing militates against the possibility of employment for white-collar workers, who have for the last few years been employed on W. P. A. work, and who have thus been enabled to maintain their homes and to help support their families. But the sad fact is that the greater part of the white-collar workers are not going to work in defense projects. So when Mr. Hunter says that a large part of the workers who will be dropped from W. P. A. are going to be employed, he must mean in some new industry. All the members of this Body know white-collar workers who will not be employed to any extent if this proposed reduction takes place, and we are all aware that the poor white-collar worker is the man who will suffer. There are a million less employed in the United States than in 1929, and I still feel that Massachusetts is contributing more than its share to that million. I trust, therefore, that the members of Congress from Massachusetts will see to it that the ten thousand are not laid off and that the W. P. A. is still kept going on the same ratio as it has been up to the present time.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

Coun. TAYLOR in the chair.

ANNUITY TO SISTER OF ALBERT F. MITCHELL.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:

Resolved, That the City Council of Boston hereby approves the enactment of legislation to authorize the payment of an annuity to the sister of Albert F. Mitchell, a member of the Fire Department of the City of Boston, who died August 9, 1935, from injuries received in the performance of his duty; provided that such legislation includes a referendum to the Mayor and City Council.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PERMANENT EMPLOYMENT OF MEN FOR STREET CLEANING.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of requisitioning 200 men from the civil service list to be made permanent employees of the city for the purpose of keeping the streets clean.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, two weeks ago on the floor of this Body I brought into the light the fact that the Public Works Commissioner was going to put at work several hundred men cleaning the streets of Boston—which we all knew were in deplorable condition and needed to have something done—and that those men were not to be certified from the civil service list. At that time I introduced an order asking that the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through the Mayor, to demand certification from the civil service list of men needed for temporary work on street cleaning. At that time, our President stated that a constituent of his was certified that morning from the Public Works Department and that another was certified from the civil service list, which, of course, was an erroneous statement. The President at the time might have been referring to a requisition sent to the Public Works Commissioner requesting that twenty-five men be placed at work on patchwork of the city. But I have a personal letter from the Civil Service Commissioner which states that a requisition was not sent to that Commission for 215 men from the civil service list. A week ago last Tuesday morning, at nine o'clock, I called on the Civil Service Commissioner. The Commissioner of Public Works was with him at the time, and when he came out I went in and asked if a requisition had been sent to the Civil Service Commission for 215 men to do cleaning work, and the commissioner said that no such requisition had been sent to him. He claimed that the Public Works Commissioner said that it was an emergency, and asked if he could not hire 215 men at random. It could not have been such an emergency when on March 31 half a dozen different councilors filed orders asking that the streets in their different sections be cleaned immediately, and so, if the Public Works Commissioner wished, he could very properly at that time have asked to have 215 men sent down. But the Civil Service Commissioner admitted in my presence that the Public Works Commissioner did not request him to send down from civil service 215 men, so that he could place those men at work. This order that I have introduced, therefore, asks that the Mayor consider the advisability of requisitioning 200 men from the civil service list to be made permanent employees of the city for the purpose of keeping the streets clean. If my information is correct, there are today about seven hundred vacancies in the Department of Public Works. I say, therefore, that the action I have suggested should be taken, so that the streets of Boston may be kept in proper condition, in line with the request made by half a dozen members of this Body three weeks ago. In spite of the work that has been done in cleaning the streets, the streets today are in as bad condition as they were at that time, and certainly some action along this line should be taken immediately. It is extremely important, for health and other considerations, that our streets be kept clean, and that is not being done at the present time.

Coun. SHATTUCK—Mr. President, it seems to me clear that the Department of Public Works needs extra men to help in the street-cleaning season. It also seems clear that the number of men necessary at such a time is not permanently necessary. Those men are needed more at certain seasons than at others. There is less need for them at other times than at the peak of the street-cleaning season. I don't think any of us know whether the department has enough of its ordinary men to handle the work at the peak season, or whether two hundred or any number of men should be added. I move, therefore, that the matter be referred to the Executive Committee, with the idea that the matter may be laid over for a week, to give the commissioner time to consider the matter and to tell us about it.

The order was referred to the Executive Committee.

PAYMENT OF AID TO SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

Coun. ENGLERT, for the Committee on Soldiers' Relief, submitted report recommending passage of order for payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in the City of Boston for the month of April.

Report accepted; said order passed.

CLOSING OF DAY NURSERIES.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to solicit the aid of the W. P. A. authorities to prevent the closing of day nurseries in Boston due to the lack of supervisory help on account of the mandatory thirty-day suspension due to the eighteen months' rule.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, last week I had approximately fifteen mothers who called in a group at my office asking my support to see that the day nurseries of Boston should be kept open. They were interested because it was understood that the North End and West End nurseries were about to be closed. I took the matter up with the lady in charge, and she informed me that, although she hated to close these schools, the teachers are employed under W. P. A., and due to the eighteen months' thirty-day mandatory suspension rule, the thirty day closing is mandatory; and she informed me that the closing was often not only for thirty days but sometimes it is three or four months before they are able to take these teachers back. I realize that when my children were young I had placed them in the nursery school, and I was familiar with the benefits which they received, the aid given to mothers in teaching them how to bring up their children, and so on. I cannot help being firmly inclined in favor of keeping these schools going. I know that every mother in the City of Boston who has been in contact with these schools wishes them to be kept open. I hope, therefore, that the Mayor of Boston will solicit the aid of the W. P. A. authorities to obtain sufficient teachers so that these schools will be kept open. I trust that the order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

RETENTION OF CERTAIN FAMILIES ON WELFARE.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Overseers of Public Welfare be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to retain on the supplementary rolls of welfare families who have one adult son or daughter assigned to W. P. A. employment, but whose earnings are not sufficient for the support of the family.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I realize in presenting this order that there is quite a problem to be solved. I feel, nevertheless, that the problem can and will be solved if the Welfare Department will work in cooperation with these families who are on welfare. I have had brought to my attention cases of families who have been on dependent aid and who have had one son or daughter assigned to W. P. A. employment, and who have immediately been taken off the welfare rolls. But I ask you, Mr. President and gentlemen, to consider what happens. A family with four or five children has one boy, we will say, about twenty-one or twenty-three, who has been at work on W. P. A. receiving $13 a week. Before he went at work on W. P. A., the family were receiving $10.51 or $10.52, whatever the amount might be, but with his employment the family are cut off, although his earnings are not sufficient for the support of the family. We are therefore placing a tremendous load on that son or daughter who may have a moral obligation to support the family. I do feel, therefore, that a W. P. A. allowance should be given also in such cases, so that the family may have sufficient money to get along. I trust that the Welfare Department will give enough to such families to help them out, so that the children will not be forced to leave their homes because they cannot see any future for themselves. I do hope that the proper authorities will take action which will prevent the breaking up of homes, and I trust that the order will pass.

The order was referred to the Committee on Public Welfare.

LOCAL DISTRIBUTION OF WELFARE.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make a statement. (No objection.) On February 10, I introduced the following order:

"Ordered, That the Overseers of Public Welfare and Superintendent of Supplies be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, when making preparations for the year 1942, for the delivery of oil to recipients of Dependent Aid, Aid to Dependent Children, and Old Age Assistance, to discontinue the practice of arranging for this distribution by contract and instead to permit these recipients to purchase this oil from their local dealers."

Subsequent to the introduction of my order a hearing was granted, at which we were told that the Boston Ice Company, which held the contract, was incapable of properly carrying out the contract, particularly during the winter months. Within the last few weeks I have had brought to my attention a few cases in my district, the facts in which I think should be made a matter of public record here, because I think every member of the Council tries to help those who are unfortunate and who are seeking aid in the different districts. There are two particular cases I have in mind, which illustrate the point I am making, cases in which the sub-contractor was the Boston Ice Company. In both cases there was a shortage in oil deliveries. I received a telephone call at my house one evening complaining and stating that a test should be made. The tank in question was a fifty-gallon tank, which was supposed to be filled. I communicated with the Sealer of Weights and Measures and a test was made at the home. The measuring stick showed that there was a shortage of oil in the tank, that instead of the fifty gallons there was not over forty gallons. In other words, this constituent of mine, who could not afford it, was cheated to the extent of 20 per cent by this Boston Ice Company. In the second case I have in mind there was a similar shortage, where only forty-one gallons instead of fifty were received by the recipient from the Boston Ice Company. That shortage was also demonstrated in the same way as the other, but the Boston Ice Company asked the recipient not to have too much to say about it, because the Boston Ice Company felt that if it was subjected to too much criticism it would lose the contract for the coming year. Certainly that is not a fair way to do business. I think when cases are brought out into the open, Mr. O'Hare, the Director of Public Welfare, is anxious to see that everybody is properly taken care of. But many of these cases are not brought out into the open. Many people are fooled, and others do not like to complain. In the two cases I have referred to, the recipients were deprived of nine or ten gallons in the particular case in question, and undoubtedly there are many more cases that we do not hear about. For this reason we are being besieged by recipients who ask if their allotments cannot be increased. Naturally, when there is a shortage in what is given to them, an increase is needed to carry them through. I sincerely trust, therefore, in view of what has happened, that the Mayor, will take a personal interest in this matter, as I know he will, and see that these unfortunates are properly taken care of, and that this contract with the Boston Ice Company will not be renewed in the future. Where concerns having such a contract are shown to be incapable or not desirous of making proper deliveries, I believe the question of distribution by the local house-to-house dealers should be seriously considered.

RECESS.

Chairman TAYLOR at 3.23 p. m. declared a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President GALVIN at 5.17 p. m.

Chairman: The Chairman would like to state for those who are interested that the appropriation to take care of the reduction in pupil numbers in Grades II and III has been approved and is included in the budget which now is being printed. Eventually, in printed form, it will be adopted in public meeting.

Mr. Norton: That is a very important statement that you have just made and I hope everybody in the room who is interested in that problem understood what was said.

(Several in the audience indicated that they did not understand and Mr. Norton proceeded).

The Chairman has stated that the lowering of the pupil numbers has been approved by the School Committee for inclusion in the budget which will be printed and come here for adoption. In other words, the Chairman has stated that what most of you folks are interested in now has been done. Is that the substance of your remark, Mr. Chairman?

Chairman: The expenditure has been approved by the Committee and the necessary amount has been included in the budget, which now has been sent to the printer.

Mr. Norton: Am I right in stating that we have been successful in ironing out this vexing problem which has been up here for such a long period, and that something has been done which is of real value to the junior elementary group of teachers, Mr. Chairman?

Chairman: Yes, and is, we feel, of value to the system as a whole.

RECREATIONAL SET-UP FOR THE CITY

Mr. Lee: The advent of warm weather brings to mind the subject of recreation. While we have recreation always with us as a problem, nevertheless it is dangling from the end of our little finger and is not one of those problems on which we ever have a grip.

I want to lay before the School Committee this evening the possibility of this Committee being the first City department to start the ball rolling for a different recreational set-up for the whole city, inasmuch as my experience here on the School Committee is that we cannot get recreation functioning as we would like it in Boston unless we have the co-operation of other City departments, and it is a city-wide subject.

I think the City of Boston must face the fact that if it wants to have home life it has to have home life by virtue of having a neighborhood environment. You cannot run a home with children running wild out on the streets, with no supervision, with no program, with no leadership, whether they are young or whether they are almost grown up, and where, too often, the parents themselves have no idea how to build up a community life, how to stimulate a local playground, how to supervise or help with local recreation programs or even how to run parties for the youngsters in their neighborhood if they had the room, or the yard, or the playground.

If we are going to have reasonable life in Boston it has to be centered around home life, and I do not believe home life amounts to much where the home never has a chance to establish itself in the community by reason of the lack of anything in the way of community neighborhood activities of a very wholesome sort for either parents or children.

In asking that this Committee start the ball rolling toward a more unified recreation program, to build up a neighborly spirit for our children and our grown-ups in our city sections, I would like to point out the reason for that and to explain the present situation.

In 1913 a man who has since made an international reputation in the field of recreation, who has developed recreation in one city to a very high point and has become known all over this country, took a Civil Service examination to become the recreation director of the the City of Boston. He took the examination and passed, as No. 1, under the regime of Mayor Fitzgerald, in 1913. Then Mayor Curley came in, and before that man ever took office the position was abolished.

So that almost 27 years ago Boston gave a death blow to any leadership for recreation in this city, and recreation lapsed back into the hands of seven different City departments, all of which administer recreation, which accounts for the fact that it is nobody's business because it is everybody's business.

We have first the Street Laying-out Department. They run the coasting program because it is their job to set aside streets for coasting. Instead of setting aside streets on hills, they set aside flat streets. That is their idea of good coasting. Coasting under vital recreational leadership would give a great number of children a wholesome outdoor activity.

Then we have the Public Buildings Department. There is no recreation division under the Public Buildings Department. They simply rent out their buildings to groups who want to hold lectures, rallies, or meetings, as those groups come along. There is no effort to make the seven municipal buildings in Boston real recreational centers for the neighborhood, because there is no recreational leadership that speaks for the whole city.

Then we come to the Traffic Department, which has jurisdiction over the streets to be set aside as play streets in the summer time. They are a fine group and I think they always do their best, but they are handicapped by having to coordinate with us and lay out, before summer starts, the exact schedule of hours for every street that is to be used. This does not make for a very versatile selection of streets, because if you guess wrong you cannot meet again in the middle of the summer and make a change during the vacation period, where both bodies have to be assembled.

Then we come to our own School Department, where we have our summer playground program, our gymnasium program, and our major sports program. While much work is done, yet we cannot give it the time that we would give it if we were a recreation department rather than an educational department. For example, we do not know on a certain Saturday night whether Mr. Mullen, in the Park Department, is running short of gyms and would like to use our school gyms, or whether, on the contrary, we are having basketball games only two blocks apart in a school gymnasium and also in a municipal gymnasium.

When it comes to constructive measures to see whether it is worth while to put gratings on windows so that youngsters can play ball, we do not have the leadership working on that problem. If we canvass our school playgrounds and school buildings to see about the feasibility of putting gratings on windows so that youngsters may play baseball and the Park Department has to make a similar canvass, there is a duplication of effort and a division of responsibility. Then, too, it must be true that the members of the School Committee as a whole are giving their attention to matters of vocational guidance and matters of educating the children to take part in the life of the world, and we cannot coordinate our efforts with other recreation divisions as we would like to.

Last year we authorized local playground committees of mothers to help supervise certain playgrounds, and we gave the keys to the police to keep the playgrounds open. But there, again, we do not have the city-wide leadership and the personnel to assign to a thing like that, to really get the mothers of the neighborhoods interested in the recreational problems of the children in the local districts.

In the School Department's relations with the Park Department, we were held back a whole year last year because Mr. Long went to Florida and we could not coordinate the use of his WPA workers with the opening of our gymnasiums in the afternoon.

Until Mr. Mullen was elevated from an assistant physical director in the Bath Department to recreation director of the Park Department, there was no Recreation Department in the city. Even now Mr. Mullen lacks authority to speak for the Park Department or to coordinate with other departments.

Lastly, among the departments having to do with recreation, we have the Metropolitan District Commission, with the finest of our facilities in their charge, and yet with no recreation division or interest in recreation, and they are putting constant opposition to the development of skating, boating, hiking and so forth on their reservations.

I think the crowning irony of Boston is that the Police Department, of all the departments in the city, the farthest removed from recreation, a department whose function it is to guard against the maturer criminals, had to create a recreation department simply to meet the rising cost of juvenile crime, which was the child of the negligence of the six other City departments. I know of no more eloquent evidence of the bad state of recreation in Boston than the fact that the Police Commissioner has had to take up this work, and he is to be complimented for his leadership in everything that he has tried to do in the Police Department as an emergency condition to remedy conditions in Boston. It is evident that we are doing only a fraction of the job.

I propose that we be the first City department to say to the Mayor that we need a Recreation Board for the city, a Board composed of representatives of every City department having to do with recreation and representatives from organizations like boys' clubs, the C. Y. O., and the Boston Council of Social Agencies, and have those people appoint one recreation leader for the City, who would be a Civil Service selection, and have that Board and that supervisor of recreation plan programs of recreation which will utilize the resources of all the City departments that have anything to do with recreation, all of whom will come together at meetings of this Recreation Board and will pool their resources as well as they can so as to get the best results.

That does not mean that the schools have to give up or would be asked to give up the gymnasium work which goes on in the mornings among the girls, or to give up their high school baseball or football teams. It does mean that the planning of certain activities would be done by this recreation commission, such as the summertime use of school yards, the evening occupancy of buildings, either by parents or by youngsters, and the playing of basketball and perhaps other sports. Those things would be subject at least to the planning of this Recreation Commission or Recreation Board, on which the School Committee would have a representative. I think the result would be to begin to make our neighborhoods neighborly.

Real leadership means something nice going on in the local school building or at the local school yard, coasting streets selected and prepared, skating areas cleared, not a physical maintenance man on the playground who is there to keep the grass cut and rolled with a roller once in a while, but a local recreation man who can organize a neighborhood to bring their teams out, the girls' teams and the boys' teams, young and old groups, stimulating the parents to bring their children out on the playground, having a recreation man there rather than simply having a physical maintenance man. Let the physical work be done by experts, who know how to treat a tennis court, how to condition ice, and what kind of seed to put on an earthy field that needs new grass. With somebody having a sympathetic interest in charge we would begin to wake up our neighborhoods, and our playgrounds would be used, our schools would be used, and our municipal buildings would be used. More use would be made of our river basin and proper leadership would provide three or four times as many skating days on skating areas, where local fields are flooded.

We are a separate department, not under the Mayor, but we are a department that is much concerned with this question, and I think we would be doing a very fine thing if we could be the first department to recommend to his Honor the creation of a Recreation Board with a delegate from each of the several departments of the City, whose duty would be to select a Supervisor of Recreation and try to make real neighborhoods out of our districts in Boston by using the resources of all departments to coordinate a really planned program with real recreation leadership.

Mr. Sullivan: I like the idea that Mr. Lee has expressed, of an advisory board of recreation with all the various departments represented. When you come down to the director serving under that Board I see a lot of difficulty ahead, in two ways: One is that you are going to give him power to crisscross through other City departments and direct other City boards in their recreational activities. That might mean a conflict in the use of buildings. On the other hand, he might be made a powerless man with merely the right to advise the department heads as to what coordinated program they would be expected to carry out.

I do not see why such a board as Mr. Lee suggests could not contact directly with the department heads or the proper people in each department who would be represented on the board, without any new job being created.

Mr Lee: I can foresee the difficulty that Mr. Sullivan speaks of. Without a central office you would have lines of demarcation and would not have a perfect understanding between the several departments whose facilities you wish to use.

First, on this Board of Recreation would be the heads of these various departments which are in question, so that difficulties would come before those who could speak for each of the several departments.

Secondly, there are certain departments where this man could be given fairly complete charge as to the use of the facilities. Those would be the departments under the Mayor.

The man who might fill this new job would not necessarily have to be a new man. He might be one of our present recreation leaders advanced to a new position. This man could head up the recreational activities of the Park Department and of the Public Buildings Department, and possibly of the Street Laying-Out Department and of the Traffic Department, because all those are under the Mayor and subject to the Mayor's appointment, so that such a Board, with confirmation by the Mayor and the City Council, could give the Superintendent of Recreation power over programs in the City departments subject to the Mayor and the City Council, and could co-operate with the School Department, and cooperate with the Metropolitan District Commission. With those two departments particularly it would have to be on a voluntary basis and by a mutual understanding between them.

Besides the advisory council I feel sure that you would need to have a permanent full time man there, with an office and a secretary, so as to make it really function and so that the committee would meet on things that were really happening.

Mr. Sullivan: Wouldn't he really be a secretary to the committee?

Mr. Lee: If he was a secretary qualified as a recreation man and selected through Civil Cervice on the basis of his possessing recreational experience, he could be a secretary and he might function as a secretary.

Mr. Sullivan: Suppose that you were representing the School Board on a body such as this, and that body, with your consent and approval, decided they were going to use one of our schools on a certain evening for a recreational activity, and then you come or the Superintendent of Recreation comes to our department and says, "We have decided to use this school." If is so happens that the School Department wants to use that school on that same night for something else, you have a division of authority.

If this is done I would rather see an Advisory Board that would communicate with the Superintendent or his representative and say, "We would advise this. Can you go along with us." In that way the power of ordering the use of school department facilities would rest with this Committee and with the Superintendent.

Mr. Lee: As far as the School Committee is concerned such a Recreation Board would have only an advisory relationship to the School Committee, because it would take an Act of the Legislature for the School Committee to divest itself of power over its own recreational activities.

I think the representative from the School Committee on such a Board should always say to his colleagues on the Board, "I like this idea of the use of such and such a school property but, obviously, it cannot be done without the consent of the School Committee." So the relationship there would be an advisory relationship, helpful to the School Committee in its efforts to form a city-wide program giving the maximum benefit to each district; but in every department under the control of the Mayor such a recreation man could more easily coordinate the work, because he and the other departments would be alike subject to the Mayor and City Council.

Mr. Sullivan: Would you have the School Committee allocate the expenditure of its recreation budget to that Board?

Mr. Lee: I think if a system of evening use of school gyms were developed, the expenditure for such a program might well be by the Recreation Board, just as at present the afternoon occupancy of school gymnasiums for basketball and other activities is under the Park Department of the City of Boston.

Again, under the new set-up, some of the use of playgrounds, I think, would probably gradually be taken over. That is a case where the schools are doing a satisfactory job for the most part: and it would be a matter of relating and coordinating that work with a schedule that started earlier in the spring, for instance, where you might want to pass some of the responsibility over to the Recreation Board.

Mr. Sullivan: To bring this to a head, and without making a formal recommendation as such, we might write to his Honor the Mayor and offer at least two suggestions, one, that such a Board, with a director, be planned, and the other that an Advisory Board, without a director, be planned. Since nothing of this sort can be done without the consent of His Honor the Mayor, the smart thing for us to do is first to get his reaction to it.

I so move.

Mr. Norton: The fact that seven departments now handle recreation in Boston shows that something is wrong. What is everyone's business is no one's business. The result is chaos and no uniformity.

Every member of this School Board realizes the importance of organized athletics, and we feel that the splendid equipment we have in Boston is not being used to the maximum amount of time that it can be used. Therefore, I think this is a proper subject to take up with his Honor the Mayor, first, to suggest to him the advisability of placing a man such as William Mullen, whom we recognize as outstanding in his work, in some kind of an executive position where he would have executive and recommending powers to make a survey of the various recreational facilities with a view to using them to the maximum; and second, that his Honor the Mayor consider the advisability of having a committee study this whole thing and try to report on how we can use those facilities.

Mr. Sullivan: The Pangborn Committee made a report not long ago and they recommended substantially what Mr. Lee has recommended. When it was brought up before the Legislature it was defeated.

Mr. Lee: I do not think the bill was pressed or that it is being pressed. I do not think anybody appeared for it.

Mr. Norton: I feel strongly on this matter of recreation. It is not a frothy thing. I think the recreation instructor is as important as the instructor of mathematics or any other subject.

Where there are playgrounds and organized athletics we know that the crime rate is cut in half. A recent study made in the Chicago Loop district showed that where children were brought up in that congested district they were arrested three times as many times as the children living a mile or two from the Loop, where they had more playgrounds and more fresh air. Where children play on dumps and there is no organized athletics, they are arrested and in trouble three times as often as the children in Hyde Park, Roslindale and West Roxbury, where they have more sunlight and fresh air. In any intown police station you will find more children being arrested each day than you will find arrested in Hyde Park in a month or two months.

We have sat here this evening and listened to the son of the father of recreation in America talk on this subject. It is true, as Mr. Lee says, that recreation is something that is vital, and we want to help him on the coordination of recreational facilities in Boston to save the youth of this city.

If we can get this started we can have His Honor the Mayor come in with us and tell us where we can use the Park Department facilities and the Public Buildings facilities; how we can have better organized coasting, better play streets and more skatng, more golf, more tennis and more of everything. That is the only thing we can do to save these youngsters who are being arrested. We know that only through the medium of organized athletics, more playgrounds and the greater use of our athletic equipment can we do something for these youngsters who are getting into trouble.

Chairman: The Chair feels that the general opinion of the School Committee is in favor of Mr. Lee's suggestion.

There are many things that enter into organized recreation. We have found by experience that unsupervised recreation is not successful. Not only is it not successful but it has usually resulted in the destruction of property. We recognize that the only efficient recreation is supervised recreation all over the city, and this costs a great deal of money.

The School Department would like to be the center of recreational activity, because we feel it is part of a youngster's general education, but for the past eight years we have faced very trying times in our city.

We have tried to do as much as we were able to do with a limited amount of money, to supervise recreational activities in our schools and playgrounds. This means the opening up of playgrounds in the summer time and their protection, the supervision of baseball teams, football teams and hockey teams, and in this work we have expended in the vicinity of $230,000 a year, which is an extremely limited amount of money for this work.

I am in wholehearted agreement with the suggestion made by Mr. Norton, Mr. Lee and Mr. Sullivan. I would like to see some responsibility for recreation placed in one central board. However, there is a very definite question that enters into the matter, as to how much power that action is going to have over the operations of seven departments that now have jurisdiction over recreation. With that number of departments it cannot be efficient. Mr. Lee wants to bring it under one head. We are all agreeable to having it under one head, but it should be a City head.

First of all, we will have to know the jurisdiction and power of this recreation head, so that we can have final say on our recreation budget, because we have full responsibility for the expenditure of our money. No matter how liberal we try to be in any activity, whether it be physical education or industrial education, we are supervised by the taxpayers, to whom we owe a responsibility. We also feel that we have a high degree of responsibility for the youngsters, to give them every means of education that is available in our schools and at the same time to do so with a reasonable expenditure of money.

I have here a letter which I am going to read, but before doing so I suggest that we put to a vote the recommendations of Mr. Lee, Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Norton.

Mr. Sullivan: My recommendation is that both suggestions be sent to his Honor the Mayor. I feel there is no objection to that.

Mr. Lee: Just one comment, so that it may be included in the record: If his Honor were willing to go ahead co-operatively in trying to work out a more uniform program, this is a particularly good time for it, because some such committee will have to be set up to take care each week-end of the 20,000 soldiers who come from Camp Edwards and Fort Devens. The experience of the last war was that the best way to accomplish results was to get together all the people concerned, to work the thing out and do the best they could. Such a conception fits in with the present situation in our Army camps and the conditions resulting from large numbers of soldiers coming to Boston.

To correct what Mr. Sullivan said, or rather to mention the conception that is in my own mind, such a Recreation Commission would not tell the School Committee how to spend its money; nor would it tell the Park Department how to spend its money. Such a Recreation Board would draw up its own budget and say in effect to the schools, "Now we have $5,000 to pay in salaries of recreation directors who can be in your gyms almost every night for basketball programs if you want to keep them open." Our Recreation Board can say, "We have $10,000 to spend in conditioning the ice on the ponds of the Park Department, if the Park Department has no objection to the Recreation Commission doing that."

The recreation budget would be under the Recreation Board and they would not be passing on the budget of anybody else.

The general idea is to refer to the Mayor for consideration the possibility of a Recreation Board or a Recreational Advisory Committee, as worded in the text.

Mr. Norton: While on the subject of recreation, I think every child in the Boston School System should obtain some exercise, walking or athletics of some kind. I sometimes wonder whether we are doing as much as we can in that way. With 30 or 40 per cent of draft selectees turned down on account of some physicial defect, I think it is something the schools might well look into.

I wonder if there is any group in charge of athletics or recreational activities in this country who might advise us on such a program in the Boston School System. Is there any governmental agency that might advise us as to how we can better prepare our youngsters in the school system?

The idea of football and baseball is great, but those who get the most exercise are those who least need it. Organized athletics should take in everyone except those ruled out by a physician. Some time I hope that we can work out a program so that every child will have so many hours of organized athletics.

Mr. Lee: I agree with Mr. Norton's point about the readiness of Americans to confine athletics to a superb group of athletes who perform before an admiring throng, while the admiring throng ought to be taking part in the athletics. I hope we can see progress toward the broadening of participation.

I do not know whom you would get to pass on such a program other than your present recreational leaders. You can always confer with the Sargent School or with people who train people for that purpose.

Chairman: It might be well to incorporate the suggestions of Mr. Norton in the communication to his Honor the Mayor, so that whoever is appointed to this commission to study the matter will give us a report.

Mr. Norton: What we have to combat is the dictator technique where everybody turns out from the five-year-old child to the 75-year-old grandmother. The dictators organize them for their self interest. Here in America in considering such organizations we must do it in a democratic way, and in an American way. That may be included in the motion.

The several recommendations as set forth in the foregoing were approved for transmission to the Mayor.

BOSTON MUNICIPAL RESEARCH BUREAU

Chairman: Before adjourning, I would like to read a letter sent to the Committee by the Boston Municipal Research Bureau. Before I finish you will recognize that it is not complimentary, but I feel that it should be made public at this time.

The following communication was read by the Chairman:

Boston Municipal Research Bureau
One Court Street
Boston, Mass.
April 21, 1941.

To the Members of the Boston School Committee
Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Boston Municipal Research Bureau I am protesting certain recent steps taken by you which will increase the school budget for 1941.

In February the Boston Municipal Research Bureau warned of a tax rate increase of as much as a dollar—a forecast subsequently confirmed by figures which the Mayor sent the City Council. The Bureau's estimate, moreover, was based in part on the expectation that the School Committee would cut its preliminary budget to the same extent it did last year.

Past experience demonstrates that any measurable reduction in the preliminary budget must come from personal savings, particularly those described in the Business Manager's letter of submission for 1941. Thus far the School Committee has taken two steps which are in flat contradiction to the savings there suggested.

The first step consisted of numerous appointments through the fall and winter, notably the large group approved at your meeting of December 16, 1940. The second step was the lowering of the teacher load in Grades II and III from 42 to 35 pupils, with the effect of making room for additional permanent appointments in the elementary grades.

On top of these measures you recently approved an upward salary revision for men intermediate school teachers, and the press states that salary changes are being considered for kindergarten teachers and schoolhouse custodians.

It should not be necessary to remind the School Committee that Boston's $40 tax rate is of confiscatory proportions. It has been instrumental in driving valuations down to the point where there is grave concern over the City's ability to maintain its services.

In view of Boston's struggle to meet the unusual demands of the last decade, there is every right to expect that retrenchment will come first and progress most rapidly in departments where the demand for service has actually lessened. Here the schools are in a class by themselves for enrollments have dropped 17,000 in eight years.

If on the basis of 1932 unit costs, school operating expenses, excluding school plant had fluctuated with enrollment changes, costs would have declined some $800,000 even by 1939 instead of increasing $200,000—a spread of $1,000,000. While subsequent figures are not yet available, the spread has probably increased further.

It may be a satisfaction in official circles to consider that a favorable school balance will permit new appointments without increasing the school levy, but that satisfaction will not be shared by local taxpayers. Stationary costs are no answer to Boston's problem.

For these reasons your committee owes it to the city of Boston, which labors with so critical a tax rate, to tighten, not loosen school expenditure policies.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) H. C. Loeffler,
Secretary.

Placed on file.

Chairman (continuing): You can see from this letter, of which the press got a copy, that we are being continually criticized for any expenditures, no matter how equitable the School Committee tries to be. In the last three years we have cut our budget every single year to meet demands that we felt were being made by the taxpayers. We have not been able to cut our expenditures as much as we felt we should, and we readily recognize our responsibility to the group mentioned in this letter. On the other hand, we have struggled for the last three or four years to find a solution of our elementary problem. This year we think we have found the solution and that we have done the right thing. Regardless of this criticism the Committee feels that we have done right.

I have never felt that the intermediate school teachers have been overpaid. I cannot conceive of a school system that demands a bachelor's degree for a man appointed as an intermediate teacher, whose average age at appointment is approximately 27 years, starting such a man at approximately $1300 a year, which is less than the amount paid to an unskilled employee of this county. Those are some of the things we have tried to adjust.

Last year we gave no increase to any group. The year before we gave no increase to any group. This year, for the first time, we have given a small increase to the intermediate men teachers, amounting to approximately $512 in this year's budget. Yet from this letter one would think that we were wasting the taxpayers' money.

The cost of the items in our budget outside of salaries is 8.3 per cent of the whole budget, and 91.7 goes for salaries.

Mr. Norton: Every member of the School Committee appreciates the circumstances under which our City labors at the present time. We also like to have the experts from the Municipal Research Bureau give us their opinion at any time. This Board must have in mind at all times the welfare of the taxpayers and the children who are entrusted to our care educationally. We have to have regard for all elements in the community. We realize there are a number of injustices in the salary schedule of our teachers, injustices that have existed for a great number of years. As time goes on we hope to remove those injustices, but Rome was not built in a day.

As members of this Committee we have attempted to mitigate some of these injustices. We have tackled the complex problem of the elementary teachers and have done something for that group We have also done something for the intermediate men teachers, giving them two additional increments, one of which they will receive this year in September and the other the following year, in the aggregate amounting to very little.

We have tried to have in mind the financial condition of the city. Never before has the School Committee been faced with the problems that School Committees throughout America are faced with today, particularly the tax problem. Never in the history of the school system was the problem of finances as acute as the financial problem which faces us today The Municipal Research Bureau rightly points out that problem.

Last month we saw the Trefry and Partridge building turned over to the City by the owners, who said "Take it. We can't pay the taxes" That is the building at the corner of Beacon and Park Street which faces the State House.

In the main square of Charlestown the Mayor of Boston swept his hand in a gesture and said, "We have Roughan Hall turned back."

There is a building downtown that is assessed for $350,000, that the man who owns it has been trying to give away for three years to someone who will pay the taxes.

That is the situation we face. I know that the members of the School Committee hold those facts in mind in attempting to spend as little as possible but at the same time attempting to right some of these injustices that exist in our teachers' salary schedule.

Mr. Lee: In a way I do not blame taxpayers' groups for thinking that our budget is going too high, although I think I voted for all or nearly all of those increases. The taxpayers do not realize what our schools are doing, and I hope next week to go on with the question of publicity for the schools. I hope we can have a pictorial year book showing every kind of course we have. We should have a public relations man whose duty it would be to keep the public informed through the newspapers of what we are doing. About a third of our youngsters take the commercial course and about a quarter are taking definite trade courses, which means that almost two-thirds are being prepared, at the expense of the public, to fill the needs of the business houses and industries of Boston, and it is no time for those who operate the business houses and the industries of Boston to complain of the money that we spend in training youngsters for them, so that they may be members of their working staffs.

I think such information should be brought out in pictorial terms and that a public relations man should be assigned by some member of our school system to prepare this material.

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATIONS

Chairman: At this time there are present representatives of the Home and School Association, accompanied by Mrs. Woodbury. Their presence brings to mind some suggestions that are very close to the hearts of Mr. Norton and Mr. Lee.

We have had a meeting with representatives of the school service, and we are trying to find a way to raise funds by voluntary subscription to take care of free luncheons for undernourished children and for milk which now we can buy for a penny a glass. We were fortunate last year in that the elementary teachers ran a play and gave us a check for $1,500. We were deeply grateful for the gift because it enabled us to carry on our milk program to a great extent.

This year we are waiting with a great deal of expectancy and we hope that somebody will help out on the Milk Fund. We suggested a tag day but so far that has not been acceptable. If the representatives of the Home and School Association in their deliberations can find a place that without taxation and without coercion will enable us to raise money to provide for the undernourished children we shall be very appreciative.

Thank you.

DISCHARGE OF PUPILS FROM SCHOOLS

At the request of Mr. Norton, the following statement—made by him at a recent conference of the School Committee—was ordered spread upon the records:

I do not not want any boy or girl thrown out of the Boston public schools while I am on this Committee. At present no record is kept of the number of pupils who leave school because of a grievance. Many of these youngsters could be saved by a sympathetic, kindly approach to their problem. Father Flanagan of Boys' Town is right. There are no bad boys. Nothing would please me better than to be the counsel of record for every child who is in trouble in the Boston school system. I don't care what they have done. They have not done half as much as I did when in school. Children coming out of poor homes have many obstacles to overcome.

A distressed father came to me with his son a few weeks ago. The boy, the apple of the dad's eye, had been asked to leave school. He was told to quit. To get out. The boy, a handsome chap, sixteen years old, standing six feet three inches, and weighing one hundred seventy-five pounds was sorry for what he had done He had violated all the rules, and was fresh with his teachers, and was down in most of his studies. But, fundamentally, the boy is a good boy. He wants to go through college. To be tossed out of school now would ruin his life. His dad had not slept, worrying over his son.

That boy promised me that he would behave if given another chance and I do not believe that he will break his word. I'm going to watch his report card. He is going to be kind to his teachers and cooperate. If he doesn't—if he has a chip on his shoulder—then I will greatly miss my guess.

If a boy cannot get along in one school then there is another to meet his needs. If a boy does not get along with one teacher then another teacher will fill the bill. The last thing in the world that we should do—but the easiest—is to throw a boy out of school.

By luck I happened to stumble onto this case and there must be many more similar cases that members of the Committee never hear about. The pupil just quits and that is the end. We want to save these children and by so doing, save the most precious asset of this or any other city, our youth. There are no bad boys.

I would like an accurate list kept of every child who leaves school and the reasons therefor. Those children must be saved.

The Committee adjourned.

Secretary.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 33. SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1941. NO. 20

CAREFUL PLANNING FOR POST-EMERGENCY PERIOD ADVISED IF AMERICAN YOUTH ARE TO BE IN MORE SERIOUS MOOD AND IDEALS THAN AFTER LAST WAR, SUPERINTENDENT ARTHUR L. GOULD, OF BOSTON SCHOOL SYSTEM, REPORTS AS RESULT OF MEETING OF AMERICAN COUNCIL IN EDUCATION AT WASHINGTON—STATE AND FEDERAL AID FOR EDUCATION ALSO URGED TO BE INCREASED AND OTHER PROBLEMS RELATING TO IMPROVEMENT IN EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES DISCUSSED BY EDUCATORS REPORTED ON TO SCHOOL COMMITTEE—SEEK TO BUILD PEACE AND DEMOCRACY ON MORE LASTING BASIS.

The following is the report of Arthur L. Gould, Superintendent of Public Schools, on his attendance at the convention of the American Council of Education, at Washington, May 2 and 3, 1941.

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of the American Council on Education was held in Washington, on May 2 and 3. Sessions were held morning, afternoon and evening. The program centered around the effect of the present emergency on education.

President Conant of Harvard, discussing British universities and the war, stated that the present purpose overshadowing all the rest is the training of scientists and engineers which are so desperately needed to assist the fighting forces. This does not mean, he said, that the British have lost sight to the primary burden of universities to keep alive the eternal values, but that the academic authorities have come to the conclusion that winning the war is paramount to the continuation of free institutions under which alone universities can fulfill their first aim. President Conant emphasized the farsightedness of the British Government in developing the idea of "reserved occupations" before the war.

This was based on the principle of selection which aimed to insure that the country should get the best services that its manpower could render and that highly skilled individuals would not be wasted in unsuitable or routine work. Each category of about one thousand occupations was assigned an age limit. Men above this age limit were reserved; that is, were only permitted to volunteer for restricted classifications. For example, all doctors were reserved; physicists, teachers were reserved above age twenty-five; chemists were reserved above age twenty-one. The result of this planning has been the establishment of the principle that every man reserved is not only available for essential work, but is actually engaged in it. President Conant concluded his address by reiterating his advocacy of this country's taking all steps necessary to insure defeat of Axis powers, not excluding active belligerency when the strategists so advise.

Dr. Floyd W. Reeves, Director of American Youth Commission, advised careful planning for the post-emergency period if we are to prevent a situation for youth that will be more serious than that which existed during the last decade. He called attention to the fact that the complexities of the present situation are greatly increased because work programs are largely Federal, while the older forms of secondary education are mainly local in jurisdiction. As a result, Doctor Reeves believes that there will be major changes in Federal-State relationships in support and control of youth work programs. He believes that these programs will include public works of value for the social, economic and cultural advancement of all the people. He believes that youthful workers can supply labor for reforestation, flood control, prevention of soil erosion, building of roadside public parks and similar related tasks which must be done on a nation-wide scale if we are to preserve our natural resources. In the production of goods and services, Doctor Reeves suggested that unemployed youth might produce goods for relief families, build roads, bridges and other facilities for public use in state and national parks and forest reserves. In communities where there is great need for playgrounds and other recreational facilities, he believes that unemployed young men and women could lay out playgrounds, clear the sites and supply the leadership in guiding the recreational activities of the young. He summed up the program of the commission as follows:

1. That every person above sixteen who does not desire more schooling and who cannot obtain a job in private enterprise should be provided combined guidance, training and part-time work under public auspices.

2. That the secondary program should be revised, state aid should be increased and apportioned more equitably, Federal aid to states for general education should begin at once, and an expanded student aid program for competent young people in low-income families.

3. That a nation-wide public health program on an unprecedented scale should be inaugurated to reach economically disadvantaged families and regions throughout the nation.

Other speakers included Ralph Barton Perry, who discussed Morale in a Democracy; Henry W. Holmes, who spoke on the subject, An Educational Perspective on Property; Francis J. Brown, executive secretary of National Committee on Education and Defense, who read the report of the sub-committee on military affairs, and W. H. Pillsbury, President American Association of School Administrators, who discussed the subject, Public Schools in the Defense Program.

In all of the discussions the underlying thought was the necessity of long-range planning for the adjustment of large numbers of youths under thirty when the present emergency is over and for the retraining of these now engaged in defense occupations when these occupations are no longer necessary.

Of equal importance to these immediate problems for which planning is essential, is the need of a united effort to improve educational opportunities for all youth in order that coming generations can build peace and democracy on a lasting basis.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hill looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"
From Boston Centennial Poem by
NATHAN HASKEL DOLE.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

On April 22 the Mayor approved the following request for permission to award a contract for special boat hire:

BOSTON, April 14, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

Authority is requested to incur an expenditure of $1,700 for hire of steamer "Francis" from Capt. F. W. Esterhill, 137 Park Drive, in emergencies, without advertising, during the period January 1 through April 6. (Service orders 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14.)

During this period the steamer "Francis" substituted for regular trips of the "O'Meara" when off for repairs, and also made the 9 a. m. trip Sunday mornings and 6 p. m. trip Saturday nights to allow the single crew of the "O'Meara" to have regular time off. The "Francis" also made occasional trips on holidays.

The charges made by Captain Esterhill appear to be reasonable and I feel that nothing would have been gained by advertising.

HUGH J. CAMPBELL,
Commissioner.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Park Commissioners:

BOSTON, April 21, 1941.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Park Commissioners respectfully asks your approval to award the lease of the refreshment concession at the George Wright Golf Course Club House, West street, Hyde Park, to Joseph O. Lynch, of 450 Pond street, Jamaica Plain, for a term of one year from May 1, 1940, to April 30, 1941, for the sum of $600 per year.

Mr. Lynch has operated many concessions in the past and is well identified with the golf game and understands what is needed in a golf club house.

The George Wright Golf Course is recognized as one of the finest municipal golf courses in the country and it is our desire to attract only the highest type individual to membership in this club. To do this we must have a man of experience to handle the refreshment and food concession. In Mr. Lynch we feel that we have the proper person whose management of this concession will reflect credit on the city.

In view of the splendid reputation of Mr. Lynch, his qualifications and his experience, the Board of Park Commissioners requests that for the best interests of the city this concession be awarded to him without advertising.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LICENSES.

Coun. FISH, for the Committee on Licenses, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Boston Elevated Railway (referred April 28) for petition for license to operate motor buses on Huntington avenue, from Brookline line to Evans way—that same ought not to pass.

Report accepted; petition given leave to withdraw.

FARES ON ALLSTON-DUDLEY STREET LINE.

Coun. CAREY and WARD offered the following:

Ordered, That the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to establish a five-cent fare privilege on the Allston-Dudley Street line, from the intersection of Commonwealth and Harvard avenues to the entrance of the Dudley Street terminal, and return.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

W. P. A. TEACHERS IN NURSERY SCHOOLS.

Coun. RUSSO and GALVIN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor, the members of the Boston School Committee and the members of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress be requested to expend their efforts for the accomplishment of the continuance of employment, without interruption by the thirty-day layoff due to the eighteen months' rule, for teachers employed under W. P. A. in the day nursery schools of Boston.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, last week I presented to the Council an order requesting the School Committee, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the advisability of keeping these nursery schools open. I am informed that one of these schools in the West End has now been closed, although one of the teachers has volunteered to give her services gratis. Nevertheless, the school has been closed and this teacher has worked for three weeks without any compensation. I have been informed on good authority that in other cities and towns the school committes have compensated these teachers for their work when they have reached the point where they have to be laid off temporarily due to the eighteen months' law. In presenting this order, I hope the proper authorities will take steps to see that such schools in the West End, North End, and all sections of the City of Boston will be kept open, because, as I said last week, I have in the past had occasion to see the large amount of good that the schools do in taking care of infants from the age of three till they go to kindergarten, in educating the mothers in bringing up their children and in other directions. I hope something will be done to keep the schools open.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

DECISION ON NON-RESIDENT CITY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately render a decision on the legality of city employees living outside of Boston, which decision was requested under date of April 14.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, some three weeks ago, on April 14, to be specific, I introduced a similar order—"That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to submit an opinion to the City Council as to whether or not city employees are required to live within the city limits." That order, of course, was passed under suspension of the rule and was sent to his Honor the Mayor, but up to the present time no answer has been given by the Corporation Counsel. I think it is about time that either the Mayor or somebody else in authority, the department heads, should take some action in regard to these hundreds of city employees who live outside the City of Boston. About a year ago Fire Commissioner Reilly saw fit to tell firemen living outside of the city to either sell their property or dispose of it in some way, and to come back within the city limits. If my information is correct, Fire Commissioner Reilly had no authority, under any ruling that has been made, to force those men to come back into Boston, and I now feel, if the city has no jurisdiction over the question of where city employees should have their homes, that the Corporation Counsel should render a decision to that effect. If it is true that there is no such jurisdiction over them, I think that it was unfair to the firemen to make them come into Boston, and I believe in that case the Fire Commissioner should tell them to move back to their homes in Arlington, Revere, Chelsea or Winthrop. I believe, therefore, that if the Corporation Counsel has the courage—which I doubt—to give an answer to this order and to tell us whether if in his opinion city employees, men on the pay roll of the City of Boston, must live within the confines of the city, such an opinion should be given.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

NOTARY IN EACH LOCAL WELFARE OFFICE.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Director of Public Welfare, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to consider the advisibility of having one clerk in each local welfare office serve as a notary, said expense involved to be paid by the Welfare Department.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, the purpose of this order is to expedite the certification of all persons applying for W. P. A. assistance. Among the papers which must be submitted by the W. P. A. applicant is a form demanding proof of citizenship, which must be sworn to by the applicant before a notary, and he must furnish a birth certificate, social security information, and a new card form that now comes from 9 Beacon street. Much needless time is now lost in this process. If the applicant could have this form notarized by a Welfare Department clerk who is a notary, this would speed up the certification and help reduce the welfare cost to the city. I trust that the order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SELECTION OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR BY INDIGENT.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That, the Director of Public Welfare, through his Honor the Mayor, be requested to allow families of deceased persons who are on Welfare or Old Age Assistance or other persons eligible under chapter 117 of section 18A, as amended by chapter 465 of the Acts of 1938 of General Laws, to be granted the privilege of selecting the funeral director.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, some time ago one of our colleagues, the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun Chase), introduced an order calling attention to the fact that there was an act passed by the Legislature back in 1938 under which the various cities and towns are allowed to spend $100 for burial of the indigent poor. It was not until it was found that the Welfare Department would not pay that amount except where the burial was done by funeral directors under their supervision that the order was introduced. Since then I have myself had occasion to look into the case of a woman who died at the City Hospital. She happened to be on the welfare roll when she died, and her husband was also on welfare. The family undertaker was called in to do the burial, and he was told that all that would be allowed would be $20, but that if the Welfare Department took charge $100 would be allowed to the funeral director whom they directed. I had to run around to get the $100 for the funeral director employed by the family. I am, therefore, introducing this order to remedy a condition that I believe should not be allowed to continue in Boston. We have on our welfare rolls people who have seen better days and who have a family tradition to the effect that members of their family shall be buried by the family funeral director. It is not a question of the family funeral director making money out of the burial, but the families do have in many cases a very strong feeling in favor of their own funeral director doing the burying. It seems to me that that is a very natural feeling, and I trust therefore that this order will be passed and that the Director of Public Welfare will allow families of deceased persons who are on Welfare or Old Age Assistance, or other persons eligible under the Act of 1938, to have the privilege of selecting their funeral director.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I want to go along on the order offered by Councilor Sullivan. I think it is a very good order. If my information is correct, about five funeral directors in the City of Boston get all the work of the Welfare Department in this line. I am informed that at times one of these funeral directors would take as many as five of these bodies at once to Potter's Field, to save themselves separate trips and some expense, and charge up $100 for each body. Since the order introduced by the councilor from the Back Bay went through, I had a person come to me and tell me that in a case in his family and it is, I understand, a matter of public record, a member of his family was buried and up to the present day he cannot obtain information as to where that person was buried either from the Welfare Department or from the city or state death records. I have had another case brought to my attention by a former resident of my town, who went to California, getting a job as nurse, and after a while when she sent on for her father, she found to her amazement that he was dead and buried, and she cannot find where he was buried. I had an undertaker come to me a few weeks ago and state in regard to a burying job that was given to a favorite undertaker, that upon subsequent examination it was found that the wrong body was taken, and he sent to the morgue and seized the right body. I certainly feel that the authorities should live up to the intention of the law, which is to take care of the poor and see that they get decent burial. I understand that bodies have been lying at the hospital morgue for five and six months awaiting identification. I understand that there are several bodies there turning black with age, they have been there so long. I believe, therefore, that this order should be passed and that families should be granted the privilege of selecting their own funeral director, instead of having bodies taken out to Potter's Field and thrown in a grave with other bodies.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, I think it is time that some action should be taken in this matter. There is nothing more sorrowful than death, and certainly every consideration should be made to the feelings of the family of the deceased at such a time. It seems clear that something should be done in this matter. It has been before the Council previously, and has now been resurrected. I feel sure that if this matter is brought clearly to the attention of the Director of Public Welfare and his Honor the Mayor, it will be remedied. Certainly in this city, where humanity is supposed to be observed at all times, it is time that the bodies of those unfortunates who have become unfortunate through no fault of their own should be properly handled. I trust that the order will go to the Committee on Public Welfare, that the subject will be looked into, and that the present system which we are told prevails will be corrected.

Coun. HUTCHINSON—Mr. President, I would also like to have the committee investigate the handling of bodies down at Long Island. I have heard, but have not been able to trace it down, that people are buried down there, that nobody knows who they are, and that their relations have not called for them. I think matters of that kind should be thoroughly looked into and that all the information available should be obtained. I trust that that is a matter that will also be investigated.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I simply want to go along with this order, and I feel that individuals thus afflicted should be given the right to select their own undertakers to bury their dead. I know of several occasions in the past where certain undertakers were unable to be hired, due to the fact that the Welfare Department took it upon themselves to handle the matter as we are told that it has been handled, and that they will not allow more than $20 if their own funeral directors do not do the burying. I wish to go along on this order, as I believe these people should be given the right to hire their own undertaker.

The order was referred to the Committee on Public Welfare.

SALE OF STOCK BY BOSTON ELEVATED.

Coun. TAYLOR offered the following:

Whereas, The report of the Finance Commission pertaining to the Boston Elevated Railway has revealed that the deficit charged to the cities and towns has been unjust; and

Whereas, The matter is now in the Attorney-General's office for his action; be it

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be requested to instruct the Board of Elevated Trustees to cancel their request for payment of said deficit by the various cities and towns; and be it further

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be requested to instruct the trustees to issue and sell additional stock sufficient to take care of the outstanding deficit to be charged to the cities and towns.

Coun. TAYLOR—While the Elevated question has not been solved to the thorough satisfaction of all classes concerned, particularly the taxpayers of the City of Boston, nevertheless, there has been a serious question raised as to whether or not the deficit charged to the cities and towns is a just one. In the meantime, until that question has been settled, I believe that this railway company, now waxing fat at the expense of the taxpayers of the City of Boston and of other cities and towns, should be compelled to shoulder a portion of the burden itself. I don't think there is anything in the contract or in the law that will prevent the Elevated from issuing stock to take up this amount, and I believe it is only fair that the burden should be borne by the stockholders of the Elevated, the value of whose stock, through the furnishing of up-to-date equipment, has increased to such an extent under the Public Control Act. I certainly believe, under the circumstances, that it is time that they should assume some of the burdens and that the trustees should issue and sell more stock to meet the deficit. They will thus be assuming a portion of the burden and will be affording to the citizens of Boston and other cities and towns a part of the consideration to which they are justly entitled.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

LICENSING OF HORSE AND DOG TIP ESTABLISHMENTS.

Coun. HURLEY and FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Corporation Counsel be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to prepare and submit to the City Council an ordinance providing for the licensing of all horse and dog tip establishments in the City of Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ROBERTS FIELD IMPROVEMENTS.

Coun. WICKES offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for the installation of a drinking fountain on Roberts Field, at the rear of the baseball backstop.

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to arrange for the installation of lighting equipment on Roberts Field, Ward 17.

Severally passed under suspension of the rule.

ONE DAY OFF IN SEVEN FOR POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Police Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to devise plans whereby one day off in seven may be granted to the members of the Boston Police Department with the present personnel.

Coun. TAYLOR in the chair.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, during the past week several stories have appeared in the local newspapers to the effect that the Mayor and the Police Commissioner have been considering the possibility of giving one day off in seven to the members of the Police Force. The City of Boston has been backward in this matter, has lagged behind other municipalities. I know that his Honor the Mayor is heartily desirous of promoting this one day off in seven plan for the Police Force if it is financially possible for the city to do so, and I know that a year ago, when Commissioner Timilty appeared before the Committee on Appropriations ——

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I doubt the presence of a quorum.

Chairman TAYLOR ordered a roll call, which showed that fourteen members were present.

Chairman TAYLOR—A quorum is present, and the speaker will proceed.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I know that his Honor the Mayor is heartily desirous of granting this one day off in seven if the condition of the city financially is such that it is possible to do so. I know also, as I say, that last year Commissioner Timilty appeared before the Committee on Appropriations and had something to say about this matter. As chairman of the Committee on Appropriations at that time, I asked the commissioner about the possibility of providing for one day off in seven for the police. He stated that the department was undermanned but added that if he received additions to the force he would be pleased to give consideration to the idea of one day off in seven for the men. Since then there have been additions to the force. I realize, of course, that other situations may have arisen and that possibly the commissioner may not have been able to carry this out. On the other hand, I have read during the past week about the situation in regard to the traffic officers. I understand that there have been good results from the drive they have been making on parkers, and that those who have been receiving four or five tickets are now paying fines, which are bringing in an income to the Municipal Court, and that there has been a substantial improvement in the parking situation as a result of this recent drive. I think, perhaps, in view of the fact that there has been a lessened demand on the parking officers thirty-five or forty might be taken off and that the department might thereby be enabled to carry out successfully the one day off in seven. Certainly the men should have their one day off in seven, and I believe personally that it will add to the efficiency of the department. It certainly is time that Boston should fall in line with other cities of the country in this respect, and I trust that the commissioner, under the circumstances, will now be able to do something about it.

Coun. HUTCHINSON—Mr. President, I concur heartily with the councilor from Ward 22 in this matter. I think it is really a very good order. We do not realize how hard the members of the force have to work. They not only do not get the one day a week off, but there are times of emergency, crime waves, parades, one thing and another, when they are on duty over hours, often at night, and when fifteen or sixteen hours out of the twenty-four are given by them in performance of their duties without any extra pay or compensation whatsoever, I think, therefore, that it is about time that the City of Boston should grant the men at least one day off in seven.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I have an order the same as this in the Executive Committee, and I think if that order is taken up and acted upon at the present time it will accomplish what is desired by this order.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I move the passage of the order.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I read in the morning paper that the Mayor said that he could not afford at the present time, with the condition of the city's finances, to give the men one day off in seven. But the gentleman who has introduced the order is a very good friend of the Mayor, and I am going to ask that it be passed, feeling that if it is a possible thing the one day off in seven will be given. It rests solely in the Mayor's hands.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I believe, with the conditions as they now exist, there is at least a possibility that the commissioner may be able to carry this out without an additional appropriation.

Coun. D. F. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I believe that my order covers the same situation. It is in the Executive Committee now, and we are awaiting the Police Commissioner to appear before us.

Chairman TAYLOR—The order will be referred to the Executive Committee.

DEMOLITION OF BUILDING, BROOKS STREET.

Coun. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to tear down the building formerly used as a public library branch, on Brooks street, Brighton, to which building the Board of Street Commissioners now holds title.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MONUMENT ON ALICE E. GALLAGHER PLAYGROUND.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to arrange for the erection of a suitable monument to be located on the Alice E. Gallagher Playground in Brighton prior to the date of dedication in July.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ACCEPTANCE OF WARD 22 STREETS.

Coun. M. H. SULLIVAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to accept and lay out as public highways, Denton road, Ryder Hill road and Richardson street, Ward 22.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LOW-INCOME GROUP HOUSING PROJECTS.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Housing Authority be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to notify all tenants in the low-income group housing projects of the Authority's decision, in answer to the City Council order of February 3, 1941, that those projects already occupied by families in the low-income group would be kept occupied solely by those families.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, on February 3 of this year some of the councilors may remember that I filed an order requesting the Boston Housing Authority, through his Honor the Mayor, to refrain from selling any more housing projects to the Federal Government for any purpose other than to house families in the low-income group. At that time it was said by members of the Council that I was trying to put members on the spot through such an order. But that was not so, Mr. President. I happen to know that many of those families who are now being provided for, families in the low-income groups, feel very uneasy about the conditions at the present time. I certainly hope that the Housing Authority will inform the low-income group tenants of the Housing Authority's decision, in answer to the City Council's order of February 3, 1941, that those projects already occupied by families in the low-income groups will be kept occupied solely by those families in those groups. I happen to know that, for instance, in the Old Harbor project district that there are hundreds of families who have been on the anxious seat, and I think they should be given some knowledge other than what has appeared in the Boston papers. I trust that the Housing Authority will see fit to get that information to the low-income tenants.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

VACATIONS FOR DRAFTEES.

Coun. GOODE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to instruct the various department heads to grant a two weeks' vacation, with pay, to those city employees who are inducted into the armed forces of the nation.

Coun. GOODE—Mr. President, I am introducing this order at this time because I feel that some provision should be made for young men who are being inducted into the army and who, if they work for a full year, would be entitled to receive vacations. I am in receipt of a communication from one department refusing such treatment to an employee, because he had left the department under such circumstances, although if he had remained he would have received two weeks' vacation with pay. So in his case the two weeks' vacation with pay was denied. I think something of this kind should be done for these young men.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

IMPROVEMENT OF CASTLE ISLAND.

Coun. SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to grade off the section of Castle Island which is now being used as a dump and also to construct granolithic walks on the island.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ENLARGING OF FROG POND.

Coun. RUSSO and FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to enlarge the Frog Pond on the Boston Common.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, the past week I have read in the newspapers about the placing of two frogs in the Frog Pond on the Common, and there seems to be quite a commotion over it. I see that the Park Commissioner is quite concerned. I ask in this order that proper steps be taken looking to the enlargement of the Frog Pond. I have occasion to go there at times in the summer, and I see there many children from my district who otherwise would have no place to go with the same facilities that are offered to them there, in the way of wading in and enjoying the Frog Pond. While, of course, the name "Frog Pond" is not associated with the presence of frogs in the pond, I do feel at this time that the pond means a great deal to the children, that it is one of the places where they enjoy going and that, considering the numbers who frequent it, it should be enlarged. That, of course, to my mind can be done without endangering their lives. I trust, therefore, that the order will pass.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SHOWER BATHS, EAST BOSTON.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to make plans for the construction of shower baths in the building now being erected on the East Boston side of the South Ferry.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, the reason why I introduce this order is that recently we had a fire at the South Ferry, and in the erection of the new building they tell me that there is no allowance in the plans for shower baths. I trust that the Public Works Commissioner will see fit to have shower baths erected there, if only for this reason, that when the engineers come off duty there will be no proper place for them to clean up unless they have a shower bath to go into.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

SAFETY ZONES, BLUE HILL AVENUE CAR RESERVATION.

Coun. GOTTLIEB offered the following:

Whereas, The Boston Elevated Street Railway reservation on Blue Hill avenue, from American Legion Highway to Mattapan, affords no safety for the passengers boarding or alighting from street cars on said reservation; and

Whereas, The Blue Hill avenue reservation is exclusively within the control of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, which Railway Company refuses to construct safety zones which are sufficiently illuminated; therefore be it

Ordered, That the Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to immediately call a conference, to be attended by his Honor the Mayor, the trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway and the General Manager thereof, for the purpose of taking immediate steps to protect the lives and safety of the users of the Boston Elevated in Dorchester and Mattapan.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

INVESTIGATION OF INTIMIDATION OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS.

Coun. GOTTLIEB offered the following:

Ordered, That the Federal Bureau of Investigation be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to launch an immediate investigation into the intimidation of public officials.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, about two weeks ago I received a postal card through the mails which was in the nature of a threat against me personally if I continued in my activities against subversive groups in the City of Boston. I paid no attention to the postcard, feeling that it was the work of some crank. This postcard followed within a few days the filing of a resolution in this Body asking for an investigation and the closing of the Nazi consulate in Boston. Whether it had any connection——

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of information. Will the Chair tell me whether the speaker is out of order?

Chairman TAYLOR—The gentleman will be allowed to speak, and the order will then be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, at a recent meeting an order like this was ruled out of order. Does the Chair now rule this one in order?

Chairman TAYLOR—The Chair will rule that the councilor has a right to speak, because he himself is involved in a threat.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I press my point of order. A similar order was introduced awhile ago, for an investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and that order was ruled out of order.

Chairman TAYLOR—I do not recall that. The Chair has no recollection of the order referred to by the councilor.

Coun. GOTTLIEB—Mr. President, in the order I have just filed I merely ask that the Federal Bureau of Investigation launch an immediate investigation into the question of intimidation of public officials. I make no mention of any particular group nor do I aim my order at any individual or group in connection with this threat to which I was subjected. I will say, however, that I did recently introduce an order concerning subversive groups, and I later received the postcard I have referred to, and later I received a letter containing a picture of a bomb and a statement that I would get what was coming to me unless I stopped squawking. I feel that if we have come to a pass where, in the exercise of our duties as representatives of the people, we are to be subjected to this sort of thing by any individual or group doing their best to undermine the democratic form of government, I have every right as an American citizen to demand an official investigation. I feel that in a matter of this kind the Federal Bureau of Investigation should take it over at once, in justice to my family and to myself as an individual citizen of the City of Boston.

Chairman TAYLOR—The order will be referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentleman to answer a question.

Chairman TAYLOR—The order has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, may I talk on the order?

Chairman TAYLOR—It has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. COFFEY—The councilor spoke upon it, and you recognized me when I got up, calling me by name, and before I had a chance to speak, you referred it to the Committee on Rules.

Chairman TAYLOR—If you want to speak, you can do so by unanimous consent.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I think I have a right to talk on the order before its reference to the Committee on Rules.

Chairman TAYLOR—The order has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Chairman TAYLOR—Is there any seconding of the appeal? (No response.) The order stands referred to the Committee on Rules.

Coun. ENGLERT—Mr. President, I move that we take a recess and go into Executive Session.

Coun. Englert's motion was declared carried. Coun. COFFEY doubted the vote and asked for the yeas and nays.

The Council voted to take a recess subject to the call of the Chair, yeas 13, nays 2:

Yeas—Coun. Carey, Englert, Fish, Goode, Gottlieb, Hurley, Hutchinson, Langan, Lyons, Russo, Scannell, M. H. Sullivan, Taylor—13.

Nays—Coun. Coffey, D. F. Sullivan—2.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I move a reconsideration.

The motion to reconsider was declared lost.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

The motion to reconsider was lost, yeas 2, nays 13:

Yeas—Coun. Coffey, D. F. Sullivan—2.

Nays—Coun. Carey, Englert, Fish, Goode, Gottlieb, Hurley, Hutchinson, Langan, Lyons, Russo, Scannell, M. H. Sullivan, Taylor—13.

The members went into recess at 3.35 p. m. and reassembled at 3.50 p. m., Coun. TAYLOR in the chair.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

The commissioner is pleased and gratified in commendng Patrolman Walsh for his initiative, untiring effort and devotion to duty shown in accomplishing the arrest and successful prosecution of the perpetrator of this heinous crime, who has been removed from society for a substantial period by being sentenced to State Prison.

General Order No. 608.

A trial board consisting of Captains Grace, Daley (now Deputy Superintendent) and Donovan, having heard by reference a complaint made by Thomas F. Casey, captain, Division 10, against Edwin N. Saunders, patrolman, Division 10, charging him with "Neglecting to Pay a Just Debt" and "Failing to Report Change of Residence," reported to the commissioner a finding of guilty as charged. In accordance with which the said Patrolman Edwin N. Saunders was on April 8, 1941, dismissed from the Police Department.

Due written notice of such dismissal with the reasons therefor was duly and specifically given in hand on April 8, 1941, to the said Edwin N. Saunders.

On the eleventh day of April, 1941, the said Edwin N. Saunders requested, in writing, a public hearing as provided by law, and the Police Commissioner set down Tuesday, April 15, 1941, at 11 o'clock a. m., at Police Headquarters, as the time and place for said hearing and duly notified the said Edwin N. Saunders. At the request of Edwin N. Saunders said hearing was continued from Tuesday, April 15, 1941, and set down for Wednesday, April 23, 1941, at 11 o'clock a. m.

The said Edwin N. Saunders was present at said time and place and was heard. Whereupon, after hearing the commissioner found the said Edwin N. Saunders guilty as charged. In view of the fact that adjustment had been made in connection with the charge "Neglecting to Pay a Just Debt," the commissioner rescinded the order of dismissal, dated April 8, 1941, and ordered that the said Edwin N. Saunders be reinstated as a patrolman in the Boston Police Department and thereupon suspended from duty for a period of twenty days, effective as of April 9, 1941, at 7.45 o'clock a. m., with loss of pay during the period of suspension; and that at the expiration of the said period of suspension the said Patrolman Edwin N. Saunders perform 315 hours of punishment duty.

MAYOR TOBIN AIDS W. P. A. WORKERS.

Through the kindly offices of Mayor Tobin a total of 1,000 W. P. A. workers of Boston are being given an opportunity for steady employment they might not otherwise enjoy. He is providing, from welfare funds, the sum of $1.00 a week each to furnish the extra carfare necessary to transport them between the Boston line and the Naval Air Base at Squantum, where a large expansion program is being carried out.

The actual work began on Tuesday. On that day 100 of the men were set to work and others will be absorbed daily until, within ten days, the entire 1,000 will be at work. The project will last through till next fall and according to Edward Fitzgerald, W. P. A. Administrator for District No. 1, which takes in Boston, the 1,000 men will be employed largely in non-skilled jobs.

W. P. A. requires that the men it employs pay their own transportation within the city limits. The Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway makes a special rate of $1.00 weekly for street car transportation from Neponset Bridge to the Atlantic railroad station in Quincy, and from there by bus to Squantum. A single fare in either direction costs ten cents.

The new project will involve six working days a week, so that the special rate cuts twenty cents from the regular rate of fare. Mayor Tobin's action in absorbing the extra transportation cost means that the men will have full benefit of what they will earn.

In addition, the needs of defense have caused W. P. A. authorities to step up the work at Squantum from the usual thirty hours weekly to forty-eight hours, or six full days, so that the men will be receiving 60 per cent more pay than on regular projects.

LAND-TAKING IN WEST ROXBURY.

The Mayor has approved the order of the Board of Street Commissioners for the taking of land for a public improvement, consisting of the laying out and construction of Crehore road, West Roxbury district, as a highway, from West Roxbury Parkway to Leland road, with the name of Stowell road, or some other distinctive name, bounded and described as follows:

A highway named Crehore road is hereby laid out, from West Roxbury Parkway to Leland road, over and including part of the private way known as Hackensack road, and ordered constructed.

Said highway and the land, exclusive of trees or structures standing upon or affixed thereto, in which an easement for street purposes is hereby taken, is bounded and described as follows:

Westerly by West Roxbury Parkway, one hundred thirty-eight and 97-100 feet on a curve of ten hundred thirty-five and 37-100 feet radius; northerly by the northerly line of said Crehore road as hereby laid out, by two measurements, forty-six and 44-100 feet on a curve of twenty feet radius and sixty-eight and 85-100 feet; easterly by the easterly line of said Crehore road as hereby laid out, forty-five and 99-100 feet on a curve of twenty feet radius; again northerly by the northerly line of said Crehore road as hereby laid out, four hundred sixty and 28-100 feet; westerly by the westerly line of said Crehore road as hereby laid out, thirty-five and 79-100 feet on a curve of twenty feet radius; easterly by Leland road, eighty-one and 95-100 feet; and southerly by the southerly line of said Crehore road as hereby laid out, by five measurements, twenty-seven and 4-100 feet on a curve of twenty feet radius, five hundred forty-three and 41-100 feet, twenty-eight and 20-100 feet on a curve of thirty-three and 49-100 feet radius, eighteen and 42-100 feet and thirty-four and 28-100 feet on a curve of fifty feet radius.

Trees or structures standing upon or affixed to the aforedescribed land shall be removed therefrom within sixty days following a notice of the city's intention to enter upon said land for the purpose of constructing said improvement.

Betterments are to be assessed for the making of the aforesaid improvement.

Ordered, That this Board estimates that the abutting lots of land on all sides of said Crehore road, as laid out under this order, will receive benefit or advantage, beyond the general advantage to all real estate in said city from the improvement herein ordered; each of said lots to the amount hereinafter respectively set against it; said lots and the supposed owners thereof being shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Crehore Road, West Roxbury, Assessment Plan, September 25, 1940, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," and on file in the office of said department.

SENATOR WALSH TO BE "I AM AN AMERICAN DAY" ORATOR.

The following statement was issued to the Bureau of Americanization by Hon. Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor of Boston, in connection with "I Am An American Day":

Observance to be held at the Hatch Memorial Shell, Esplanade, Boston, Sunday, May 18, 1941, at 2.30 p. m.

"I am deeply anxious that all citizens attend the ceremonies of 'I Am An American Day.' I am sure that these ceremonies will impress more firmly in their minds the great advantage of being an American. While in many countries of the world individual liberty has been destroyed and persecution of minorities is rampant, our country guarantees and provides liberty to all. Today the voice of 'I Am An American' rings out proudly and happily in this world of chaos. Let us dedicate ourselves on this day to the great principles of Americanism."

Senator David I. Walsh, senior United States Senator from Massachusetts, will be one of the speakers on the program celebrating "I Am An American Day."

The popular Scandinavian Choral groups will take part in the mammoth choral demonstration. It is also expected that there will be an unusual exhibition by the color guards of the United States Army, Marines, Navy and Coast Guard.

The enthusiastic response by different Veterans of Foreign War groups as well as the American Legion Posts leads the committee assisting with the formation of plans to announce that the coming commemoration of "I Am An American Day" should be the greatest in the history of this country.

FLYING CADET WEEK PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The exigencies of the present international crisis, which threatens the peace and security of our American way of life, make it imperative that the hearts and minds of all citizens should be united in a mutual and purposeful will to assist in building up our National Defense; and

Whereas, Aware of the importance of an Air Defense second to none, the people of Boston are zealous in their support of our Army and its objective to increase its Air Corps to a size adequate to its great responsibility; and

Whereas, Our Army is now enrolling suitable qualified young men as Flying Cadets for training as commissioned officer-pilots in the Air Corps, and the City of Boston desires to provide its full share of this specialized man-power; and

Whereas, The week beginning Sunday, May 18, has been designated as New England Flying Cadet Week, during which time the New England Flying Cadet Committee is to dramatize the week and thereby stimulate enrollments for the Army Flying Schools, and is arranging a series of interesting events; now, therefor,

I, Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor of the City of Boston, do hereby call upon all citizens to spread the word of the importance and the honor attached to flying service in our Air Corps and to disseminate by every means full information as to the qualifications, procedure, opportunities and privileges incident to the Flying Cadet Corps of the United States Army.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, this 15th day of May, 1941.

MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

MOTHERS' DAY PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, Since the beginning of history, mother love has been an impelling force among the people of the earth; and

Whereas, Without that dominant trait, mankind could not have attained the heights to which it has risen; and

Whereas, Mothers throughout history have subordinated themselves and their own interests for the benefit of their families; and

Whereas, Some of the world's greatest men owe that greatness to the beneficial influence exerted by their mothers; and

Whereas, Many American mothers have recently been anguished by breaks in their family circles due to conscription, and are facing the possible sacrifice of seeing their sons sent into war; and

Whereas, In accordance with the custom of recent years, Sunday, May 11, has been set apart as Mothers' Day.

Now, therefore, I, Maurice J. Tobin, Mayor of Boston, urge all our citizens to make full observance of the event, by kindly and thoughtful actions toward those mothers who are living, by honoring the memory of those mothers who have passed beyond and, in addition, by paying tribute to the mothers of friends.

In this way they will signify to the world, as well as to the women who bore them, that the memory of a good mother will forever be enshrined in the heart of America.

Given at Boston, this eighth day of May, in the year of Our Lord, 1941.

MAURICE J. TOBIN, Mayor.

PRAISE FOR PATRIOTIC BOSTON.

On May 14 Mayor Tobin issued the following statement:

In every crisis of our history the people of Boston have served their country in the spirit of patriotism and self-giving. We must give that same service now if we are to maintain the Democracy our fathers built. Democracy depends, as never before, upon each citizen practicing at home and at work those principles of honesty, unselfishness and faith in God which he expects of his leaders.

How we can do this has been set forth in a little book, "You Can Defend America." General John J. Pershing says, "No patriotic citizen can read it without feeling its inspiration . . . How each can do his part in the home, in industry, in every walk of life is indicated clearly and forcefully."

As Mayor of Boston, I would say this to all our citizens—This is a book for your home and your family.

MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

ASSESSMENTS CANCELED.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Whereas, An order of the Board of Street Commissioners, approved by the Mayor December 12, 1938, and recorded in Suffolk Registry of Deeds December 16, 1938, Libro 5763, page 214, provided for the laying out and construction of an extension of Howitt road, West Roxbury district, from La Grange street to St. Theresa avenue, as a highway; and

Whereas, The Public Works Department, under date of April 29, 1941, has informed this Board that said Howitt road was not entered for construction within the two years specified by law; it is hereby Ordered, That the assessment liens created by said order of December 12, 1938, be, and the same hereby are, canceled.

We have four male llamas at this time. The dealers list llamas at $300 each, the aoudads at $200 each and Buck lists the anubis, which is a particularly large healthy specimen, at $125.

The male aoudad will fill the place of the one killed by vandals on the night of April 10, 1941. The male anubis will fill an empty cage in the monkey house.

Very respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

REGISTRY OF PROBATE.

BOSTON, April 3, 1941.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—As you are aware, it is necessary for me to purchase supplies for the Registry of Probate and the Probate Court under Item D–1 in the budget. The principal expenditures from this item are for the purchase of blank forms, of which we have approximately three hundred kinds. With such a variety it is very difficult, if not impossible, to anticipate the needs of the bar, the public and the office in that connection and very often we find it necessary to order some items for quick delivery, so that we cannot wait until our needs would amount to one thousand dollars.

We do not usually expend as much as one thousand dollars at any one time for the purchase of such blank forms and other supplies. I believe that if we were required to build up our orders to the one thousand dollar mark and advertise for bids, such action would be likely to result (no matter how unintentionally) in over purchasing.

In the light of the foregoing, I respectfully request authority to dispense with advertising for bids for the purchase of supplies under budget Item D–1. This request is made under the provisions of chapter 156 of the Acts of 1939.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN,
Register.

HON. MAURICE J. TOBIN,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of September 27, 1940, your Honor approved a contract with Cooley & Marvin for furnishing accounting and engineering services in connection with the setting up in certain city departments of a uniform inventory and stores system for the control of the procurement, receipt, storage and use of supplies, and the subsequent coordination of such system in the Supply Department.

On December 20, 1940, in compliance with the terms of the contract, Cooley & Marvin submitted to this department a detailed plan of the system they propose to put into effect. A thorough study of this report has been made by the Survey Committee and this department and it is our opinion that the recommendations contained therein constitute the most efficacious means of achieving the objective desired.

Attached is a copy of the contract which has been drawn up, embodying the methods to be employed by the contractor in instituting the inventory and stores system, and your permission is respectfully requested to award this contract to Cooley & Marvin without publicly advertising for bids.

The proposed contract is to be effective immediately and will terminate December 31, 1941. The contractor is to receive approximately six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) for the services rendered.

Yours respectfully,

JOHN A. BREEN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

The plug tobacco furnished by Caporale Brothers is perferred at Long Island Hospital, and inasmuch as this company is the direct agent of the manufacturer no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising.
